"White Paper" rebuked by Fenelon reeve

Won't play sides, Smitheram says in reply to authors of paper

Would cut off water flow under mill, hatchery operator seeks to prevent it

Water flow under mill is threatened

A "white paper" being circulated in Fenelon Township has drawn a protest from Reeve Arthur Smitheram. The reeve says it contains implications which are not factual and he says neither he nor his council have had, or will have, any part in playing one group against another.

In a reply to the "white paper," Reeve Smitheram has issued a prepared statement in which he says, quote:

"A number of points have been enumerated and the appeal seems to imply that the present council have done something less than its best for the ratepayers of Fenelon. I must, forthwith, assure you, and indeed any ratepayer in Fenelon Township that the 1963 Council at all times strived to represent and serve with equal concern ALL the people of our Township. We did not at any time legislate for one group while being unkind of another group. We have no star will we have any part of playing non-residents against residents or farmers against urban dwellers. We must serve all fairly and thoughtfully. No one knows better than the 1963 council that each group needs the other if we are to progress and prosper in our Township.

"Referring to piece of literature being circulated: Item (1) Suggested that the new Council would 'retain a greater percentage of the tax dollar for the Township.' This (Please turn to page 6)

No need seen in Lindsay for senior citizen housing

Lindsay council learned this week that the director of Economic Development's survey, the matter could be taken up with them again. The advisory committee was instructed to look at the letter and report again in the Spring.

Canada's Dept. of Transport is considering blocking off the water that runs under the "old mill" (east of the Lindsay St. N. bridge), claims Gordon Henderson of the Henderson's Child Hatchery, and he doesn't like the idea.

In a letter to Lindsay's Council, Mr. Henderson has appealed for help in maintaining a water flow under the mill, when necessary to prevent the water from getting stagnant. He bases his appeal on sanitary reasons.

Mr. Henderson pointed out the provision for a water flow here is made in the original water rights of the property.

Councillor Russell Taylor told council that the old wooden sluiceway was blocked with planks, but that it was most important that provision be made for some control over the water at the mill.

Mr. Henderson informed council that he had been in touch with officials of the Department of Transport several times asking permission for a current of water to pass under the old mill at times the department did not need it to keep the Scugog at the proper level.

Council agreed that it would be desirable if the Department of Transport would put in a hand valve instead of completely blocking off the water and the town solicitor and town engineers are to be instructed to study the matter and report to council.

Burned-out lights replaced

Burned-out decorative light bulbs are all replaced. Councillor Leslie Neil informed council Tuesday evening and Mayor Joseph Holton suggested this was a good time to observe them to see how many burn out by the end of December. Mr. Neil told council members that Mayor Holton's Lightbody feels the new bulbs being used will be much better than the former ones.

EDITORIAL . .

AND NOW IT'S
 "THE MAPLE LEAF FOREVER" . . .

And now it's the lyrics to "The Maple Leaf Forever" that do not sit the small but noisy segment of the Canadian population who would "ring out the old and ring in the new."

The Canadian Authors' Association is offering a prize of $1,000 for "a new and more national rendition of "The Maple Leaf Forever." The association has taken it upon itself to offer a $1,000 for a new set of lyrics to the old Canadian song as a centennial project, on the grounds that "it accuses an anglophobia in Quebec and has little appeal to the people of the western provinces, many of whom have never seen a maple tree".

Apart from the fact that the reasons for wishing to make this change are about as flimsy as those advanced for striving for a new flag for Canada, the idea represents a complete departure from what most Canadians thought the centennial celebration was supposed to do — give honour to those things which are truly Canadian and constitute an essential part of its growth.

There is nothing original about re-writing an old Canadian song nor could it be possibly be conceived as making any worthwhile contribution to the centennial. If any author's association had suggested a "centennial hymn or anthem" this might have been received with more enthusiasm and it would at least be original.

Remember way back when

DECEMBER 4, 1913

A special meeting of the council was held last night to deal with several items of pressing importance. His Worship Mayor Beal presided and all the members were present excepting Reeve Kytle and Ald. Warren. On motion of Alderman Smale and Nicholls, the Mayor was authorized to sign a cheque in favor of George H. Lindsay for $800.00 being in payment of real estate between Gilmel and Melbourne Sts. as described in a deed from Mr. Lindsay. This is the site selected by the Cole-Berger firm for their own factory. On motion of Messrs. Adams and Nicholls, the Mayor, Ald. Smale and Mr. Toss. Shinson were appointed a committee to discuss or negotiate settlement of bonds for permanent roadways and report to council. On motion of Ald. Adams and Nicholls, the Treasurer was instructed to pay Mr. Parks $60.00 salary for three nights as special constable.

Bonds disposed of Today the town disposed of the Boving bonds amounting to $10,000 to the Dominion Securities Co. of 92 and accrued interest. The actual cash is $9,684.93.

DECEMBER 4, 1938

At the regular monthly meeting of the Public Library Board held recently it was disclosed that the affairs of the Library are in a particularly healthy position as regards the book circulation and the many other transactions carried on in the building. Many local public bodies hold their meetings on the premises. A gratifying incident is the great use being made of the juvenile section. The room is overcrowded with young school children who seek information to assist them in their school work. This is one of the most important functions of the Public Library Work and the Library has reached the limit of its accommodation in this respect and it is only a question of a short time when this section will have to be enlarged. The general book circulation is also increasing rapidly. In November nearly 7,000 books were taken from the Library an increase of almost 10 per cent over the corresponding month a year ago. The reading room are also well patronized.

ONE IN PURPOSE

Below the island of Montreal the waters that comes from the north, from the Ottawa, unites with the waters that come from the Great Lakes to the west, but uniting they do not mix. They run parallel, separate, undisturbed, and yet they are one stream, flowing within the same banks of the mighty St. Lawrence, and rolling on towards the sea . . .

There is the perfect image of our nation. We may not assimilate, we may not blend, but for that we are the component parts of the same country. We may be French in our origin, we may be English or Scots or whatever — but we are Canadians, one in aim, and in one purpose.

—Sir. Wm. Lloyd Garrison, quoted in "Human Relations"

Mrs. A. Forbes opens home for Knox WMS meeting

Withdrew from contest for friendship reasons

Donald (Dan) McQuarrie, changed his mind about running for Ops Township Council. "My reason is that my friend Stanley Reed, who at present sits after learning that Stanley holds this office, is again a Reed would be standing for candidate for deputy-revee and deputy-revee.

I felt it would not be fair for me to oppose him," stated Mr. McQuarrie.

In a letter addressed to the taxpayers, Ops Township, Mr. McQuarrie said, "At your nominating meeting last Saturday in the Moore Hall I was nominated for the office of deputy-revee and I intimated that my Unionated States, George Washington might be on your ballot greater credit than to expect or election. I would like to calculate upon real favors view you that I am not seeking from nation to nation" — U.S.

Painting Tip
Be especially careful when you are painting a ceiling and whether using a brush or roller, be sure not to overlook with paint. A drop of paint in your eye could prove very dangerous. Merely dip the brush into your paint, and remove excess from the roller.

Fabric Protection
When cutting buttons off a piece of clothing, it's a good idea to slip a thin comb between the button and the fabric. The teeth of the comb will protect the material from damage while you cut the threads with a razor blade.

Leaf Forever."

The association has assigned the task of getting a new set of lyrics to the old Canadian song as a centennial project.

The association's office manager, George Salvendy, says "we don't care where we get the lyrics as long as we get the right ones."

The man who is credited with conceiving the idea, Gordon Thompson of a Toronto music publisher's firm, said "The Maple Leaf Forever was a good thing in its time and in its place."
Thompson adds "today, it arouses antagonism in Quebec and has little appeal to the people of the other provinces, many of whom have never seen a maple tree."

Being called 'New Canadians' cause for pride, judge tells citizenship group at Lindsay

Being called "New Canadians" is not to be regarded as a detrimental classification, Judge H. E. Richardson told a group of new citizens at Lindsey this week. His honor was presiding at the ceremony of conferring Canadian citizenship on new Canadians this week at Victoria Court House.

"You may be called 'New Canadians' but this is not meant to be detrimental," he declared, adding: "You can take pride in the fact that you are Canadian citizens through your own choice... you are now Canadians and belong to

Judge Richardson outlined some of the privileges and opportunities that accrue with citizenship. "You have the right to obtain employment in all civil services. You may stand for any office, municipal provincial or federal, as well

As vote in these elections.
He pointed out the new citi-juries, and added "though some may feel this is of doubtful benefit, this duty should be embraced, since the lawman is an integral part of the administration of justice."

"Along with your own ethnic

Drivers' names spelled out on foot-long record card

If you have a driver's licence your name will soon be spelled out on a foot-long card in a high-speed printing machine in Toronto.

This card will be your personal application form for your next licence and it will be the first step in Ontario's new system of three-year drivers' licences.

Some time between now and the end of January, you will get the card in the mail. You can obtain your own driver's licence by filling out the application enclosing your money and either taking it to your local issuing office or mailing it to the Ontario Department of Transport Toronto.

When will you get your application form?
How long will your new license be valid?

How much will you have to pay?

All these things depend on your birth-date. Transport Minister Irvin Haskett outlined the procedure in a preview of how the new system will work.

If your birthday is in January you can expect to receive your form very soon. If it is in June you'll get your form a bout New Year's; if it is in the final months of the year you'll get your form later in January. The application forms are being mailed in the chronological order of the drivers' birthdays.

Your licence will be valid for more than one year. The expiry date will be printed on it. If your birthday is between the 1st and the 15th, the expiry date will be on your birthday in 1965. If your birthday is from the 20th of the month onward, the expiry date will be on your birthday in 1966.

And how much will it cost?
"The annual licence fee remains the same, at $2 per year
Mr. Haskett said. "The amount will be calculated according to the length of time each licence is valid."

For example: If your birth-date is June 12 your licence will be valid for about a year and a half—all of 1964 and up until June 12 1965—and your fee will be $3.00. If your birth-date is November 22 your license will be valid for all of 1964 and 1965 and up until November 22 1966—and your fee will be $5.80.

Why aren't the licences being sent out all at once? Simply because there are two and a half million of them. Even with machines printing and mailing the cards at the rate of every one every second, and operating 24 hours a day, it will take two full months to get them out.

If the cards for every driver could be laid end to end, they would form a continuous strip for 473 miles—from Toronto to well beyond Sault Ste.
Marie.

Sports Briefs

Ferguson, Hicke, Richard will be missing from lineup

Regular John Ferguson, Bill Hicke and Henry Richard will be missing the Montreal Canadiens lineup when they meet the Maple Leafs in Toronto tonight. Gills Tremblay probably will wind up the final Ferguson's spot with Jean Bellevue and Bernie Geoffrion.

Boston is at Chicago in the only other National Hockey League game scheduled for tonight.

Coach Sid Abel acquired MacMillan for an undisclosed amount of cash in a deal with the Toronto Maple Leafs. The Leafs are now over the players limit of 16 and two goalies. A decision of the next Leaf to go.

Casey Stengel's coming back, but this is his last time around.

Without spelling it out in big black letters, the chipper 73-year-old Casey has made it clear he'll be back with the New York Mets for the 1964 season.

Crack even though he's the only unsigned manager in the Majors at the moment.

"I'm down here working, ain't I, so you can say that I'm going to manage next season," said Stengel, leaving no doubt next year will be his last one in baseball from the tone of his voice.

"I feel fine right now," he added, "and I think I got some thing accomplished that I set out to do. When I took this job, I said I wanted to get a new club built; that I was not starting a new career for myself."

will likely be made today.

U.S. Davis Cup team manager Bob Kelleher says pro champion Pancho Gonzales will arrive in Melbourne next Monday to supervise the final two weeks of training the American team. The Yanks will meet Australia in the only other National Hockey League game scheduled for tonight.

The Commissioner of the American Football League—Joe Pos—says he is looking forward to the day that his league and the National Football League will meet in a head-on title battle. One N.F.L. player who believes it is inevitable is Yale Lary, veteran defensive back on the Detroit Lions. Lary says the A.F.L. is gaining ground and it is a very healthy situation.

Casey Stengel's coming back but it's his last time 'round

Clear the way for Liston-Clay February fight

The Nevada State Athletic Commission has cleared the way for the February 24th, New York Mets for the Liston-Clay fight by granting an out of state promoter's license to Intercontinental Promotions Incorporated of Chester, Pennsylvania.

Intercontinental Promotions Incorporated of which Liston is president, was granted the license by the three of the five-member commission voted to approve the application.

Two of the members were not present.

The commission had asked out of the state attorney general for an opinion prior to the vote new club built; that I was not starting a new career for myself."

Would extend impaired list to include depressant drug users operating motor cars

Lindsay's Chief of Police John L. Hunter told Kivanians this week that in his opinion the law could go further in regards to drivers and introduce a measure to deal with operators of vehicles suffering from the excessive use of depressant drugs.

Speaking at the club's weekly dinner where they observed "Safe Driving Week," the chief outlined the work of the police department in relation to investigation of accidents, and the law enforcement of highway traffic, as well as drinking drivers and charges of impaired driving. He said that the law covered a great many rules and regulations regarding the operation of a motor vehicle and stiff penalties were given for driving under the influence of liquor or narcotic drugs.

It was then that the chief said that perhaps it should be an offence to drive after extensive use of depressant drugs, such as phenobarbital, the anti-histamines, and some cough medicines.

The chief noted that, according to statistics, out of the accidents which will happen next year, two out of three of the drivers will have had an accident before. In addition, approximately two out of three of the drivers will have their accident with 25 miles of their home.

He said that every second person in the room, or some member of their family might be involved in an accident within the next 12 months.

"A great responsibility rests on the police regarding law enforcement," he said, and part of this responsibility rested on citizens and all drivers of motor vehicles.

Kivaniar Dr. R. K. Holling in thanking the speaker, agreed with the chief and was outspoken in denouncing the murder-slaughter on the highways, stating that 33 per cent of the beds in the local hospital are occupied by motor vehicle accident patients.

Charge boys with car theft

Five Peterboro youths, one 16 and the others 15, have been arrested by Minden police and charged with car theft.

The boys are charged with stealing a car in the Peterboro area which was later recovered by the Minden detachment at Donald just south of Haliburton.

They are also charged with stealing a car in Bobcaygeon. They will appear next week in Peterboro court.

Crown Attorney suffers seizure

A familiar face was missing when police court convened in Lindsay this morning.

It was that of Crown Attorney Lorne Jordan. Mr. Jordan suffered a mild heart seizure Monday afternoon and is now recovering in Ross Memorial Hospital. He is expected to be away from his duties for several weeks.

Wife's brother leads polls on built bid

It was a happy day Monday for Mrs. John L. Hunter of Lindsay, wife of Police Chief John L. Hunter as friends called to congratulate her on her son's success at the Whitby Polls.

He led the polls by a good majority on his first bid at alderman for 1984.

Robert Attersley is well remembered as one of the stars of the Whitby Dunlops the year they won the world hockey championship by defeating Russia in the last and deciding game.

The new alderman is the proprietor of the Dunlop Tire and Sales Service and a sporting goods store in Whitby.

White Report

is a meaningless statement apparently designed to trap the unwary voter. It is not worth noting that neither at the nomination meeting nor in any campaign literature that I am aware is being circulated has any critic of the 1963 council been able to point to one tax dollar spent unwisely OUT of the Township. The quotation above is so vague that I feel I need not further comment on it.

Item (2) States our road policy very accurately. We HAVE been and we will continue to improve our Township roads by the use of ever changing and up-to-date methods and materials. Naturally our road programme is only as good as reasonable finances will permit.

A NEW COUNCIL perhaps could THROW GOOD JUDGEMENT "OUT THE WINDOW" and embark on a SPENDING PROGRAMME that would incur greater taxation load than any ratpayer would want to undertake to pay. As always our policy will be the best road programme we can sensibly undertake and afford.

Item (3) Suggests we take "full advantage of Winter Works Programme". We of the 1963 Council have given this matter careful consideration. We HAVE ALREADY APPLIED for approval on a greatly expanded Winter Works Programme.

Item (4) When it comes to "transacting business in a businesslike manner" I feel compelled to mention that all the members of the 1963 Council are business men who have told us that they have management ability as is evidenced by the fact of successful operation of their own affairs. Not one is a paid government servant nor is any of the 1963 Council on a payroll where someone else assumes the responsibility of management.

Item (5) Reference is made to improvement in garbage collection. This matter was discussed at the nomination and the 1963 Council is already on record as to its intention to expand the service in this department.

"I sincerely hope that the eligible voters will make every effort to get out and vote. I see it."

Dominion Stores seek action on parking lot agreement

Dominion Stores Ltd. is requesting an early reply from Lindsay Council regarding parking facilities on Russell Street West back of the projected new Dominion Store. The company has proposed a rental of $500 net a year from the town and in return the town receives the revenue from the meters. Mayor Holtom said that although a reply is needed fast council had first to get a report from traffic and parking committee on meter revenues so that the matter could be considered.

Work Starts

A letter from Canada's Department of Public Works was read to council informing them of work that had been commenced at the new Federal Building to provide post office parking on the south side of the new building.

Human Rights Day

Council decided that December 10th should again be recognized in Lindsay and the date is to be promulgated as United Nations "Human Rights Day."

Lights Ready

Lighting Committee Chairman Neil told council that lights at the Victoria Home and at the entrance to St. Mary's Cemetery and some on Needham Street are all ready to install as soon as permission is received from Ontario Hydro to connect them to hydro poles. Council learned that the light at the locks had been installed. "Good," said Councillor Taylor "if anyone falls in the lock we'll be able to see them."

I feel confident that the 1963 council's program and conduct of township affairs is worthy of the support of the electorate.

"My opponents advocate that a "more uniform assessment must be established". It is not a fact that this is the underlying reason for the appointment of the County Assessor some years ago. But as I am afraid that the Township Council does not write the "Assessment Act" for Ontario nor did the Fenelon Township Council hire the County Assessor, I suggest that those responsible for the "White Paper" being circulated would have to admit that their "if anyone falls in the lock" would be unable to change either the assessment act or the county assessor.

"I intend to send a copy of this letter to each of the people named on the bottom of the "white paper" referred to above. I also will release copies to the press for use as they see fit."

No Reply Yet

No reply has been received from the school board yet regarding a proposed meeting between council, the school board and the Department of Education regarding the proposed new school, Councillor Taylor told council members. Council agreed to sign the agreement with the Bank of Montreal with regard to the safe keeping of documents.

Coming Here

Hal Rogers, founder of the Association of Kinsmen Clubs will be a guest of the Kinsmen Club of Lindsay at the club's 7th Club Anniversary celebrations on Thursday. Special engraved invitations have also been sent out to all past members and K-40 members of the Kinsmen Club of Lindsay. Hal Rogers founded the all-Canada Kinsmen Club in Hamilton following the first World War.

President thanks Mayor Holtom

Mayor Joseph Holtom read to Lindsay Council a letter from M. F. Anderson, President of the Dominion Rubber Company Limited in which Mr. Anderson said, "I wish to thank you personally for the warm welcome you extended to Dominion Rubber Company Limited this week on behalf of the people of Lindsay. As you yourself said on the occasion of our official announcement the decision to build a new tire cord plant in this town will surely prove to be a happy and profitable one for both Lindsay and Dominion Rubber. We are looking forward to the day of our plant's opening when this company will become a full fledged corporate citizen and truly share in the affairs of the community. This has been made possible largely through your help and co-operation and that of other town and local officials."

Old hockey minutes recall league names of yesteryear

The minutes of old meetings sometimes make interesting reading in later years.

Mrs. Nobel Hicks of Oakwood was going through some of her late husband's records the other day when she came across the minutes of an independent hockey league meeting. Dated December 10th, 1937, the minutes will no doubt be of interest to many area residents who remember Noble (Nobel) Hicks as an enthusiastic sports fan. Here they are:

Moved by Noble Hicks, Sec. by P. Hicks minutes of last meeting be adopted. Carried. Moved by E. Swain, sec. by A. Williamson that Noble Hicks be president for 1937-38 season. Carried. It was left with Noble Hicks to secure his own Secretary.

Moved by A. Williamson, Sec. by G. Wicket that Omensee be allowed to play their home game in Omensee. Carried. The referees approved for the executive were: E. Weaver, O. Lett, Russel Mark B. Weldon, G. Jacket, B. Reeves. Moved by Noble Hicks, Sec. by A. Fletcher a single schedule be played this season. All sports to be first two teams play home and home games, goals to count and third and fourth teams to play home and home games, goals to count and the two winners to also play home and home games goals to count. The winners of the last two games get the cup.

Well-known champion Emile Griffith and promoter Harry Markson of Madison Square Garden have been voted the fight game's highest honors for 1963.

Twenty-five-year-old Griffith of New York, who unexpectedly won the 147-pound crown, a third time on June eighth, gets the Edward J. Neil award for "Fighter of the Year."

Promoter Markson, receives the James J. Walker prize for long and meritorious service to the sport during his 32 years as fight-writer, press representative and promoter.

The awards were voted at Tuesday's annual meeting of the Boxing Writer's Association in New York and will be presented at the Association's annual dinner, January 12th in the Americana Hotel.

Fire Chief Watson endorses Christmas tree safety plea

Lindsay's Fire Chief Arnold Watson has endorsed a statement made by Ontario's Fire Marshal Martin S. Hurst who advises care in the selection and handling of Christmas trees and other decorations during the holiday season.

Last year in Ontario, 50 fires resulted from causes connected with seasonal festivities," said Mr. Hurst. "A dry Christmas tree can burn to charred wood in 18 seconds.

During that time a house could be set afire or a child could receive painful, if not fatal burns. Christmas trees should be selected with care to make sure they are green and fresh. When placed in position they should be stood in water and kept away from sources of heat to prevent them from drying too quickly. When a tree is dry enough for needles to drop off, it is time to remove it from the house.

"Certain new types of decorations require care in handling," Mr. Hurst continued. Many plastics are combustible and must be kept clear of burning candles and other sources of flame. Metals and foils used for Christmas trees and reflectors are conductors of electricity. Faulty wiring with such metals could cause a dangerous shock and even fire. Strings of lights should be checked for frayed ends and breaks before using and should not be used with aluminum trees. Spot lights are recommended as a safe and attrac-

Reports employment situation slightly improved this year

The employment figure for London and area shows a slight improvement this year, over last year, a report from the local National Employment Office reveals.

Unemployed male applicants last year were 293 as compared to 265 this year, said Manager Clare Kirkness. There were 196 females compared to 183 this year. Claims were also down approximately 34 this year as compared to last, noted Mr.

Kirkness, with 272 males and 185 females last year as against 244 and 139 this year. He credited part of the reduction in the figures to the recent spell of fine weather which helped to keep the workers active on the Bank of Montreal, post office and airport projects. "I would say, generally speaking that the situation shows improvement over last year," Mr. Kirkness stated.

Catch a piebald horse

A surprising number of people who would demand the most modern drug from their family doctor, still cherish a secret faith in some ancient remedy for common illness. Some old "home cures" may have a scientific basis others are a mere bubble of superstition.

Fish flour provides protein

Scientists at the International Congress of Nutrition held in Edinburgh last August agreed bread containing a high proportion of protein-rich fish flour at their official banquet, and did not know it until informed by the chairman of the Congress.

Reporting in the BBC General Overseas Service programme "Science and Industry" on a variety of ancient remedies. But it would be hard to find anyone prepared to try the cure suggested for whooping cough. "For instance," said Vaughan "you can't find a piebald horse and then inhale its breath catch an owl and make a stew, or roast a mouse and eat it, or find a married couple whose names are John and Joan, and then get them to give you a slice or bread and butter. If these procedures do not suit you, you could go to the seaside at high tide, and let the ebb take the cough away with it. Or you could get someone to drag you backward through a bramble bush. Or take a hair from your head, chop it up fine into a pint of milk, give some to the ferret (if you know any) and drink the rest."

Correction

The name of Ray Clarkson of Woodville was given in error in Monday's issue of "The Post" as the winning slip at the Holstein Bonspiel held in Lindsay on Saturday.

This should have read Ray Smithers of Woodville. "The Post" regrets the error.

Report accidental poisoning on increase in Canada

Accidental poisoning is on the increase according to an article in the current issue of Health Magazine, a publication of the Health League of Canada. Last year more than 18,000 cases of accidental poisoning were reported by 99 of the 22 Poison Control Centres in Canada yet this figure is far from complete as many cases were treated at home, by a doctor or by a pharmacist, and not reported to the Poison Control Centre.

The leading cause of accidental poisonings has been acetaminophen acids and related compounds. Other major reasons for accidental poisoning says the article, include ignorance on the part of parents that the substance is toxic.

Inadequate labeling of containers.

Storage of poisonous substances in unsafe places.

Transfer of dangerous substances from the original containers to pop bottles jars and other containers.

Carelessness in leaving drugs or cleaning agents on easily accessible shelves, mantels, dressing tables or places where children may reach them. Similarity of containers or labels to those containing harmless products.

Environmental conditions such as crowded housing that makes it difficult to store toxic substances safely. If a person does inadvertently take poison it is of utmost importance that a doctor, poison control centre or pharmacist be called immediately, the article says. If they are not available, rush the victim to hospital and try to make him swallow milk or water — but do not force it on him. Take the container of the toxic substance to the doctor or hospital so the nature of the poison can be quickly identified.

Author of the article, Douglas R. Weston of the Canadian Pharmaceutical Association, suggests that parents get antidote charts (available from Canadian Pharmaceutical Association) and these be posted inside the doors of medicine cabinets. In this way first aid information is quickly available should accidental poisoning occur.

Bethany WI holds special meeting

Bethany (PNS) — A special meeting of the Women's Institute members and other interested ladies was held at the home of Mrs. Ralph Preston when the boy came home from public school. Other opinions were expressed on the subject of "You can hardly ever do two jobs successfully and it is the home that suffers". "Men may feel their place as provider usurped and in turn may be less successful". "It would be a lonely life for a man on the farm". Women can become too independent and then the marriage suffers".
 (3) Would you undertake further training or education if it were available and if the answer is YES, what are the barriers? Most of the group felt they would not go away from home for further training, but it was interesting to note that nearly everyone had attended every Women's Institute short course that had come to the village. Two results of Canadian Scholarship courses of Military and Copper Tooling were put to the group that can be paid for by those that cannot attend given instructions by those who wanted something the mother going out to work who had. One member said badly enough there would be no barriers. However transportation, baby sitters, etc., were mentioned as barriers in the country. It was also mentioned that correspondence courses and music lessons are available by record, but it was noted that a great deal of self-discipline was necessary for there was no mother at hand these.

VICTORIA RD. GIRL DIES ON WAY HOME

Noticed along the way

The handsome looking character above is a member of the animal kingdom which is associated with the human family just about as often as Darwin's well known monkey. . . If someone isn't making a monkey out of someone then they're probably making a goat of them.

The human counterpart of the true goat is usually very much in evidence around election time or other times when someone has to be selected to take the blame for something that didn't go quite according to plan. . . Commonly known as a scapegoat, this hapless individual has no identifying marks such as the one above — no big ears, no horns and seldom even possessing a hoary beard. He is frequently just an ordinary looking sort of person with an unusually innocent look on his face which registered shocked surprise when his pale partner in his direction and repeat in union: "That him... he's the one..."

It's generally about this time that the accusers get the scapegoat's nanny and then the truth comes out (or tries) to be drowned out by a chorus of "Who, us?"

Wouldn't that get your goat kids?

All kidding aside, that gentle-looking soul in the picture above made a willing subject for a camera-toting lover of goats from away back was passing the farm of Edward T. Hoover near Cameron.

Lindsay's newest industry reported riding period of continuing expansion

The company which plans to break ground on a five-million dollar plant here next spring, since 1930 the factory has spent about $5,000,000 in expanding and modernizing. Highlight of this program have been new curing presses of the up-to-date type, and additional tire building machines, for both truck and passenger tires.

Production at the Dominion Rubber Company Ltd. tire factory in Kitchener is at an all-time high, stated M. F. Anderson, company president.

A 25% increase in production at the Kitchener plant where $2,500,000 will be spent in the next two years to make it possible, is the company's prediction.

Mr. Anderson revealed that each month of the year saw tire production figures which broke all-time company records. Even tube production is booming and, despite the advent of the tubeless tire, it is close to record levels.

This increase in production has required large expenditures in new production equipment. W. H. Schmidt, general manager of the com-

Mrs. R. S. Cameron reports on WI Convention at meet

Oakwood (PNS) — The November meeting of the Oakwood W.I. was held in the community hall, the chair, who opened with a poem in keeping with armistice day. After this all stood and observed two minutes of silence. Mrs. Clara Farr followed with "In Flanders Fields" and "Youth hold high the torch." The Ode, Mary Stewart Collect and the Lord's Prayer were repeated in unison, followed by minutes and treasurer's report. Twenty-one members and two visitors were present.

It was decided that the Oakwood W.I. would still like to have the same 50 cent fee and this information was to be passed to the area secretary. A detailed report of the Central Ontario Area Women's Institute which was held in by Mrs. R. S. Cameron, the delegate. In thanking the ladies for the privilege of acting as delegate, Mrs. Cameron also paid a tribute to Mrs. Carl Moyne, Oakwood, who, as president, did such a good job. She is now the immediate past president of this area.

Mrs. Cameron reported in part as follows: Almost 500 members attended this third day convention. . . Mrs. Maurice Jones, the current president in the chair for the 61st convention.

After opening preliminaries Mrs. J. G. Snider addressed the convention. She spoke on introducing new Canadians at W.I. meetings, on budgeting delegates expenses must be paid to this convention, (some W.I.s send two, each one should be familiar with the handbook; W.I. work comes first before giving to other organizations it was also important to have a W.I. tent, all ploughing matches.

Mrs. John Hermansen, presided in the afternoon. Alderman May Robinson gave the civic welcome. She commended the ladies for the wonderful work they are doing in rural communities for the young people and for the senior citizens. Children of farm families are no longer satisfied with elementary education, but want to go on to High school and even University in order to compete with the machine age.

Mrs. Johns, the president, spoke briefly, of the convention theme "Education" is all activities by which the individual is developed? We only learn to do by doing.

Mrs. Lee of Bobcaygeon, convener of "Citizenship and Education" mentioned the theme, and "O Lord let us not forget to be kind" the key note to good citizenship.

There were group sessions, Mrs. Cameron was in the president's, vice-presidents and secretary-treasurers group. Many problems were aired and discussed relating to these offices.

Election of officers resulted in Mrs. Maurice Jones, President; Mrs. Carl Moyne of Oakwood, vice president; Mrs. John Hermansen, Secretary; Mrs. West, Mrs. Roy Westlake, Treasurer; Mrs. Helen Grace Woodbridge of 1 Ferngagh Avenue, Toronto, Ontario and Edwin Clarence Patterson, of William Manitoba were united in marriage. Three of five injured reported satisfactory

Three of the five men admitted to Ross Memorial hospital Friday night following a two-car accident on Highway 35 in which one man was killed are reported by the hospital to be in satisfactory condition. John Tobin, 21, of 23 Kilmuir Dr., Toronto, driver of the car in which John Wright of Janetville was killed, sustained chest injuries but was released Monday.

David McAdam, 19, of RR2 Peterboro, who was admitted with possible internal injuries; Lawrence (Red) Thornton 28, of Lindsay, with head and chest injuries; and Garfield Whitney, 23, of Omenesse, with a fractured jaw, are still in hospital.

— Much they said. Secondly they claimed, sitting at a desk all day is more tiring than scrubbing floors.

The doctors noted that women get their reputation for being the harder sex because they live longer. This they said, may actually be due to fatigue. The explanation is that the fatigue induces women to rest, which reduces the strain that eventually kills their husbands.

Seagrave United Church scene of pretty November wedding

Baskets of chrysanthemums decorated Seagrave United Church, on November 9, 1933 at 4 p.m. for the pretty candle-light, double ring ceremony when Helen Grace Woodbridge of 1 Ferngagh Avenue, Toronto, Ontario and Edwin Clarence Patterson, of William Manitoba were united in marriage. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Albert Short, of Seagrave and the groom is the son of Mrs. W. F. Patterson, of Edwin.

Rev. E. McNeill performed the ceremony and Sharyn Short niece of the bride, of Seagrave was soloist. She sang "O Perfect Love" and she was accompanied by Mrs. John Tobin, also of Seagrave.

Given in marriage by her uncle Albert Hadley, the bride was charming in a street-length gown of bone white French brocade. The gown was fashioned with bell sleeves and the bodice had a rounded neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. Her shoulder-length veil was attached to her wedding ring, fastened with small bows. Her headpiece was covered with the same material as her dress and she carried a parasol de sole evening bag covered with two yellow orchids, stephanotis and yellow roses.

The matron-of-honor was Mrs. Percy Renwick, sister of the bride, of Sunderland. She was gowned in a turquoise brocade street-length dress which was styled with a jeweled neckline and had self-made bow at the side waistline. She had a matching purse and shoes and gloves of a beige tone. Her headpiece was a wedding ring hat with pretty flower and veil and her corsage was of bronze and yellow chrysanthemums.

The best man was George Patterson, brother of the groom, of Edwin, Manitoba, and the ushers were Clifford Short, of Seagrave and Lloyd Short, of Port Perry.

The reception was held in the church basement where the bride's mother received wearing a three-piece teal blue knit suit with beige hat and gloves and black shoes and purse and a corsage of bronze mums. The groom's mother assisted in a three-piece grey knit suit with a black velvet hat and a corsage of mauve mums.

For a honeymoon to Campbell River, B.C., by CPA jet the bride wore a raspberry and boucle suit with a white hat and black accessories.

A rink skipped by Ray Clarkson of Woodville won the fifth annual Holstein Association Bonspiel at Lindsay on Saturday. It was the first 'spiel of the season and a complete triumph of 24 rinks took part in the three-day event. Ice conditions were good and there was a marked spirit of goodwill in evidence as players from a wide area met in keen competition. With the win goes a beautiful trophy which was presented to the winning skip, Cliff Lilio, president of the Victoria County Holstein Association.

Prizes were widely distributed as follows: Second with three wins; Roy Cook of Brampton, third with three wins; Marshall Campbell of Stroud, fourth with three wins; Russell Preston of Unionville, Wilmet Brethour of Sudbury and two games with highest score and Harold Paige of Uxbridge was the high one game winner.

EDITORIALS....

SAFE DRIVING WEEK OPENS ON A SOMBER NOTE

"Safe Driving Week" opened on a somber note in Ontario over the weekend and this area did nothing to contribute to the safety factor. . . . One dead and several injured before the "week" was really underway.

Thousands of words have been written, warnings issued and radio and television messages beamed at the people who drive but to what avail? . . .

The answer is found in the news. . . . Here are a few examples

London — (UPI) — A Korean born doctor was killed and five other persons were injured today in a two-car collision on a snow-covered stretch of Highway 401 south of London, Ontario.

Dead is Dr. Doung M. Moon, a resident at a London Hospital. He was alone in his car.

Police say two of the injured, five-year-old Leo Hansen and his two and one-half-year-old brother, Eric, of Youngstown, New York, are in fair condition in hospital at Chatham.

The other three victims, whose names were not released, are in hospital at Sarala. They are believed to have suffered only minor injuries.

Tillsonburg — (UPI) — Two teenagers enroute to Belleville from a wedding in Aylmer were killed early today in a two-car crash near Tillsonburg.

Four Michigan residents in the other car involved are injured, one seriously.

Dead are Gary Frederick Williams, who was on his way to Belleville to celebrate his 18th birthday after attending his brother's wedding, and Linda Marlene Johnson, 17, of Aylmer, who was accompanying Williams to Belleville.

Samuel Crooks, 66, of Inketon, Michigan is in critical condition with internal and head injuries in a London hospital. The three passengers in his car are in satisfactory in Tillsonburg Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Anna Crooks suffered undetermined injuries, her son, Thomas, 34, suffered internal injuries and Mrs. Augustus Sharp, received two broken legs.

The answer to the question of how to overcome this appalling highway situation is not so apparent. Our politicians are full of the consequences of our inability to cope with the mayhem and the toll continues unabated. Perhaps we should apply the automatic message treatment used by the telephone company every time a motorist calls the ignition. It might go something like this "You are now about to take your life and that of others into your hands. . . . If you fail to deliver them safely at their destination and any blame is attached to you, you lose the right to drive like 'life'."

WOULD THEY HAVE ONE WITHOUT THE OTHER?

Should the franchise be granted at age 18? Already a controversial issue, it promises to become more so before the matter is settled.

Speaking to his nomination for Lindsay's deputy-reverend a few evenings ago, Col. R. L. Moore dealt briefly with the subject. He said that although he realized it was not primarily a local political topic, it was something about which he felt very strongly. The former magistrate recalled his days on the bench at Lindsay and the growing incidence of cases coming before him involving drinking under the age. He predicted that this problem would increase if the voting age were to be lowered. It was his contention that if the right to vote were granted at age 18, the right to do other things at an earlier age would be demanded. . . . and likely would not be refused.

Could young people have one thing without the other? Would any government seriously oppose a request to extend the earlier voting age to apply to other things, some of which might be less desirable and not in the best interests of youth? The silence which can almost be heard coming out of Ottawa on the lower voting age issue alone is his answer. . . . Governments today, especially in Canada, are reluctant to oppose anything which could adversely affect the number of ballots they might garner in an election. Of course there is a way out. . . . Put the matter to a vote of the people and let them decide.

THEY'RE OFF AND RUNNING

They're off and running. . . . Twelve candidates in the running for six seats at the finish line in the election for council at Lindsay on Monday promise one of the more exciting and less predictable races in municipal political history.

The election race is spearheaded by a two-way contest for mayor with incumbent Mayor Joseph C. Holton vying with mayor-aspirant Doris M. Acherson for first place. Another two-way feature event of the day will be between incumbent Reeve Lloyd Ford and reeve-aspirant C. R. I. Moore, a former mayor of the town and its immediate past police court magistrate.

Many factors have entered into the campaign, not the least significant of which was the industrial development this week which climaxed a period of setbacks with success. Local political observers generally agree that the acquisition of a major industry for the town will have a decided bearing on the election outcome and strengthen the position of 1983 councillors seeking re-election. The return of C. R. I. Moore to the political scene confronts the incumbent reeve with what is regarded as strong opposition. The influx of new and qualified aspirants to council is considered to be an unsettling factor for present councillors but is impact may not make very serious inroads into their ranks since two of the six are assured of election because two 1983 councillors are stepping out of the picture.

As in all elections, the elected will only be determined by the election. Just like a candidate's qualifications won't get him elected. . . . An "X" placed beside his name on the ballot is the surest way of ensuring he gets your support and the only way that counts when the

CHSC REITERATES 'BE SEEN' ADVICE

Longer hours of darkness, slippery road conditions and recurrent storms make winter driving in Canada more dangerous than any other time, according to the Canadian Highway Safety Council. The Council will use the national Safe-Driver Week campaign, Dec. 1 to 7 this year, to reiterate its warning: "It's better to be seen than to be remembered."

Chairman of CHSC's public relations committee, Trevor Jones, who heads the P.R. department of B.F. Goodrich Canada Ltd. in Kitchener, Ont., pointed to the urgent need for proper signalling, maintenance of car lights and proper use of those lights. "Signal every move you make," he advised. "Take no chances on the vehicles around you. You must know what you plan to do. Signal as far in advance as you can."

Mr. Jones also urged motorists to make certain the car's lights were all working. "Forget parking light," he said, "when it's dark or storming. Turn on head-lights so other drivers will be sure to see you."

To pedestrians, the P.R. chairman said, "Never take it for granted that a driver can see you. Wet pavement, blinding lights, inattention, your dark clothing, many other factors can contribute to your injury or death in traffic."

CAR-TRACTOR HIGHWAY ACCIDENTS ARE ALL TOO FREQUENT

During September, twenty nine farm tractors were involved with car traffic on our highways and other rural roads. Five tractor operators were injured as well as eleven people in the other vehicle. Property loss of over $17,000 was occasioned.

Over half of the accidents were on straight roads during daylight hours. Eight more were at the entrance to the farm lane, which points out the need to clean up shrubs, trees and weeds to permit clear visibility.

Six tractor operators were charged under the Highway Traffic Act. Ages of these operators ranged from thirteen (under age) to seventy one.

While tractor travel will be reduced during the winter, it must not be forgotten that driving hazards are greatly increased.

THE CRY FOR SWEEPSTAKES

"Sweepstakes" is a subject that is continually with us. It is getting dangerously near the point where people are getting tired of the controversy that arises every time eyes are cast in the direction of Dublin when a big race is run, and have started to consider seriously the question whether they should be held in this country. What seems ridiculous in the eyes of most as that while "sweepstakes" are illegal in Canada, the newspapers, radio and television play them up as though they were events of monumental importance. Winners are interviewed, their histories, dreams and plans for the future are tantalizingly presented on screen, page and over the air — all constituting the greatest exhibition of free advertising for an illegal project known in publishing history.

No one should presume to tell who to vote for or against. . . . Don't let votes — but do vote, won't you? The candidates seeking office have gone to a lot of trouble and expense to let you know they are willing to serve. . . . It is too much to ask that you take time to either reject or support them at the polls on Monday between 10:30 a.m. and 6:30 p.m.?

THE SANTA CLAUS STOCKING FUND

In the welter of news which has occupied the attention of the press during the last few hectic days, there is a Lindsay project which seems to have been crowded out of the picture at a time when it has to get right into it. We refer to the Santa Claus Stocking Fund which officially opened a few days ago and has a very short time to run before it is called upon to fulfill its mission. What is its mission? . . . Ensuring that no ones goes hungry in Lindsay at Christmas — that needy families are provided with the makings of a good Christmas dinner with some to spare.

Started over half a century ago and operating continuously ever since, T. H. Simson, Q.C., has been its chairman throughout. The money collected by the fund is accounted for right down to the last penny in an annual statement to Lindsay's Council and everyone connected with the fund sees without pay.

In addition to its function at Christmas, the fund serves as an emergency relief agency on a limited scale throughout the year. For instance, if an individual or family finds itself in a period of distress which isn't covered by ordinary welfare agencies or before they go to into operation, the Santa Claus Fund frequently goes to bat for them. It may be for a ton of coal, some food or whatever is necessary to tide them over the rough spot. Not infrequently and to the delight of the town's chairman, people so appreciate this temporary assist that they make a point to see the fund is paid back when their position improved.

This year, as formerly, the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce is the official receiving station for donations to the fund. "The Post" will again co-operate by giving a temporary receipt to anyone wishing to contribute to the fund but unable to get downtown during banking hours. Those taking advantage of this service will receive an official receipt from the bank. The unusually open weather which has prevailed this fall has made thoughts of Christmas difficult to dwell upon. . . . the season somehow seems remote and there is not the atmosphere generated by cold and snow. But it will come and so will the time when Santa Claus Stocking Fund will be looked to to brighten the festive season for those less fortunate. An early contribution to the fund will ensure that it will not be found wanting when that time comes.

Reports and Remarks...

This prompted even the Globe and Mail of Toronto to editorialize: "We might as well legalize this form of gambling and keep their money in the country". This sounded like a note of resignation in the face of an inescapable impending fate. There is however, one glaring fallacy in the statement — legalizing sweepstakes in Canada would not mean that the Eireann one would be completely neglected by Canadians. As there is no more demanding habit than gambling, it could, in fact, lead to an even greater flow of dollars to Dublin. There is one unworkable and unhealthy effect sweepstakes would have in Canada, that is given little publicity. It is that private benefactors and service to hospitals would cease, as well as the uncomfortable fact that they would be sustained solely by one section of the people and that the least able to bear the burden.

BY THE WAY

A report from Ottawa states that Prime Minister Pearson is now thinking that a bill or a committee to draw up a flag design for Canada is not necessary. It would seem he feels that his promise to ethnic editors in Winnipeg during his last election campaign to produce a design for parliamentary approval in two years, is sufficient mandate to proceed with the plan. Mr. Pearson made many, many promises during that campaign and as he leads a minority government, just how he can claim he has given a mandate to implement that regarding the flag and the others, we cannot fathom. It will bear watching.

SILVER HAS NOW BECOME "PRECIOUS"

At current rates of production and consumption, world supply and demand of silver is not in balance at the present price and this would still be the case even if no silver were being used for coinage, according to the Bank of Montreal's Business Review for November, just issued.

"Other things being equal, only the discovery of a major new source of silver could in the long run satisfy the growing demands of industry for this metal which has in any day become precious in a sense that could not have been imagined by our ancestors," the B of M says.

"Earlier this year the price of silver rose sharply to the point where for the first time in over 40 years coins in some countries were in danger of being melted down," the bank says. However, a further price rise was prevented when the U.S. treasury released some of its stocks.

Although, "there has been little obvious connection between the price of silver and changes in its output in Canada", the combined effect of lower Canadian dollar and a higher world price, with a favorable long-term market outlook are "beginning to re-work interest in exploration and development", the B of M observes.

Paging transmitter proposed for RMH

The purchase of an electronic pocket paging transmitter for the hospital staff, to allow quicker contact throughout the hospital was discussed by Ross Memorial Hospital governors this week.

A recommendation from the management committee suggested the transmitter could be purchased and installed for about $985 and would consist of a 10-foot antenna with a lead into the switchboard where the wires would be connected to every department.

Dr. Peter Gill felt the cost a little high as it might only be used after midnight.

It was noted that this type of transmitter was in use in many hospitals where the sender and found to be satisfactory but to date was not being used extensively in Canada.

It would have cost $49 people on a three-shift basis, said Administrator Freeborn.

Governors agreed that the administrator look further into the necessity of the transmitter and report back to the management committee.

Delayed penalty rule explained in detail

An explanation of the delayed penalty rule was among the things which Lindsay minor hockey officials had explained to them in detail at last night's "referee and rules forum", held in the Lindsay Arena and well attended by coaches and referees, a leaflet outlining the rule was distributed by Gordon Haves of Whitchy, chairman referees and rules committee, Ontario Minor Hockey Association.

Here is the explanation for the benefit of players and others not attending:

Team "A" receives a minor penalty at 2:00 minutes.

Team "A" receives a second minor penalty at 2:30 minutes.

Team "A" receives a third minor penalty at 3:00 minutes.

The first penalty does not expire until 4:00 minutes, so the third penalty does not start until then.

The first man cannot return to the ice between 4:00 and 4:30 minutes, unless there is a stoppage of play.

At the 4:30 minute mark, two penalties have expired and the team should be penalized to them in detail at last night's "referee and rules forum", held in the Lindsay Arena and well attended by coaches and referees, a leaflet outlining the rule was distributed by Gordon Haves of Whitchy, chairman referees and rules committee, Ontario Minor Hockey Association.

AUTHORIZE ABOUT 300 HUNT CAMPS ON LINDSAY DISTRICT CROWN LAND

Approximately 300 "hunt camps" in the Lindsay district have been authorized for erection on Crown Land, the weekly report of the Ontario Lands and Forests announcements.

An annual payment of $20 allows exclusive right to occupy a one-acre parcel of the land on which the camp and outbuilding must be erected. "This," continues the report, "is not the sole responsibility of the hunt camp permittee who must also see that the accumulation of tents, boxes, carports, etc. and old bed springs do not end up outside in a heap."

"It is the permittee's responsibility to see that the camp is kept free of such articles, and to take every precaution against the possibility of a forest fire starting from his camp."

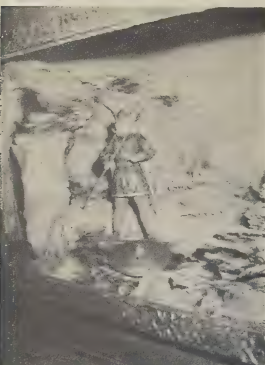

"A certain amount of fire fighting equipment in the camp and a knowledge and the observance of the rules for setting out fire in the woods, could add to a better hunting season."

"On the other side of the ledger others using the woods should respect the property of the hunt campers."

"The increasing number of hunters, fishermen, cottagers and others making use of the lakes, streams, and woodlands of the Lindsay district has made the cooperation of all, if all are to enjoy the maximum pleasure from these resources."

Miss M. Christine MacArthur, B.S., has been appointed assistant director in chief of the Victorian Order of Nurses for Canada, succeeding Miss M. Elizabeth Reed who recently retired. Miss MacArthur has had a long and varied association with the Victorian Order in branches in several provinces and with the national organization in which she has been education director since 1955. She is a graduate of the School of Nursing, Toronto Western Hospital and of the University of Toronto public health nursing course. Her degree in supervision was received from Teachers College, Columbia University, New York. She is the daughter of Mrs. Hugh MacArthur of Woodville.

French impressionist art rebellion against the sad, Lindsay Art Guild told

The Lindsay Art Guild held to live away from society, in Haiti. He was friendless, mixed up a mystic who interpreted the college. The decorative work wall proved a perfect background for a display of French prints. Their owner, the guest speaker, introduced him before he was recognized, having sacrificed his life for his art. Degas, who is well known for his whirling, gaude-dance ballet dancers, loved painting interiors of great beauty and detail. His dancing figures give such movement, sometimes caught like a snapshot in a grotesque momentary position, that one seldom looks beyond into the rooms in which they are.

Although Paris was the centre of art in the 19th century, the versatile French did not lend artists to academic teaching. This was the secret of their experimentation, which changed the history of art. Van Gogh, a Dutch painter went there to study and came under the influence of Degas and Sisley who were experimenting with the technique of Pointillism, a method of painting with dots of pure color. Van Gogh wanted to paint with strength and emotion, and he adapted this style with vigor and power, lengthening the dots to strokes of intense color. By this very change in style, he opened the door to modern art.

Mrs. Sirmey translated her speech into English, as she told her audience about her own collection of reproductions. Because she knew the originals, she had selected only those which captured the true colors.

The French Impressionist said the speaker, had rebelled against the sad and sombre paintings of the classic and Romantic periods, and tried to show that life was gay. Their pictures vibrated with light. The colors are vivid, their ideas new and original. Bender also said as she called attention to one of his seated figures, was known best for his portrayal of fish tones. There is no confining outline to a Renoir nude, as the rosy tints themselves are used to round the body, becoming one with the background. Toulouse — Lautrec was a great artist who wanted to give the impression of living people — not proud portraits. Gauguin was a great character, not understood, not taught in a school, who led home for most of his adult life.

Rogers bids for deputy reeveship

Drive-In Theatre owner Barney Rogers, former Ops Township councillor, is to run in Ops for deputy reeve. Mr. Rogers stood for the reeveship last year and was defeated. He had intended to run for deputy-reeve last year but changed his mind because the contest for the position was sick and unable to campaign against him. "I would like to return to municipal work," said Mr. Rogers, "I've had two years experience on Council and one year out to think!" He has two ideas that he thinks council should follow next year. He feels that all minutes of meetings should be published and considers that arrangements should be made for taxpayers to pay taxes in installments during the summer, and not leave the payment until near Christmas. "This would help the taxpayers and also save the township a lot of money in interest," said Mr. Rogers.

U.S. Naval Officer Chester Nimitz said: "A ship is always referred to as 'she' because it costs so much to keep one in paint and powder."

He fooled 'em

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: I'm 40 years old and during the past few months I have lost 20 pounds. I feel weak all the time. Until recently I have felt healthy and had no complaints. I'm 5 feet tall and used to weigh 115, but now only weight 95. I take vitamins but they don't seem to help. I'm never hungry. Do you think it is necessary to go to a doctor? I have no pain—Mrs. H.

Comment: Have you been dieting? If not, consider the fact that a large warning flare of danger as severe pain.

I am sure I have mentioned this before: any loss of weight accompanied by weakness is a danger sign. Pain often does not come until much later; often too late for us to do anything about it at all. A 20-pound loss of weight without dieting is a considerable loss. If you came to me with such a complaint by itself (as any doctor's) would begin enumerating possibilities: cancer, tuberculosis, or some other chronic illness.

I'd want X-rays of the stomach and intestines even though you may have no indigestion. I'd like to see X-rays of your chest even though you have no cough. I'd feel better taking even as most, always, the pendulum has swung too far and too wide.

You say you have been taking vitamins without help. It's time to stop buying all medicines and, with the money saved, have a complete examination by a diagnostician who realizes the potential dangers of steady weight-loss.

Here's hoping the news is good; but one way or another you can't evade the issue much longer. ***

DRUG SCARE

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: I have been pregnant for about six months. I have been using an occasional headache which aspirin used to help. I say USED because I'm afraid to take it. With all I have been reading about deformities to the baby caused by taking medicines during pregnancy, I'm scared to take anything. Do you think there's any danger in taking an occasional aspirin?—Mrs. R.

Comment: The thalidomide scare has made the entire world aware of the potential dangers of taking drugs during pregnancy. However, as most, always, the pendulum has swung too far and too wide.

Not only are we taking medicines while pregnant; but better let your doctor make the decision. Don't rely on your own reactions or the advice of neighbors.

For example, consider your own problem. You wonder if you can take aspirin safely. I think I can answer your query with another question: Why not? It is the studied opinion of the medical profession that, in practically all cases, if a drug is to do harm to the infant it will only do so during its formative stage: the first three months of pregnancy. By then all the body parts have developed and it is doubtful if a drug will cause any deformity.

Therefore, in your case I doubt that aspirin or any of the usual drugs taken for a headache will cause you any trouble at the stage of six months pregnancy. But of course there are exceptions. I can't take the responsibility of

SHAPING the EARTH

A wonderful map has been created by the U.S. Geological Survey. It shows the world's topography in a way that is both beautiful and useful. The map is made of a material that is both durable and easy to use. It is a must-have for anyone who is interested in geography.

But the strong to are the forces of evil. She also said we must pray, we must help with our offerings and we must send more people, agriculturists, doctors, teachers and missionaries are needed and by study keep well informed of the situation.

Mrs. Elton Starr thanked Dr. Prior for his informative and inspirational message. The theme of the devotional was "Missions". It was conducted by Mrs. Starr. Mrs. Lloyd Beatty read the scripture. Miss Nancovick led in prayer.

A Remembrance Day reading entitled "Thou Who Are Young" by O. J. Stevenson was given by Miss Nancovick. Mrs. E. Roberts read the correspondence. Mrs. Ted Grills read the minutes. Mrs. Charles Lyle reported that a bale of clothing and quilts had been sent in October.

At the close of the meeting Dr. H. K. Prior arrived from another engagement. He spoke on the agricultural situation in Africa. The need is for trained agriculturists coupled with evangelism to eliminate the existing super situations and existing superstitions and witchcraft.

He said with the hospitals came the gospels and the emancipation of all women followed. However the old customs giving way to the new has caused chaos and revolution. The future is uncertain. All though the churches are witchcraft.

A fine turnout was on hand to see and hear Mr. Cliff Goden demonstrate how tying and gift wrapping. A very enjoyable evening on the subject was also shown and thoroughly enjoyed.

Mrs. Betty Coombs thanked the guest and coffee and a variety of delicious desserts put a tasty end to the evening.

Fined $75, loses license for 3 months

A Cameron youth pleaded guilty to a charge of careless driving was fined $75 and cost and his licence suspended for three months in Lindsay court after the investigating officer testified that the car which the accused had been driving had gone out of control on a curve travelling more than 150 feet before coming to rest.

Investigating Opp. Const. J. Plumtree said that Roger Worley and three of his passengers were taken to hospital following the accident in which the car the accused was driving, went out of control, travelling 50 feet on the opposite shoulder, another 35 feet off the ground, then tore up the turf for another 18 feet before leaving the ground again and travelling 40 feet before it came to rest.

The officer said the accident happened near the Beehive Development on the Bockysagon Road November 10.

The officer estimated property damage at about $1,200. The accused said he had been driving his brother's car at the time.

FINN THE CAUSE OF AN ENLARGED HEART

Dear Dr. Steinhorn: May I have a little information on how serious enlarged heart is? I am 68 and wonder if it could be due to overwork. I do have trouble. Could that be a factor? When I had my check-up, and the X ray unit said I have an enlarged heart, no special attention seemed to be paid to it. How serious can it be? Mr. H.

Comment: First, I doubt that denture trouble has anything to do with your enlarged heart. Of course, it all depends upon how much enlargement there is. Sometimes at the age of 68, there is only borderline enlargement. As I long-standing arteriosclerosis?

To old rheumatic heart disease? To trouble in the heart valves? There may be other reasons, like infection, coronary disease. But whatever the cause, it's important to discover it. Otherwise, enlargement of the heart, which means sick, failing heart, will get worse until heart failure supervenes. If there's still any question and you are anxious about your condition, better ask for another opinion. It's poor policy and leads to much unhappiness, when a patient goes from day to day wondering: Am I sick or not?

NYTROGLYCERINE AND HEADACHES

Dear Dr. Steinhorn: From time to time you have recommended nitroglycerine pills for angina patients. I have just been diagnosed as having angina. But whenever I take a pill under my tongue (I use it up with my teeth) I get a terrific headache for about three or four minutes. Luckily the chest pain goes away—chronic kidney disease? To or so does the headache.

What do you think? Mr. G.

Comment: It's not unusual or some angina patients to get headaches when they first begin to take nitroglycerine. Some are affected more than others. However, in my experience, most patients soon become used to taking it. At times they complain only of a slight temporary flushing of the face.

Here's another tip: Try not crushing the pill as you place it under your tongue. Breaking up the pill often produces quicker action. Let the pill dissolve slowly. You may find that this will lessen headaches.

Dear Dr. Steinhorn: I have a gripe.

Why do some people do things to annoy someone else? They seem to derive pleasure from such antics. Why do they behave this way? Mr. D.

Comment: I have to talk about the urges and compulsions, the aggressions, suppressions and repressions of the entire human race to answer your question, even in part. I'm sorry, I'm not qualified and I wonder who is.

STOP!... killing yourself

IN LATE SEVENTIES, HAVE THAT COCKTAIL AND CIGAR

Dear Dr. Steinhorn: Am in late 70s (partially retired) and have a quiescent duodenal ulcer, thanks to dieting. Otherwise excellent health except I do not have as much energy as 40 years ago.

My question: Will an occasional cigar or cocktail at several weeks interval have any ill effects on my health and life span?—Mr. B.

Comment: I can't say yes; can't say no. The only way you will find out is by giving it a try. Do I recommend it? Frankly, yes. That is the theme of my recently published book, "Your Life to Enjoy." We only live once. Each of us should be allowed the choice, so long as we do not go into it blindly. Smoking an occasional cigar and taking a highball might kick up the ulcer in a dozen other similar patients—but not in you. You can't tell until you try.

Besides, you sure over 70. You owe it to yourself to partake of these enjoyments, which believe that people who have fulfilled the promise of the Bible, 70 years, should not have to answer to the same rules and regulations as younger persons. They have already proved themselves. They have overcome potential infections, accidents, illness, stress; sufficient enough to live long.

Why suddenly say, "Better not have that cigar, lung cancer, you know. And better not have that highball, cirrhosis is the liver, you know."

If your dieting has helped your ulcer, Mr. B., by all means continue with it. Take up the challenge and keep into the tobacco and alcohol pool. (Although an occasional cigar and highball is more of a small puddle than a deep pool. You may find that your old ulcer behaves as well as before.)

MENTAL ILLNESS INHERITED?

Dear Dr. Steinhorn: Is mental illness inherited? I am 22 years old. I have a wonderful husband and two healthy children. I wonder if you could ease my mind. My mother had a severe breakdown which believe that people who have fulfilled the promise of the mentals. Something to do with the menopause. (She's getting better with shock treatments.)

I have this terrible fear that maybe I might have a breakdown too, because of inheritance. You can't imagine how anxiously I'm awaiting your answer. I'm like a student afraid to open the letter with his report card on year-end marks. Will you write?—Mrs. Z.

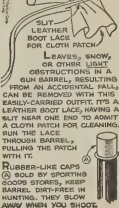

Comment: Here's the report, fast: you pass!

Now, doesn't that make you feel better all over? What you mother has had is a relatively rare complication of the menopause. As for yourself, I'm not being polyanthropic when I say that you may sail through your change of life (quite a few years away!) without even knowing you're passing through it. No hot flashes, no nervousness, no anything else. This condition is not hereditary. So just go along enjoying your healthy children and fine husband. Don't borrow sorrow. Too many do. STOP!... killing yourself

By Peter J. Stancrohn, M.D., F.A.C.P.

AN OFFICE CHAT:

MALE CHANGE IN LIFE
This businessman of 52, like many others, has heard conflicting reports about the male change of life.

Q. Doctor, I understand there's a difference of opinion. Some of you don't believe there is a male change of life. Is that true?

A. Right. But I am one of those who think that the male climacteric (change of life) is a definite medical syndrome.

Q. Will you explain?

A. In the first place, it doesn't seem logical to agree, as all doctors do, that females have a change of life when their ovarian hormones decrease or stop entirely, and not agree that something happens to a man when his testicular hormones lose their youthful efficiency.

Q. You don't have to be a doctor to agree with that. Q. It seems logical, doctor. A. Besides, I have seen many male patients in their late 50's and early 60's the male change usually comes later than in women) who had symptoms similar to those of women who complained of discomfort during their change. These men had hot flashes, perspired more than normally, had fits of dependency, loss of potency, insomnia, anasthetics and loss of interest in their work.

WHAT ABOUT HORMONES?
Q. What can you do for such patients? Do male hormones help?

A. Not as much as we'd like. But in many cases they are worth a try. If they don't help, then we resort to tranquilizers.

Some severe cases, who were talking of suicide because of extreme depression, were saved from themselves by taking a course of electroshock therapy.

Q. Do you think the diagnosis is overlooked in many patients?

A. That is true. But conversely, the doctor's job is not to fall into a diagnostic trap and make the diagnosis of male change of life until he has ruled out other important possibilities.

For example, when a patient is brought to the doctor by a wife who says he is a "change of life," it is easy to label him a victim of the male climacteric; but we mustn't do that right away.

It's important to make sure that his sudden or gradual change in personality from a sweet, human being into one difficult to live with isn't due to widespread atherosclerosis of the brain arteries; to numerous small unrecognized strokes; to a possible brain tumor.

However, once these possibilities are not believed to be a part of his diagnostic picture, then it's reasonable to treat the patient as one who is going through the male change of life—until proved otherwise.

TREATING NOSEBLEED
Dear Dr. Stancrohn: What is the best usual treatment for nosebleed? Mrs. T.

Comment: In most cases simple measures will take care of it. Only when the bleeding comes from the back part of the nose (about 10 per cent of cases) is first aid worthless. Better call the doctor right away. If you can't seem to control bleeding. The main thing to remember is not to have the patient lie down. The blood will trickle down the back of the throat. Have him sit up, head a little forward. Pack the bleeding nostril with clean absorbent cotton; either dry, or with nose drops if they are

Some 50 friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Angus Hadden, Windsor Beach, with a surprise party, the occasion of the 25th wedding anniversary.

The evening was arranged by cousins, and was spent in playing cards. Later an address of congratulations and good wishes was read by Mrs. James Truax of Hartley, from those assembled, and several friends unable to attend. The honoured couple was then presented with an oil painting, Silver Serving Tray, and two living room lamps. The couple both made gracious replies.

It was a bit cold to think about swimming but Mary Ellen Moore did so, as long as all she had to do was think about it. She passed the necessary tests to qualify for her Girl Guide's swimmer's badge when the weather was balmy. She is seen above receiving the badge from Capt. Hans Robertson.

Dresden firm acquires control of Schultz Die Casting Co.

Controlling interest in a Lindsay firm has been acquired by a Dresden Company. J. S. Buckingham of National Hardware Specialties Ltd., Dresden, announced Thursday that the company had acquired the majority of shares in Schultz Die Casting Co. of Cambridge, Ontario.

Newly-elected president of Schultz Die Casting, Mr. Buckingham says he is looking forward to a continued growth in the company's activities in line with expanding markets for its products. He expects to arrive in Lindsay sometime next week to take over his new duties.

Battle lines drawn for Saturday balloting

One of the biggest issues underlying the "white paper" circulating to the taxpayers of Fenechou Township is reported to be the question of the apportionment of the recently increased assessments. Cottagers and non-farmers are reported to be bearing $1,500,000 of the assessments and farmers are bearing $1,000,000 only.

At present 900 appeals as a result of the new assessments are reportedly being considered in closed sessions of the Victoria County Court.

The information sheet is being circulated by a group of interested summer and permanent residents of the township who are sponsoring candidates who have a clearly defined six point platform. Recommended for review is Jasper Pommart a former reeve of the township and retired sheriff of Victoria County. Clifford Hargrave of Cambridge is recommended for deputy reeve and Herbert Wootley, Fenechou Falls, as a councillor.

The group of residents of Fenechou Township and the Fenechou Township Ratepayers Association state their objectives as follows: 1. Work for the betterment of all residents by trying to retain a greater percentage of the tax dollar for the township. 2. To provide improved roads. 3. To provide a better school system. 4. To take full advantage of the Ontario Winter Works Program. 5. To handle affairs in a more businesslike manner. 6. To provide a better collection throughout the township. 7. To provide a better assessment.

Property owners entitled to vote in the Fenechou Township elections include all 300 Lindsay residents and a further 200 in the area just south of Lindsay. About 2,500 eligible voters living outside the township, including many in Toronto and other urban centres, will be eligible to vote.

The Township elections take place Saturday, December 7th, from 9 a.m. and 6 p.m.

"It's time we got fair play", farmer says of FAME project

"It's time we got fair play", said William Cornell, a British Columbia farmer, speaking to "The Post" on the present situation regarding the attempt of FAME (Farmers Allied Meat Enterprises Co-operative Ltd.) to build a plant in Mariposa.

Mr. Cornell said that the board of directors of the company, which is made up of farmers in the area who hold the view that the construction of the abattoir would be detrimental to the township's water supply, have spent a considerable amount of their own money to obtain a vote in the FAME operation and intentions.

Layovers acting for the group of farmers have been in contact with the Ontario Water Resources Commission and a recent letter from A. K. Watt, Director of the Water Resources Division states that it is felt a meeting should not be held with local farmers until the board receives further information in the matter.

The farmers concerned say they had wanted a meeting but the officials of FAME and themselves with the present.

On November 27th the Water Resources Commission informed the farmers that a request had been sent to FAME for all their information on water levels in wells in the area of the pumping tests carried out in Mariposa Township. "We have no indication from the company yet," the letter read, "as to whether or not they are meeting with success in their endeavours to locate an adequate water supply in the area."

It is felt that a meeting should not be held with local farmers until we receive further information on these matters.

FAME'S POSITION
"The Rural Co-Operator"

Mr. Baker stated that FAME has purchased land at Ayer for the last plant and that the plant has been done in preparing the site; land has also been purchased near Mitchell and an option taken near Lindsay. At Hanover, FAME optioned a site but discovered during test drilling that the water supply could not be relied upon.

"The Rural Co-Operator" also reports that John Troy, of Troy and Stalder, consultants to FAME, says the firm has completed plans and has worked with the contractor on the Ayer plant. The firm also has received approval to begin making working drawings for FAME plants at Allen Park, Mitchell and Lindsay.

EDITORIAL..

IT'S TOUGH ON BIRDS TOO!

We humans aren't the only ones to find winter in these northern parts rather rugged going at times... It's tough on birds too! Foraging for food for those birds which winter with us becomes increasingly difficult with the first fall of snow on frost-hardened ground.

Many people come to the aid of the birds by setting out food for them throughout this difficult period and this, besides feeding the birds a hand, affords them a great deal of pleasure through being able to view their feathered friends at relatively close range. Those who enjoy observing these little creatures say it is surprising how much they come to know about them which previously was not possible and remark on the exceedingly great beauty of even the commonest birds when viewed from nearby.

There are many methods of setting out provender for the birds, depending to some extent upon what species of birds you wish to encourage to stay around. Generally speaking the suet ball suspended from a tree or other point not easily accessible to cats, is an acceptable diet to many species. For others, of course, the feeding station with its daily ration of sunflower or other tasty seeds proves to be an irresistible meal. Whatever the method of setting out a safe cache of food for the birds, the pleasure will not be all on one side. You will be richly rewarded by nature for your trouble.

Yes, winter is tough on birds too but we can make it easier for them.

Reports and Remarks...

CANADA IN 2000

2200 square miles of new housing foreseen by the Minister in charge of housing and community development. By the year 2000, Canada will have a population of at least 38 million, twice its present population—possibly as much as 45 million if we take into account the fact that "we are a young nation with plenty of living space and resources". On the more conservative basis of 38 million people, of whom about 95% will be in urban areas, we will need about 2,200 square miles of land—more than 1¼ million acres. This assumes a mixture of 75%-25% of single-family dwellings and high-rise apartments. This does not include sites for schools, churches and stores.

Montreal will grow into a metropolis of 5.4 million, Toronto 4.8 million; Vancouver nearly 2 million; Winnipeg, Edmonton and Ottawa 1.4 million each; Hamilton and Calgary 800,000 each; and Quebec City 800,000. Nearly half of Canada's population will live in these 9 cities.

These are the estimates of the Hon. J. R. GARLAND, Minister of National Revenue, speaking at Windsor in his first address since assuming office. In concluding, Mr. Garland summed up the job ahead: "Consider the impact this human mass will bear on the urban centres—particularly when it is expected that the city will continue to hold for its utmost ideal attraction. Imagine the tasks entailed in enlarging existing towns and cities and in planning and constructing the new ones that will be needed. Reflect on the speed and finality with which the large community may be forced to swallow up its smaller neighbours. Look at the complex problems of communications and traffic control. Yes, we have a job on our hands."

—The Listening Post.

I wish to thank those who voted for me during Monday's election.

DONALD WARRER

Remember way back when

DECEMBER 6, 1913

While at the county council last week, Reeve Devitt obtained the appointment of a committee to inspect Prescott bridge in North Verulam and report as to whether it can come under the conditions of a county bridge. Messrs. Rogers, Fox and McVellie arrived and drove out with Warden Bottom to see the structure, returning in time to catch the train. Their report will be presented to the council in January.

The Cathedral Choir

The choir will appear at the Academy of Music on Monday evening at the second number of the Lindsay Lyceum Course. They present a very fine program of oratoria and opera selections, in fact way above the ordinary. The plan is now open to the public.

Saturday Market

There was a fairly good market this morning with plenty of people both buying and selling. Prices show a gradual falling off.

DECEMBER 6, 1938

Bobcaygeon-Provincial Constable David Adair and Constable Gordon Hardy, of Bobcaygeon, are conducting investigations in a number of thefts of chicken and turkeys in this district. Today, however, they have a different sort of a theft to investigate that of the removal of grain from the granary in the barn of Harry Taylor, two miles north of Bobcaygeon on the Cawley Road. The other morning Mr. Taylor went to his barn bright and early and found ten bags of very valuable clover seed had been removed. This is valued at the present market at about $100.00. He boarded up his barn and thought everything was all right. This morning he visited his barn and found three more bags missing. He has five bags left waiting either for the market or another visit by the thieves. It was discovered that the thief or thieves had carried the heavy bags across a field for some 30 rods wide in that manner thus eliminating the necessity of breaking in the barn door. They carried the bags across a field for some 30 rods and placed them in a car or truck there. It is difficult to convince Mr. Taylor that lightning won't strike twice in the same place. Last August he was victimized by thieves when five lambs were stolen from his farm.

Boy testifies death car was running without lights

A ten-year-old Long Point boy told a Lindsay court this week that there had been no lights on the death car that struck and killed three-year-old Mary Ellen Russell of Victoria Rd. on the night of October 19th.

David James MacGillivray of Kirkland, driver of the car, told the court he had had trouble with the wiring on the car, but had turned them on before the accident happened. "I saw something flash past the car, and then heard a bump," he said.

Investigating OPP Const. A. Koa said he had been called to the scene of the accident to find bloodstains on the road, but the girl and the accused were gone. (Witnesses later testified that the girl had been taken to the hospital without a spinal x-ray.)

To The Ratepayers of Ops

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Having served three years as your councillor, I am soliciting your support for 1964.

"Surprise and sorry", Forman says of his opponent

Store manager retiring

Adams store manager S. pany and moved to Lindsay. He travelled the area from Belleville to Sault Ste. Marie installing equipment. Mr. Elden not his wife's former Dorcas Edwards of Lindsay and married her in 1934. Mrs. Elden was a Bell supervisor at this time.

Adams Lindsay staff members had a dinner for Syd Elden at the Lockview Steak House on Tuesday and presented him with a travelling clock was 17 years old. He worked first in Quebec and then went to college in Toronto. From college he commenced work with the Bell Telephone Com-

Kawartha Lakes bus tours discussed at KLTA meeting

Proposed plans for bus tours throughout the various places of interest in the Kawartha Lakes area next summer were discussed at this week's meeting of the directors of the Kawartha Lakes Tourist Association (KLTA).

Members of KLTA and a Toronto travel agency toured the area last summer, after which they had discussed a considerable amount of revenue was being overlooked by not bringing visitors to the area and showing them what they were missing.

Capacity crowd turns out to see former principal open expanded LCVI

The travel agency, and various women's groups in the city co-operated with the KLTA to arrange such a program.

It was also suggested by the directors that a similar program be set up in the immediate area for local citizens and visiting friends and tourists.

It was also agreed to establish a booth at the Sportsman's Show last year, with a little extra thought to additional promotion and making the booth more attractive.

Group play suggestion is scored

A candidate for the Fenelon Township reevehip says he is sorry his opponent has suggested playing one group against another.

Jasper Forman of Lindsay who is opposing incumbent Reeve Arthur Smithman, said today, "I am surprised and sorry that Reeve Smithman has made any suggestion regarding playing one group against another. I am very pleased however, that only he and Mr. Worsley have suggested such a thing. I trust the good sense of the people of Fenelon will prevent these suggestions having any bad effects."

"I am also surprised," Mr. Forman went on to say, "that he suggests the new 1964 council might throw good judgement out of the window and embark on a spending program. Since Mr. Smithman is the only aspirant to office who has suggested this wild scheme, it is hoped that if he is re-elected reeve, wiser heads on the council will prevent such a scheme."

Essay contest entries excellent, directors told

The entries in the District 4 Agriculture Society Essay Contest were of splendid quality. Mrs. J. H. Leslie, lady director of the society told the annual meeting at the provincial building in Lindsay, Wednesday.

Public school students up to grade 8 had been invited to write an essay on "What our fair can do for our Community." Mrs. Leslie said that the number of entries was surprising and that Rama Agriculture Society had submitted 16, Unbride, 14 and Bocky-geon 11 entries.

L. A. Corbett, a Peterboro public school principal, had judged the essays and the winners were as follows:

First, Linda Johnston, Scott Agriculture Society, Unbride; Second, Rosemary Beyron, Norwood; Third, Jo-Anne Tither, Versum Agricultural Society. The first three received cash prizes. Also placed were Michael O'Connor of Rama Agriculture Society and Ross Worsley of Peterboro, who took the fourth place; fifth, Melva Miller, Brock Agriculture Society; Sixth, Susan Ryse, Durham Agriculture Society; and seventh, Ellen Ireland, Port Hope Agriculture Society.

Then, on Tuesday evening Mr. Perry will sing the bass part in the Messiah in the Toronto Mendelssohn choir in a performance in the Barrie Collegiate Institute.

M.A. Two delightful musical selections by the L.C.V.I. mixed quartet were enjoyed. Made of Beverly Buchanan, Robert Tompkins, Judy Baker, and Bernard Whyte they were accompanied by Barbara Lonie. Following the closing prayer of the service, O. G. Locks a tour was made of the various classrooms, and those wishing it were served refreshments in the cafeteria.

"We are parasites" Number of blood donors not meeting the need

Residents of Lindsay, and particularly the rural areas that rely on the services of the Ross Memorial Hospital, are not coming forward in large enough numbers to supply blood, stated Dr. R. M. Parker. The doctor explained that Lindsay Red Cross has collected 689 bottles of blood this year but has already used 500 up to November 25th and will utilize a further 500 bottles between now and January 1st. "We are 211 bottles short just to break even," said Dr. Parker, "and we do not have another blood donor's clinic until April." The doctor pointed out that Lindsay and area is depending on other people to supply necessary blood. We are parasites and should have more civic pride," he said.

Dr. Parker said that Lindsay should at least raise enough blood to equal that used by the hospital because this year we had sent a number of heart patients to Toronto for treatment and open heart operations use a great deal of blood. Such an operation uses 20 bottles of blood to start the operation, and frequently a further 10 to complete it." Dr. Parker also said patients are not asked to pay for the blood or to replace it through relatives or friends.

Dr. Parker expressed the thanks of the Red Cross to the help they received and to the people who came to give blood. He expressed particular thanks to Mrs. Leonard A. Thurston and helpers who provided coffee through the Red Cross refreshment committee. Mrs. Irene Strub and helpers in charge of the recovery cots, the girls who typed the records, and the nurses and bandages. "They all did a splendid job."

The bride's mother was in a white print organza over tulle sheath dress with matching pillbox headpiece and shoes and carried bouquets of white and yellow flowers. The groom's mother wore a white nylon over shrimp or glass dress with white shoes and gloves and a shrimp colored headpiece. She carried a flower basket which contained white and yellow Mums and Sweetheart roses with green fern.

The best man was Sam Hogan, of Woodville and the ushers were Bryan Harding, of Northfield, Ontario and John McLean, of Newmarket and Neale McLean of Lindsay. The reception was held in the basement of the church and Conflicting dates problem in setting fair dates

"Conflicting dates just can't be helped, there are so many fall fairs," District 4 Agriculture Society Chairman Richard Stewart of Peterboro, made this statement while speaking at the annual meeting of the society in the board room of the provincial building in Lindsay, Wednesday.

Representatives from the Fall Fairs were finding difficulty in setting suitable dates for the fairs that do not conflict with other fairs both in and out of the District. Subject to possible change by fairs that were unable to be represented at the meeting, dates were selected as follows: Peterboro, August 12, 13, 14, 15; Lakefield August 22, 23, 24; Oshawa, August 19, 20, 21, 22; Fenelon Falls, 30, 31; Oshawa, August 25, 26, 27; Blackstock, August 28, 29.

Lewis J. Fitze

Mrs. Lewis John Fitze passed away after some weeks' illness on November 26th, 1963 in his 64th year.

The late Mr. Fitze was born in England on December 13, 1878, oldest child of Edward Fitze and Elizabeth Osborne of St. Austell, Cornwall. In May, 1879 the family emigrated to Canada staying with a brother-in-law, Fitze in Darlington. Later they lived on the 1st Concession of Carletonville, there for some years on the Dave Wilson farm. There he received his education at S. S. No. 6, Mahood's Public School. In 1901 they bought the former John Green farm, Lot 24, Concession VIII, Carletonville.

The father was killed by a threshing machine in September 1904 leaving a family of four boys and two girls: David, Joseph, William, Margaret (Mrs. Gordon Stinson), Wilmer and Fanny (Mrs. F. Harris) all now deceased. Lewis remained in the home until he was 18, when he returned to his home in Blackstock. He was a member of Devitt's L.O.L. 42 and Devitt's R.D.P. 358. He was a member of Neeltown Presbyterian church. He is survived by his widow and several children and nephews.

The funeral was held on November 28th from McDermott-Panabaker Funeral Home, Port Perry where Rev. J. H. Perry officiated. The service was held in the Presbyterian church before comforting words. The beautiful floral tributes were the result of expressions of sympathy and esteem of the family, friends, church, community and friends.

Palibearers were two former neighbours, Messrs. David and George Johns, a cousin, Wilmer Pike, of Bowmanville and three nephews, Lewis Stinson of Cadmus and Arvid Cox and Edward Mayer of Barrie. Burial was in Neeltown Cemetery.

Pictured above signing the register following their wedding in Woodville United Church are Mr. and Mrs. Givens. The bride is the former Sharon Gail Fiske, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Fiske, of Woodville, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Orrville Sluggett, of Woodville.

Sharon Gail Fiske, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Fiske, of Woodville and Givens Sluggett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orrville Sluggett, of 58 St. Paul St., Lindsay, were united in marriage in Woodville United Church on November 16, 1963 at 5 p.m. White and red were the theme of the church decorations.

Rev. J. F. Lane, of Oakwood officiated and Mrs. Jean Fisher of R22 Woodville, was soloist. Accompanied by Miss Myrtle Campbell, of Woodville, she sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Wedding Prayer". Given in marriage by her father the bride was charming in a floor-length peau de seau gown which was draped to from a slight bustle at the back and then fell into a small train. The bodice of the gown was styled with a portrait neckline, which was edged with French beading and long lily-point sleeves. Her headpiece, Queen's crown accented with treading pearls, held a bouquet of yellow Sweetheart roses and white carnations.

County probation officer attends protest meeting

Victoria County Probation J. Robinson of Port Hope pointed out, "Two lodge grievances the men must have confided with the association, and many have lost this confidence."

"On the surface, it may seem that more had been done for other departments than for the highway workers," said Mr. Bowen. "And this may be a reason why the local branch, entirely highway workers have lost confidence."

Mr. Bowen went on to say that the association always works for all departments and a few years back highway workers received more new benefits than other departments.

You can rest assured that what concerns you, concerns us," Mr. Bowen said the men should lodge more grievances with the association in order to get action on their problems.

Findlay-MacDonald Nuptials

Cambridge St. United Church, Lindsay, was the scene of a pretty wedding on November 15, 1963, at 7:30 p.m. when Cressie MacDonald, R.N. of Lindsay, became the bride of Stewart Findlay, of Unionville. Baskets of pink and white "mums adorned the candlelit sanctuary.

Rev. R. K. McLean performed the double ring ceremony and the wedding music was played by Mrs. Cora Deyell.

The bride wore a tulle-trimmed satin dress with a matching headpiece and shoes and her corsage was a single orchid. She wore the groom's gift, a necklace of cultured pearls with matching earrings.

Mrs. Wm. Herron, sister of the bride, of Sarnia, was matron-of-honor and Russell Findlay, of Woodbridge, was best man for his brother. Larry Levely, of Lindsay and David Findlay, of Unionville were ushers.

Following the ceremony the guests numbering 50 were received in the church parlor. Rev. R. K. McLean proposed the toast to the bride which was ably responded to by the groom.

After the reception the bridal couple left for a wedding trip to Ottawa.

On their return they took up residence in their new home 22 Arrowflight Drive, Markham followed with the best wishes of their many friends in Lindsay and district, where Mrs. Findlay, nursed for a number of years.

Fenelon man's natural woodcraft collection said world's finest

What was claimed to be effect. He also added that the "World's finest collection of Natural Woodcraft" drew an audience of about 80 people of all ages to the Lindsay College this week to see and hear about the wonderful craft of Mr. E. Vanatter of Fenelon Falls.

The occasion was the December meeting of the Victoria County Naturalists Club and climaxed a most successful year of indoor meetings. The craftsman and artist who created the wonderful collection proved to be not only skilled with his hands but a poet and philosopher advice. He talked of the great pleasure that a hobby could bring and of the contentment that comes of creating things. Imagination of course plays a great part in selecting the material for his hobby and the need to see through the rough root or stump the things of beauty that lie hidden in it. As he put it "You must become part of the work and the work becomes part of you". Most of us have seen driftwood shaped and cleaned into bizarre shapes but probably no one before has created such beautiful and fantastic works of art.

In point of fact most of the exhibits were made not from driftwood but from wood taken from old pine stump fences, and the speaker said that he had walked miles of fencing to find the raw material for his craft. He emphasised the fact that red pine was the finest material for this work, the colour and texture being the most important factor in producing the final pieces of work. Although Mr. Vanatter had named all the pieces, anyone could see a likeness to some natural creature. It is gull horn or graceful deer, for not only are they beautiful in their own right but always looked alike, or something seen before. Some were so like to other natural forms of life that it needed some assurance that they were more or less "as found".

The collection has been exhibited in many places in North America and in the Victoria County Naturalists Club were most fortunate in being able to present this unique collection to its members through the kindness of Mr. Vanatter of Fenelon Falls.

During the evening President Gus Yaki mentioned that the "Aukhobon Society's annual 'bird count' will take place on December 31st. The idea behind this count is to try and ascertain the birds resident through the winter and the nature of their distribution. Those interested in taking part

$89,000 BEAVER CATCH RECORD FOR REGION

Area trap lines yield $179,000

David Wainman of Lindsay holds packaged proof that the Christmas season will run its course. . . Thousands of parcels already on the move to their holiday destination. "We're expecting to be swamped with Christmas mail next week and it will be touch and go if we get it cleared," postmaster L. T. Tyrer told "The Post". "The Post Office Department thought they had begun to get the problem of early Christmas mailing licked, but things are as bad as ever this year," he said. Mr. Tyrer stated the District of Postal Services was most concerned and that more problems will arise unless people start mailing right away. Mr. Tyrer said that people thought they had more time since Christmas Day falls on a Wednesday. Overseas dates are passed and December 13th is the last recommended date for general Canadian delivery outside Lindsay. The Post Office Department, through the National Employment Office, will hire about 40 people as temporary help as Christmas approaches.

Active C of C director, Mrs. B. Newton resigns

The Lindsay Chapter of the board felt they could use Commerce to lose one of his services. Mrs. Newton was serving her fourth year on the board, Chairman Fred Pugh at Tuesday night's meeting to relieve her of her duties as a director on the board for the coming year. Pressing personal duties were the reason for her decision, she said, but stated she would be available at any time other year.

Lighting from car, hit Bobcaygeon man "shaken"

Delbert Junkin, 74, of Bobcaygeon, was shaken up a little, but not seriously injured, Tuesday evening when he stepped out of a car into the path of an oncoming vehicle. Police Chief J. James said that Mr. Junkin had just returned home from a drive with his son and had alighted from the vehicle on the off side (nearest the road) when he was struck by an oncoming car. He was temporarily blinded by the lights, the officer explained. Mr. Junkin was taken to Ross Memorial Hospital where he was found to be free from Licensed trappers took a total of $179,332.22 worth of furs out of the Lindsay District of the Lands and Forests area, the department informs "The Post". During the past season 528 trapping licenses were issued and the catch of beaver, $8,866 pelts with an estimated value of $88,856.94, was the highest ever beaver catch recorded in this district.

Other furs obtained by the trappers were: 139 Fisher valued at $1,919.50; 29 Marten valued at $22,121.31; Red Fox worth $45,700; 1853 Mink valued at $18,885.59; 3502 Muskrat valued at $65,103.72; 126 Otter valued at $2,929.50; 647 Raccoon worth $1,941.00 and 145 Ermine (weasel) valued at $8.15.

The number of trappers in the area fluctuates between 500 and 600 state the Department of Lands and Forests.

Commercial Fishermen

Seven commercial operators are fishing the inland lakes in the Kawartha for carp to report the Lands and Forests Fish and Wildlife Inspector Percy Swanson. Licensed operators are restricted to a net with a mesh size of 8" which enable game fish and smaller carp to go right through. The operators start after fishing closes in the Kawartha's and fish through to the spring to just before the open season at the start of May.

Mr. Callaghan has actually been a member of the association for 43 years and was presented with a pin in recognition of his long membership at the annual dinner meeting of the group held in Cambray.

Mr. Callaghan was the proud owner of a Hostelin dairy cow in 1921 that regularly delivered 100 lbs. of milk daily.

WHITHER GOEST THE CORNERSTONE?

Whenever a new public building is in process of construction there is generally a great "furore" about a cornerstone-laying ceremony. All the principals in the project are invited and everyone for miles around, (well nearly everyone) takes half a day off to attend the function. Various citizens and organizations generally make documentary evidence of the events enclosed in the stones will endure, if not forever, for many years to come. The participants never allow themselves to think that anything short of an act of God or war would violate the cornerstone's contents. They also assume that should the stone ever have to be removed, someone should ensure its preservation for posterity.

But is this what happens?

We ask the question in view of the demolition of the former Lindsay Post Office which is now in its final phase. There hasn't been anything said at least not to our knowledge about the fate of the building's cornerstone or its contents. Whether it is bound... for destruction or preservation?

Reader Vernon O'Connor raised another interesting question the other day when he asked what had (or was) to become of the "bench mark" which was a part of the former post office. This is a surveyor's mark bearing in formation relative to the sea level at that point, etc. He was under the impression that such a mark couldn't be molested.

Perhaps local authorities may care to look into these matters if they have not already done so.

Remember way back when

DECEMBER 11, 1913

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Oshawa Farmers' Club held in the new armory was well attended. The President, Mr. Jos. Bradley, occupied the chair, and after a few remarks called on Mr. A. A. Knight for an address on "Feeds and Feeding." The relative value of the different food stuffs with their varying compositions and digestibility was explained by Mr. Knight in an able manner. The value and advisability of keeping dairy milk and fat records was discussed with some interest. The officers elected for the coming year are: President—Mr. D. H. Dick; Vice-President—Mr. W. Burgess; Secretary-Treasurer—Mr. F. Sandy; Directors—Mr. I. Fee and R. Johnston; Program Committee—Mr. J. Bradley and Mrs. W. Meising.

Reports and Remarks...

BREWER BANS PRODUCT

A San Diego beer firm, the H. A. Laverz Company, and the Teamsters' local are reported to be wrangling over whether the company's truck drivers may use the company's product with their lunches.

The company says that its 25 drivers may not drink beer and then drive an 8-ton truck. The union claims that the company has no right to tell them what they may have for lunch. The company hired a private detective to shadow a couple of its drivers who were suspected of violating the rule against drinking on the job. The detective carried a hidden camera in a lunch box and took pictures of the drivers in a cafe drinking beer. The drivers were fired. Ever hear of a shoe company firing its employees because they wore shoes? —Alcohol Fax.

CHRISTMAS CUSTOM

Special yeast-raised breads are Christmas fare in many countries. Most of them are sweet and studded with dried and fresh fruits. Some also are illustratively speckled. Included in the international roster of Christmas breads are the Stollen of Austria and Germany, the Ukranian Babka and Koulitch, Danish Jule Kage and the Chantone of Italy.

Many Canadians whose parents or grandparents were from Europe adhere to some of the overseas customs and include the festive breads in their Christmas baking, so that friends and neighbours may share in their own festive traditions. Tutti-Frutti Wreaths are similar to many of these European yuletide favorites. They might well be called "frothy" trimming for these delectable Christmas wreaths.

TUTTI-FRUTTI WREATH
Yields 2 12-inch wreaths.
1 cup milk, 6 tablespoons butter or margarine, ½ cup granulated sugar, 1 ¼ cups lukewarm water, 2 teaspoons granulated yeast, 2 envelopes fast-rising active dry yeast, 3 eggs, well-beaten, 1 cup dried, unglazed, all-purpose fruit. Soft butter or margarine, ½ cup cut mixed peel, 1 cup seedless raisins, plumped, ½ cup dried, unglazed crushed pineapple, 2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine, 2 cups icing sugar.

Santa Claus Stocking Fund nearing the half-way mark

The Santa Claus Stocking Fund advanced to near the half-way mark in its appeal for support with the recording of $550 in donations by Tuesday afternoon.

An annual appeal on a year-round working basis, the fund was created to make sure there were no hungry people in the village on Christmas day and that the recipients of the hamper of food had some left over from the festive meal to see them through the holiday. At other times during the year, it provides emergency relief for people in distress whose needs cannot be quickly met by regular relief agencies.

It requires upwards of $1,200 a year to keep the fund functioning with the demand upon it varying with general conditions. This year the fund chairman says he expects the need will be greater than a year ago and he is appealing for maximum support, hoping that the minimum objective will be over-subscribed.

CANADA HIT TOO

Meanwhile, in Canada heavy snowfall and sub-freezing temperatures cover the country from the Maritimes to British Columbia. Hardest hit was the Northern Ontario towns of Timmins and Kapuskasing where between 14 and 16 inches of snow fell creating snowdrifts measuring eight feet high. A snowmobile in the lakehead district brought out four hunters who became trapped yesterday. However, there are still three hunters still believed lost in the area.

DEMOS REPORTS

The Vatican has denied reports that Pope Paul has notified a Greek Orthodox leader that it would be impossible for the two men to meet during the Pontiff's visit to Palestine next month.

An announcement by the Vatican said the reports were apparently inspired by the recent visit of a French priest with Patriarch Athenagoras in Istanbul. The statement said that rather than discouraging the meeting, the priest made the Patriarch explain the Pope's trip.

Charges bread from Canada threatens jobs

A United States Bakery Union leader charges that an influx of Canadian bread into the New York State area threatens to put some 10,000-U.S. bakers out of work.

Daniel Motto, the president of the council of New York State bakery and confectionery workers, says he'll carry his complaint to Washington to-day.

Motto says Canadian bread is flooding upstate New York and border areas of the other states because the U.S. government imposes no bread tariff.

He adds that the Canadian government has a bread tariff of seven-point-five per cent.

He said he would take his complaints to the Washington hearings of the presidential negotiations on International Trade, which meets today.

Home decorating contest offering more prizes

Owing to the success of last year's contest additional prizes are to be given for this year's decorated home this year and cards announcing the contest will be placed in stores on Kent St., directors of the Chamber of Commerce were informed last night.

Manager Harry MacDonald said signs had been made which would be placed in various stores handling home decorating merchandise, which would serve two purposes: inform the public of the contest and draw possible additional business to the stores.

Three prizes would be awarded to each of the four wards as against two last year, he added, 12 in all.

"We received encouraging comments last year on our home decorating contest," he said, "and feel there will be more home owners taking part, so we want to make it more interesting by offering more prizes."

ZELLER'S — RETAILERS TO THRIFTY CANADIANS

Hey kids!

You may win a prize for making a snowman

Lindsay children will not only be encouraged to play in the snow, but they will also be given an opportunity to win prizes for doing so.

Chamber of Commerce directors here have decided that weather permitting, they will sponsor a children's Snow Sculpturing Contest.

The number of prizes to be given has not yet been decided, but Manager Harry McDonald says that one of them would be a transistor radio.

Further details on the contest will be announced later in the week, he said.

Out-of-town shopping habit is a two-way affair - merchant

Peterboro might draw shoppers from Lindsay at times but it also works the other way too, as witness a remark by Director Don Scott at the Lindsay Chamber of Commerce meeting last night.

"I was quite surprised Saturday afternoon, when a customer in the store (a bus driver) told me he had just brought in a group of ladies from Peterboro who wanted to do some shopping here," he said.

"He said that earlier in the day he had brought a group of Peterboro children to Fanelon Falls to see the Santa parade, and had returned to Peterboro, and then had brought the ladies, who had chartered his bus, to Lindsay for an afternoon of shopping," added Mr. Scott.

"It is very encouraging to think Peterboro residents would go to so much trouble to come and shop here in Lindsay, and I hope they were well satisfied and will return," said Mr. Scott.

Credits Lindsay residents with parade improvements

Lindsay residents were partly responsible for making this year's Santa parade one of the best yet, Director Jim Nolan stated at the Chamber of Commerce meeting last night.

Chairman of the parade committee, Mr. Nolan told the group that he had received ed numerous calls from various interested citizens who suggested different ideas to use during the parade that might make it more enjoyable.

"And strangely enough," he said, "we were able to use every one of them, including the microphone for Santa and the choir ahead of him which we feel and were also told by many of the spectators, added immensely to its success."

He estimated there were from 6,000 to 10,000 people watched the parade, the biggest crowd yet.

Mr. Nolan added that the committee was able to feed about 500 people who participated in the parade, and presents were supplied for 18 children at the hospital.

"The co-operation of everyone who took the smallest part in the parade was wonderful," said Mr. Nolan, "and we want to thank them all the merchants, the bands, citizens and everyone who helped to make it the best parade ever."

View stealing Christmas trees as lacking Christmas spirit

For those who still indulge in the delightful custom of a family outing to cut a Christmas tree, there are of course still a few farm woodlots where, for a price, this can be done. However, states the Department of Lands and Forests in its weekly report, Nothing could be more inconsistent with the "Spirit of Christmas" than the actions of those who customarily obtain their tree by theft from unprotected isolated woodlots.

The "enormity of such a crime is not judged by the value of the tree but by the monumental hypocrisy of the thief," claims the department. Needless to say the law looks unkindly on such acts and means punishment accordingly.

"The report" goes on to note that:

"For the past several weeks Christmas trees by the truck-load have been arriving in the village throughout Ontario.

"During the next two weeks most of these Christmas trees will find their way into hundreds of thousands of homes where they will be decorated with coloured lights, tinsel, rope and other ornaments to the delight of young and old."

"Christmas tree is of course a general term applied in this area to such species as Scotch pine, balsam, white and black spruce and some Austrian pine.

"With many people tradition dictates the species favoured, perhaps over the years they have associated the fragrance of the balsam with Christmas, therefore, this is their choice. It is usual awareness notwithstanding, the memory of childhood trips to a farm woodlot for a spruce might still direct their sentiments in favour of this species, the lush, dense dark green, foliage and characteristic spruce aroma overruling the tendency to shed its leaves throughout its stay in a warm house."

"Scotch pine has of course gained tremendously in popularity over the past several years having many features in favor, most of them corollaries of the fact that it is grown specifically for the Christmas tree market.

"The symmetry and density are products of the growers' artistry with pruning shears, and these combined with this tree's ability to hold its needles, its natural beauty and pine aroma make the Scotch pine the choice of a vast number of buyers.

"Perhaps the density of a cultured Scotch pine makes decorating a little more difficult but this is a minor disadvantage.

"The Austrian pine is much like our native red pine, the needles being of approximately the same length and arranged in pairs; unlike the red pine, however, the Austrian pine's needles are stiff and very sharp necessitating extreme care in handling and decorating.

"No matter which species you choose however, your tree will be safer, greener and more aromatic and will retain its foliage longer if you make a fresh horizontal cut on the stem and set your tree up in a container of water to which you can add as it becomes necessary, to compensate for evaporation and transpiration.

"As a result of the long, dry fall some trees will appear several shades lighter in colour (this year, in fact some are tinged yellow. For these the treatment, described in the previous paragraph, is even more necessary and advantageous."

STRONG MARKET

"The 1963 Christmas tree market is stronger than in previous years due to good demand from the U.S. plus an expanded domestic market. The premium on the U.S. dollar continued to attract buyers to Canada and this, coupled with the high quality of Canadian trees has resulted in the better market conditions.

"On the local market, quality will be up somewhat due to better growing techniques and keener competition. The strong export market edged prices upward five to ten cents per tree and this will result in a slight increase to the consumer.

As always, buyers are advised to shop early when the selection is best and the quality high. Adverse weather conditions could reduce additional supplies and a shortage of good quality trees might result."

Swedish team could be facing best senior team in Canada

The Swedish Olympic hockey team could be facing the best senior hockey team in Canada when it meets Winnipeg Maroons in the Manitoba Capital New Year Day.

Maroons last year lost in the Allan cup finals emblematic of Canadian Hockey supremacy and most people who saw the final series with the Windsor Bulldogs thought Maroons were the better hockey team.

Their biggest fault last spring was their inability to have rectified that deficiency this year. Playing a partial 16 game interlocking schedule in the Saskatchewan senior Hockey League, Maroons have outscored their opposition 41-11 while winning six games without a loss.

They are also one of the few teams to have any success against Father David Bauer's Canadian Olympics, holding the Olympics to a 1-1 tie in Winnipeg after the Maroons had played just two games.

Many presentations made at Zeller's Christmas party

Zeller's annual staff party was held Saturday night at the Moose Hall, with over 60 guests in attendance and it was a very successful event.

On presenting these awards the manager offered his congratulations and wished both Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Wylie many more successful years.

Several cars, one pedestrian involved in accidents here

Key conditions in Lindsay caused considerable grief to many motorists Monday. At least five drivers and one pedestrian managed to get tangled in an assortment of accidents causing an estimated $400 damage.

Slightly injured was Nelson Smith, 47, of Lindsay who was struck by a car driven by William Marshall of Aurora.

Apparently Mr. Smith was crossing Lindsay St. at Kent to go to MacLellan's Smoke Shop. The Marshall vehicle was travelling north on Lindsay St. at the time of the accident.

The injured man was taken to Ross Memorial Hospital given treatment and released.

Earlier, about 4:40 drivers Doreen Black of Lindsay and Roma Moyes of R.R. Lindsay were drivers involved at the intersection of Sussex and Bond Streets.

The Black vehicle was proceeding south on Bond St. and Moyes was going south on Sussex St. when, as Mrs. Moyes told the police, "the car stopped but slid into the Black car."

Damage there was about $200.

At about 5 p.m. Mary Nor-

At midnight Santa Claus made his appearance. Mrs. Holmes, president of the Better Relations Committee, assisted him in distributing the gifts.

Christmas cake and coffee were served to mark the end of a successful party and a gala evening.

At 11:30 p.m. Lindsay was driving south on Lindsay St. south, and had stopped to make a turn into Hill's Academy Florist when a car driven by Cecil A. Young of Fenelon Falls going in the same direction, collided with the rear of the Yuley car. This accident was also attributed to road conditions.

Damage was about $150 to Young and $75 to Yuley.

Pair launch boat reach drowning boy on last trip down

A six-year-old Lindsay boy missed death by seconds Monday afternoon, when he was pulled from the icy Scugog River into which he had fallen while playing with friends.

Witnesses say Ricky Gowden had been playing on the north bank of the river at the head of Simcoe St. when the accident happened.

Mrs. Fergus Callaghan, of 1 Simcoe St., and her daughter Sharon McCabe noticed the boy struggling in the water and called across the road to Elmer Wannamaker, who operates an outdoor market stand.

Miss McCabe said that as she ran across the road she could hear the boy crying "I'm drowning, I'm drowning."

Police were immediately called and Mr. Wannamaker together with his helper, Melvyn Colvin, launched a boat on to the river.

"By this time, all we could see by Mr. Wannamaker to 'The Post'."

"Luckily there was a boat handy and Melvyn and I managed to get it into the water which was difficult as the ice was thick at the bank."

"By this time, all we could see of the boy was his tongue, and there was no movement at all."

"When we arrived at the spot he was just going down, and I grabbed him and pulled him into the boat."

"His eyes were open but he was not moving, and we could feel no pulse."

"The daughter Sandra, a nurse, who was standing on the bank yelled at us to start artificial respiration which Melvyn did and in a few minutes, the boy started squirming and trying to cry."

By that time the firemen and police had arrived and assisted the rescuers to shore.

It was believed for a while that a friend of the boy Timothy Lever might have also fallen in the water, so Fire Chief Arnold Watson and Inspector Norman Thomas launched the first boat to begin dragging operations.

A few minutes later someone informed them that the boy was safe.

Ricky, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gowden of 151 Kew St. east, was reported by hospital officials today as "doing fine."

Kellett-Hewitt Nuptials

Minden United Church was the scene of a pretty wedding on November 23, 1963 when Joy Carr daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hewitt became the bride of Donald Gordon son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Kellett.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. David Staples.

The bride looked lovely in a short gown of white nylon and rayon lace over rayon tulle. She wore a fingertip veil and carried a bouquet of pink roses and white carnations.

Her only attendant Miss Connie Gartshore wore a street-length gown of pale blue lace over tulle and a rhinestone headpiece. She carried a nosegay of pink roses and lily of the valley.

Donald Wauchop assisted the groom as best man. The ushers were Mervyn Hewitt, brother of the bride and Sharon Kellett, cousin of the groom.

Miss Janice Robinson sang "O Perfect Love" during the signing of the register accompanied by Mr. Ralph Huxley.

A reception followed in the church hall. In the evening a dance was held for the couple at Kinnmont Legion hall where they received many useful gifts. The happy couple will be residing in Brampton.

Cubs holding Christmas party

Minden cubs will hold their Christmas Party on December 18th and the highlight of the meeting will be the presentation of December's dues for the poor. The idea came from members of the pack and the money will be presented to one of the local Clergymen, to see that it is used as the boys wish.

Damage heavy, no injuries

John Murphy of Sarina, temporarily residing in Lindsay, and Murray J. Callaghan, of 1818 and the highlight of the meeting will be the presentation of December's dues for the poor. The idea came from members of the pack and the money will be presented to one of the local Clergymen, to see that it is used as the boys wish.

Voltage regulator shorts, smoulders

Fenelon Falls Fire Department answered a call to the home of Mrs. Bertram Clarke on Monday evening when she feared the television set was taking fire after it "blew up."

Firemen found the high voltage regulator had short circuited causing considerable smoke.

There was no other damage.

The pictures above show the scene of Monday's near drowning in the Scugog River and the men who saved six-year-old Ricky Gowden from certain death. The lad had been sliding down an embankment on the opposite shore (see children in background upper photo) when he over-shot the mark and landed in the river. His cries for help were heard by a neighbour and the lower photo shows his rescuers, Melvyn Colvin (left) and Elmer Wannamaker (right) who launched a boat and reached him in the nick of time. All they could see of the lad when they got there was his tongue as he sank below the surface presumably for the last time.

Christmas card deal explained by Lindsay C of C manager

Lindsay people receiving Christmas cards in the mail these days bearing a two-dollar price tag may be interested in what the manager of the Lindsay Chamber of Commerce has to say on the subject.

Manager Harry MacDonald says he has information in his possession to the effect that the cards are strictly a commercial venture and are not the product of any Canadian handicapped persons organization.

The manager further states that the majority of the handicapped artists whose reproductions are used on the cards live in Europe, there being only three North Americans associated with the project.

Mr. MacDonald says the Chamber of Commerce has been deluged with calls from people wanting to know what they should do about the cards.

The Editor,

The Lindsay Post.

Dear Sir:

Councillor Leslie Nellie charge that dogs are running in packs in Lindsay is a lot of baloney. Certainly, dogs sometimes travel in twos and threes because they can stand each other's company which is a lot more than you can say for people. To suggest that April the dogs are a danger is not true. There are, of course, cross dogs which should be kept under restraint or done away with but the average dog is a pretty nice fellow. What damage they can do in the winter is very small but some people can hardly live with themselves let alone a dog.

To pass a by-law that dogs be tied up in the winter is rather cruel as an animal tied in the winter suffers with the cold as well as boredom. Dogs may as well be done away with altogether if they are to be chained for the duration of their lives.

We in Lindsay have the best dog by-laws in the Province of Ontario as well as the best by-law enforcement officer, Chief Hunter and his men are to be commended on the way they handle this by-law.

William J. Crowley
I can say that we do not wish to infringe on the rights of others but we do pay a dog license and have some rights ourselves. I would suggest that there are a lot of dog owners in Lindsay at election time that the dog by-law is a good one but is left alone.

Dogs running at large deplete sheep flocks, writer complains

Lindsay, Dec. 5, 1963.
The People Write,
The Lindsay Post.

Thanks to Dr. K. Holloway and Councillor Leslie Nellie for their straight forward opinions re dogs running at large in the "The Daily Post" Dec. 4. I strongly cannot agree that year-round restrictions should be placed on dogs running at large.

Dog lovers in town and township alike should keep them at home.

May 5th, 1963, my flock of sheep was brutally attacked by four dogs with a loss of eight lambs, three dead sheep and seven others worried.

I called the evaluator and his remarks were: "Well the dogs are going to put you out of the sheep business".

I do not wish this to happen.

Say situation too dangerous

Dysart clamping down on dogs, to enforce year-round bylaw

Dysart Township, dog owners are going to have to keep a closer check on their pets. As a fine of up to $50 if the animals are caught running at large.

Township officials admit they have been prone to act on the bylaw which states that all dogs must be tied up at all times and "looked after the other way". Due to the mounting number of complaints received from some of the residents of packs of dogs running loose and what they believe to be complete lack of co-operation on the part of some dog owners, they say they have decided to "low the boom".

In a paid advertisement, Dysart Township has announced that from now on, runniness will be issued to owners of dogs running at large and there will be no leniency shown.

A township official said "The Post" that it was getting to point where it was not safe for anyone to walk some of the streets for packs of dogs.

"It is too dangerous and we intend to put a stop to it," he said.

Asked if it was not possible, some of the dogs might be stray hunting dogs, the official said he was quite sure they belonged to some of the local people.

More evidence of growing S. Victoria deer population

Two fished from lake, others seen in close proximity to village

Evidence of an increasing deer population in south Victoria County continues to mount — some of them having been rescued from Scopus Lake waters.

Ansley Gostlin and Doug Las Powell Lanks and Forest department conservation officers rescued a large buck weighing over 200 pounds and a fawn from ice-bound Scopus Lake.

The animals were stranded on ice about a quarter of a mile from shore just south of Valentin. Mr. Gostlin said the deer had apparently been fighting or pushing each other on the shoreline, and had fallen and were unable to rise.

The officers walked across the ice and threw ropes around the animals' necks and hauled them to safety. It is not known how long the animals had been stranded.

Others sighted Miss Lillie Dobson of Oakwood reports sighting deer in a field adjacent to her village home the other day and similar incidents are reported from time to time by other residents.

C of C again sponsoring home decorating contest

Lindsay and area house dwellers will again have an opportunity to win valuable prizes this year for the best decorated home.

The Chamber of Commerce announced it has decided to promote the contest along similar lines to last year.

Independent judges will tour the town during the holiday season, to make their choice of the best decorated home.

Considerable interest has been aroused in other towns and cities with prizes to the winner for the best decoration and it is reported this suggestion will be put before the C of C at their next meeting.

One of the C of C members told "The Post" that he has knowledge there had been no mention so far of it promoting such a contest but he felt reasonably sure members would register in October, Mr. support such a proposal.

Grain cheques so good Liberals vote Conservative, visitor says

"Grain cheques are so good in this town, that farmers who are natural Liberals, vote for John Diefenbaker and his candidates."

This remark, and an interesting story from the west comes from a Saskatchewan farmer whose parents were born in Fenelon Township, and who is a relative of Lindsay businessman Morley Graves.

William Hall, of Plimrose, Sask. who is spending the winter months in Lindsay, is a progressive farmer in his own right, who farms on a modern scale. He operates a 2,200 acre farm together with his two sons and, like many farm western farmers, concentrates on wheat and other grain crops. It is a horseless farm, and very few other animals are kept, except about 50 head of young cattle which are kept for additional income in the spring. These cattle remain outdoors all winter with only an open shed for shelter.

Warm water is supplied in large steel troughs heated by electricity. Grain is quickly disposed of at the high prices that have prevailed over the past few years, and Mr. Hall, "thanks" to the Diefenbaker campaign.

"Grain cheques have been so good," he said, "that even farmers who are Liberals vote for 'Old John' and his candidates."

Mr. and Mrs. Hall spent some time in Florida before coming to Lindsay.

He is an ardent cricketer, and a member of the Royal Canadian Legion.

Living costs set new high

Ottawa (UPI)—The cost of living was pushed up to a new high last month, by increased prices for a wide variety of necessities. The consumer price index rose to 134 based on 1949 prices — meaning an item that cost one dollar then cost one dollar and 34 cents in November. Sharpest increases were in the cost of medical care, clothing and food.

Mild cold weather to put a solid ice-coating over Haliburton County lakes is all that is needed to signal the start of the ice fishing season there.

Christmas season open nights

With just a little over two weeks to go before the holiday season, local merchants are reminding citizens of the store hours for these weeks.

As recommended by the merchants committee, member stores will stay open Wednesday (December 11th) until 6:00 p.m. and the following week will remain open Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday until 9:00 p.m.

The following Monday, December 22nd, they will also stay open until 9:00 p.m.

Noticed along the way

An atmosphere of mystery surrounds an item appearing in the December 4th issue of "Hansard", official record of proceedings in the House of Commons, Ottawa. It concerns a motion relative to the disposition of Canadian Arsenal Ltd., Lindsay.

The mysterious aspect of the incident is the apparent sudden change of heart in which cause over the member responsible. Here is the way "Hansard" records the development:

CANADIAN ARSENALS SALE OF PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT Motion No. 157—Mr. Brewin:

That a humble address be presented to His Excellency praying that he will cause to be laid before this house a copy of all telegrams, correspondence, communications, agreements, tenders and other documents and replies originated or received by the government of Canada or any of its departments regarding the sale of property of Canadian Arsenal Limited at Lindsay to the Heracles Sales Limited of Toronto, through or by crown assets corporation, or in relation to the sale of any surplus equipment, or relating to the removal of Heracles Sales Limited or any of its subsequent use.

Mr. Brewin: Mr. Speaker, I might interpose to say that I am withdrawing this motion.

Order discharged and motion withdrawn.

The Mr. Brewin referred to is Andrew Brewin, New Democratic member for Greenwood (Toronto) riding.

The unanswered and provocative question: "Why did Mr. Brewin suddenly decide to withdraw the motion?" Perhaps Mr. Charles Lamb, M.P. for Victoria riding, can throw some light on this matter.

Mrs. Arthur Kennedy gave an article on the missions in New Guinea. Prayers were offered for missions and for the sick and bereaved.

News was given of Claire English's approaching marriage and her transfer to a new mission station in Africa; also word was given out that Janet Robinson was very ill in hospital in Toronto. It was decided to send $15 to Claire English as a wedding gift. Christmas cards and letters were to be sent to the other missionaries with whom the circle corresponds. Work was to be started on a Layette in the new year. The chapter from the book was read by Mrs. George Brown.

The meeting closed with the hymn "For The Night is Coming" and prayer by Mrs. Hunter.

By Peter J. Steinbock, MD, F.A.C.P.

HERE'S CAPSULE DEFINITION OF CORONARY DISEASE: Just what is meant by coronary disease? Mr. Y.

Comment: The answer would fill a book. And that's what I've done: written one about coronary disease which will be out this fall. But there's always room for an immediate answer to such an important question (although necessarily incomplete), so here goes:

Coronary disease means trouble in one or both coronary arteries (or their branches) which supply the heart with nourishment. The underlying cause is a condition we call atherosclerosis.

This affects the walls and linings of these arteries, gradually or suddenly, and causes them to lose their normal elasticity and then turn up with cholesterol and lime salts. This interferes with the amount of blood that can get through to supply the heart with oxygen.

Even the cause of atherosclerosis hasn't been proved definitely. But we know there are many factors to be considered: Cholesterol, metabolism, heredity, exercise, smoking, alcohol, high blood pressure, diabetes, obesity, tension, and others.

IN TWO FORMS

Now, coronary disease usually takes one of two main forms: angina pectoris or sudden coronary thrombosis. To make it simple, in angina there is a gradual filling up of the artery with a thrombus or clot while in coronary thrombosis the clot forms suddenly to cut off the circulation to a vital part of the heart muscle.

The typical symptoms of angina are: a constrictive pain across the chest and down one or both arms, usually coming on with exertion, extreme emotion or exertion after a heavy meal. These attacks of frightening chest discomfort may come only a few times a week or as many as 10 to 20 times a day. Stopping for a few minutes while walking will usually terminate the attack, assisted by dissolving a nitroglycerin tablet under the tongue.

The typical attack of coronary thrombosis is more overwhelming. It may come during exertion or while resting. There is a sudden, crushing pain which extends through the chest. Also nausea, sea vomiting, excessive clammy perspiration, apprehension, sharp fall in blood pressure, rapid, irregular pulse. You don't have to be a doctor to realize, looking upon such a patient that there is on whose life is in danger.

MODERATION FIRST STEP

In a general way, between attacks, the treatment of angina pectoris and coronary thrombosis is the same. We advise the patient to cut down his activities, to reduce, to live in moderation and without excessive tension. Alcohol in small amounts may be all right. No smoking. Low fat and low cholesterol diet.

During the attack of coronary thrombosis itself, the doctor gives medicine to raise the blood pressure morphine or other drugs to control the pain and heparin and coumarin drugs to thin the blood.

The patient stays in bed for a few weeks, goes home to rest for a few more weeks. He does not return to work until at least three months have passed.

Some patients are allowed in a chair within days after the attack. Others stay in bed 4 to 8 weeks. Each is a personal problem. For example, some patients need to take blood-thinners for months and years; other, only during the first few weeks after the attack.

We are more optimistic about the outcome of coronary disease than we were years ago; nevertheless it remains a serious problem until we lick the cause and treatment of atherosclerosis.

prior to departure

Friends and neighbours gathered in Nestleton Presbyterian Church in honour of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gist who are leaving to take residence in Peterborough.

Reverend Fred Swan, Minister of the Presbyterian church, voiced the sentiments of the gathering. He spoke of the help in the church, Ladies Aid and the community that both Mr. and Mrs. Gist have so willingly given, and of how much they will be missed.

Readings were given by Mrs. Kenneth Glikk, Mrs. Howard Lee and Mrs. Cecil Wilson. Mrs. George Wolfe shared coloured slides of the Seaway, Kenwood Conference and views of Ireland where she and her husband had visited recently.

Miss Ruth Proutt read an address and Mrs. Grant Thompson presented a purse of memento from friends and neighbours. Both Mr. and Mrs. Gist made gracious replies and invited anyone to visit with them when in Peterboro.

"Blest Be Thee That Binds" was sung before those in attendance gathered in the Sunday School room for a social hour. It was fitting that the new owners of the general store and Mrs. James Lawrence, daughter Martha Anne and son Tommy were present to get acquainted with some of the local folk. All join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Gist many happy years of retirement.

By Peter J. Steincrohn, MD, F.A.C.P.

RINGING IN THE EARS

Many people have the idea that only the big diseases drive some patients to drink—and worse not so. Like the steady drip, drip, drip of water, the little distractions can drive us to distraction.

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: I have just read your book "How to Stop Killing Yourself." I don't believe in leaving this earth until called, but I'm killing myself and I can't help it.

I've had tinnitus (the fancy name for horrible ringing in the ears) for a year and a half. My ear doctor says it's from poor circulation and sometimes people just have to live with it.

After three appointments he gave me prescriptions for alcoholic acid, tranquillisers and sleeping pills. But they don't help. Just make me groggy.

DOCTOR GIVES UP
The ringing persists. He told me not to come back more because he has done all he can. I am 47. My husband began bringing me whiskey which I'd never used before.

I try to keep busy all day.

but by night I'm exhausted from listening to this hissing and whistling and sometimes screeching noise in my head. My left ear is cold and I cover it with my left hand. So far, every night, I drink a cup of 100 proof whiskey. I know it is hurting me. I don't like the stuff and it is irritating my bladder.

What can I do. There is no silence asleep with this noise in my head. I may try another doctor but I don't suppose he can help me. Well, thinking for listening I just wanted to know why I have to kill myself. Mrs. X.

Comment: Whoever has suffered from tinnitus will agree that it can test the will and fortitude of anyone—a 95-pound football tackle if it persists, as in the case of Mrs. X. It can so torment the patient that thoughts of suicide begin to crowd in. On the premise that Mrs. X was not fooling, I have written to her to dissuade her from taking any rash action.

NEW DOCTORY YES!
If Mrs. X's doctor is correct, and her tinnitus is due to interference in the circulation of an artery which supplies the inner ear, I agree it can be a stubborn ailment. But I have seen many improve, and that is what Mrs. Y should hope for.

Not all drugs help everyone, but a report a few years ago on a medicine called Arlidin should bring hope to people who suffer from tinnitus. Drs. Wallace, Rubin and Jack R. Anderson of New Orleans treated it in 75 patients, and complete remission (disappearance) of symptoms occurred in over 50 per cent.

Another suggestion for Mrs. G: she wonders if she should try another doctor. Unequivocally, my answer to that is yes.

No matter how good the doctor, a consultation is in order when a patient goes on month after month without improvement. Two hands are not invariably better than one; but it's often surprising how much good comes of a consultation in which physicians toss their ideas back and forth.

STOP!... killing yourself

By Peter J. Steincrohn, MD, F.A.C.P.

DON'T BE SEVERE WITH SICK CHILD

I can't stand seeing anybody mistreat a dog. But most of the time, but sometimes an apparently loving parent mistreats an innocent child especially one who is sick! It is more than I can take. What would you say if you had received a letter like the following.

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: My husband and I disagree about this, so I am asking your advice. In the early years of our marriage we were unable to have children. I could conceive but would abort involuntarily before the baby had a chance to live.

In 18 years this happened four times, then, like a delightful surprise, just before our 19th anniversary, a little girl was born to us. She was a difficult delivery and received a brain injury at birth that causes her to be epileptic.

She is also allergic to a long list of foods, medicines and other things. Besides, she is highly susceptible to infection and is frequently ill. All I have said thus far leads to the present problem. This child is bright, alert and with a sunny disposition. But most of the time, but sometimes is radically different. Then her behaviour is difficult to manage.

Here is where my husband and I disagree. I say she should be helped by a good doctor and should be taken to one. But he thinks it's because I am not severe enough in my punishment and correction of her. I carried her out of Church yesterday and spanked her hard. All the way out she begged me not to spank her and after I had, she was still crying she looked right at me and said, "Mama, Mama, I can't help it." Then last night I heard her asking God to "help Mama know I can't help it."

Doctor Steincrohn, who is right? My husband or me? Can she be helped or should I be more alert? We love her long list of foods, medicines and other things. Besides, she is highly susceptible to infection and is frequently ill. All I have said thus far leads to the pre-emotion is a mixture of wonderment and puzzlement at how she can say, "We love her deeply, etc." A dog can crawl off in a corner after a beating. But what can a child do, an epileptic child? Instead of sympathy and understanding, she gets the strap or a smack with the hand.

Mrs. X, I'm afraid I can't answer your question. Take your child to a doctor in spite of what your husband advises. For pity's sake, stop beating her.

And while you're about it, make an appointment for your husband with a psychiatrist. He needs some kind of shock treatment to wake him up to the realization that what he thinks is love for his child is really hate.

a chest specialist to check on how severe are these pockets of infection in the lung. I doubt that a sun lamp will help. When medicines fail, operation often helps a stubborn bronchitis. But you have a consultation rather than buy a sun lamp.

"The Maidens' Viewpoint"

Last week, you as readers, were treated to a holiday — no column. However, there was enough excitement to take up your reading time. It's all coming, of course, someone reads this.

Ever go through the machinations of applying for "Union" insurance? If you haven't and are ever in a position to try to collect what is everybody's just due who are waiting to look forward to. Form after form — and if you answer the questions honestly — you may find you have "had the biscuit".

More of this later.

Was pleased to see that Dr. R. K. Hallowes has taken up the fight to gain some control over dogs being allowed to roam the streets. There has been a growing concern about the number of dogs roaming around in packs and singly. This is a dominant throughout the Counties of Haliburton and Victoria.

There are by-laws to control these dogs but the problem lies in the enforcement.

Councillor Les. Neil took up the cause the other night during Lindsay's council meeting. According to Mr. Neil, "Dogs are running around the town in packs, something should be done about it."

It was noted in the press release that was taken by the council at this time.

William J. Crowley comes to the dog's defence and does it very well and I couldn't agree with him more — except for one statement he made — "Speaking for dog owners I can say that we do not wish to infringe on the rights of others, but we do pay a dog license and have some rights on ourselves. I would suggest to councillors that there are a lot of dog owners in Lindsay at election time which is the dog by-law which is a good one but let alone."

In this reasoning of Mr. Crowley's has any bearing on municipal elections then the council is really "going to the dogs".

"Love me, love my dog" seems to be what my prospective dog owners in Lindsay are having to keep in mind if they want to enter the ring.

Mrs. Eve Lee in her letter puts the case quite plainly — she has suffered financial loss by dogs killing her sheep. Mrs. Lee concluded her letter by saying — "Something should be done to protect our livestock and income. Councils are elected to do our business."

So, there you have it — no matter which way you slice it — it would appear the councillors are up against it — "They're damned if they do, and damned if they don't."

are beginning to do winter business. This is a good thing for the economy of the county. In years past the season has always been a short seven weeks in the summer — with a little imagination and some financial investment the season could be extended throughout the biggest part of the winter.

Anyone interested in the Carleton Place Club, by the way, how they operate and the special privileges for members, etc. — should get in touch with the secretary, R.R. Minden, Ontario.

Should you be interested in accommodation here is a list of some of the resorts open for your convenience. Greg's Cabins (within walking distance of the ski tow) Valley Hill Resort, R.R.22 Minden (After skilounge dancing — lake skating and sleigh parties) Just down the road from the ski tow to Medley's — They have bowling and other entertainment for the skiers. Three miles north of the ski tow is Olant Motel — the last word in electrically heated, luxurious units. They also offer ice fishing and fish but rentals. Next door to Olant's Motel is the "Lift Chick Inn". They have full course meals and snacks. When you are there be sure to try their "Hot Chick in a mug", it's the best.

The Mataback Inn offers accommodation, good food and ice fishing and but rental. Loraine Lodge, an ARTO resort, is just seven miles north of the ski tow on Scenic Highway 35 — they have good accommodation and meals for the weekend skiers. Also, in case of accident — see Floyd Hall Insurance and Real Estate, in Minden — he may say — just may be able to insure you.

"Sheets" came the reply. "I can pick this up for 1.75 at this time, the name of a local store."

"That's the place to get it," said Slim.

"They ain't got any left, came the reply."

"Well," said Slim, "when I don't have them I sell 'em for one buck even."

Driving through Carleton Place last week I dropped down to the Ski Club to see what activity there was. Smoke was coming from the chimney of the newly enlarged and decorated clubhouse. As I got out of the car, the dog opened and Frank Gregory said out — "You're just in time — the coffee is ready."

With the snow on the ground and smoke going up from the Ski Club House there is no doubt that winter is here.

Frank informed me they were practically ready for business — it all depends on the weather — the small slope is almost ready now. This season has very promise of being a good one — memberships are up and gathered that with the inquiries from outside clubs, etc., anyone wishing a membership shouldn't put it off too long.

As a result of the ski club being formed and now being put into use, three summer lodges in the area have winterized and

Richard E. Brown

Richard E. Brown passed away peacefully on November 24 1962 at his home on Ann St. in Connington. The deceased was in his 98th year.

Born in Mariposa Township he was the eldest son of Alexander Brown and Sarah Wright and was the husband of the former Eva Cole who predeceased him in 1922. His early life was spent in working on the farm and was the husband of his brother. Following the death of his wife he and his sister Carrie (Mrs. George Whetten) resided in the house.

The deceased will be remembered as a friend to everyone who had the pleasure of knowing him and the church and all its interests were his deep concern at all times and even prior to his death he did not forget to inquire often about the church and what was being done especially in the Sunday School where he taught and was superintending for a number of years.

Connington has lost what many regarded as a good citizen, friend and neighbor and one who always tried to see that the welfare of the community was paramount.

The late Mr. Brown is survived by three sisters Elizabeth (Mrs. G. McLaughlin) of Woodville, Carrie (Mrs. George Whetten) of Connington and Mrs. John Brown of Toronto and by their respective families. He was predeceased by a brother John in 1935 and his youngest sister Margaret (Mrs. Howard Whetten) in 1950.

The funeral was held from the Summerfield Funeral Home in Connington and interment was made in Cedarvale Cemetery. Rev. C. R. Wragg conducted the service. The pallbearers were six nephews of the deceased and were as follows, Roy Whetten, Clinton Whetten, Jack Brown and Harold, Bert and Milton McKague.

Dunsford

The Dunsford C.G.T. girls and leaders Mrs. Fred Hardy and Mrs. Bingleman motored to Hillcroft Hospital and sang Christmas carols for the enjoyment of the patients. They gave the ladies each a corsage and the men a hankie and gin-gin and they also served homemade Christmas cake. The patients were very complimentary in their appreciation of the visit of the group.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Mace and son John, Mrs. Grace and Mrs. Ezra Thurston.

Mrs. Chris Lipinski and her son, Mr. Douglas Lipinski of Willowdale, motored down to their home here.

Mrs. Hubert Elliott spent a few days in Toronto recently. Mrs. Howard Kennedy of Toronto visited Mr. and Mrs. Torrance Robertson. She will spend a few days also with Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Elliott.

"Canada's competitive strength improving"

"Present circumstances offer us an opportunity for vigorous efforts to cope with some of our underlying problems", said J. P. R. Wadsworth, President, addressing the 97th Annual Meeting of the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce.

Highlights from the President's Address

The record of the Canadian economy in the current year shows clearly that the overall position is relatively favourable. New records of production have been achieved in many areas, and this production has been sold successfully at home and abroad. We have achieved an increase in the Gross National Product which, in current dollars, will probably be about six per cent in the year 1962.

An important source of this strength has been the improvement in our merchandise trade balance. The surplus on merchandise trade in the second quarter of the year was estimated to be running at an annual rate of $500 million. It appears that the deficit in the current account of our balance of payments during the second quarter of 1962 was running at an annual rate of approximately $400 million. This estimated annual rate of deficit compares with total deficits for current account of some $850 million in 1961, $980 million in 1960, more than $1.2 billion in 1959, and about $1.5 billion in 1958. However, the extent of the improvement should not be exaggerated, for it is not at all certain, at this stage, that the deficit for the full year 1962 will be less than $500 million. In a period such as the present, with a high level of consumer expenditure and substantial business investment, there is a strong tendency for imports to increase.

There are also certain special factors that take into account in making an assessment of current economic conditions in Canada. For one thing, 1963 will be the first full calendar year that we have been on the U.S. dollar, and 1962.5 cents (U.S.), which was set with the International Monetary Fund on May 2, 1962. The advantages which have resulted from fixing and maintaining this new rate of exchange will continue only to the extent that they are not offset by price increases within Canada or compensating changes in the exchange rates of other countries.

Economic Outlook

There is, however, room for complacency about our economic prospects. The crisis experienced with respect to our exchange reserves and the foreign exchange value of the Canadian dollar in 1952, together with the immediate reaction to the Interest Equalization Tax Act proposed by the United States this year, are reminders of the basic soundness of the Canadian economy to judgments made and decisions taken in other countries. We must do all we can to build up a substantial and sustained surplus in our merchandise trade and reduce the deficit on non-merchandise items in our balance of payments which continues to be in the vicinity of one billion dollars a year. The size of this deficit reflects in large measure the substantial outflow of interest and dividend payments which constitute the cost of servicing foreign investment in Canada.

The most gratifying aspect of the business situation in Canada at the present time is the fact that each major region of the country has been participating in the expansion. I would like to touch on some of the highlights of developments in each of these areas.

Atlantic Provinces

The rate of capital investment in the Atlantic Provinces has generally kept pace with that of the country as a whole, and the proportion of the new investment made by business organizations is roughly the same for the Atlantic Provinces as for Canada as a whole.

Quebec

In the Province of Quebec business activity has continued at a high level through this year. There have been further gains in many measurements of activity reflecting the general buoyancy in business conditions which has been characteristic of 1962.

The manufacturing industries which produce items for basic consumer needs, such as the food industries, have continued to supply general strength to the economy while the industries which provide services of various kinds such as utilities, merchandising organizations and financial institutions have been somewhat slower.

Capital investment has again provided considerable stimulus for the Quebec economy. Total outlays for all types of investment including housing are estimated to close at $2.3 billion in 1962, establishing a new record for the province. The increase over 1961 is estimated at $117 million, 5% per cent, and follows an increase of $160 million in 1961. There continue to be strong increases in outlays for utilities, manufacturing facilities, institutional services and various other forms of social capital.

Ontario

In the Province of Ontario, there has also continued to be a high level of activity this year. The general picture has been similar to that of 1962, with the rate of increase in overall activity showing a fairly steady upward trend.

The manufacturing industry, with its many facets, has been the major source of stimulus. The value of manufacturers' shipments in the first nine months of 1962 totalled $10.5 billion, some seven per cent higher than during the corresponding period of the previous year. Manufacturing manufacturing for roughly two-thirds of total output in Ontario and substantial year-over-year increases have taken place in a number of its leading industries—steel, automobile and parts, farm implements and machinery, to name some of the most important industries.

Capital investment in the Province of Ontario continues to be very substantial and in 1963 total outlays in private and public investment will approach $1.5 billion. This will be an increase of about one per cent over 1962, a somewhat smaller increase than in the previous year.

Prarie Provinces

In the Prairie Provinces the outstanding feature of the business situation is the fact that the wheat crop has set high volume records in two successive years and the sale of these two bountiful crops on reasonable terms is virtually assured. This year the Prairie wheat crop is estimated at 703 million bushels, last year the crop was 546 million bushels. The contract signed with the Soviet Union, which covers the sale of approximately 240 million bushels of wheat and flour to be delivered by July 31, 1964, is by far the largest single commitment in this crop year. In addition, important contracts have been made with Japan, mainland China, and some countries in Europe which have not recently purchased Canadian wheat. When these new sales are added to the requirements of our other customers, it is estimated that sales of wheat for export and domestic use in the crop year 1963/64 will reach a volume equivalent to this year's entire crop.

The petroleum industry continues to make very substantial contributions to the economies of Alberta and Saskatchewan, with Alberta now accounting for about two-thirds of Canadian crude oil and natural gas liquids. Production of crude oil and natural gas liquids increased five per cent this year, reaching an average output of 78,000 barrels a day. Sales of natural gas increased by roughly one-third over last year and are expected to average over three billion cubic feet a day, for the year as a whole. By contrast, output of natural gas, particularly sulphur, have also shown a substantial increase in sales.

British Columbia

In the Province of British Columbia a number of factors combine to make this a very good year. An important source of stimulus has been the sharp rise in capital investment which is running roughly 20 per cent higher than last year. This increase will amount to about $190 million and bring total outlays for private and public investment to some $1.1 billion for the year. The largest outlays for capital investment are concentrated in the pulp and paper, steel and electrical power projects. Housing also is up strongly this year with starts running about 10 per cent above the level of 1961.

Another major stimulus for British Columbia this year has been a strong export demand for a number of the products of its major resource industries, the increase in sales taking place not only to traditional customers but to growing markets across the Pacific, particularly Japan.

The important forest products industries, which account for roughly one-third of the net value of production in British Columbia, have had a very good year. Output of lead and zinc is comparable to last year and there have also been important developments in new copper and iron mines which have long-term sales contracts with Japan.

This regional review has pointed out the wide range of undertakings which make up the Canadian economic complex. At the same time it has provided a picture of the extent to which investment is growing and support and further stimulus to each region of the country. It also emphasizes the extent to which economic conditions in one area of the country are directly affected by conditions in the other areas. This year, for example, the big wheat crop and the contracts for its immediate sale are bringing benefits to each major region of the country, the exports and the industrial centres as well as the Prairie region.

Prospects Generally Encouraging

For Canada as a whole, prospects for the future are generally encouraging, but we are still confronted by certain basic problems to which we must continue to devote careful attention.

One encouraging development has been the notable increase in the volume of Canadian manufactured goods sold abroad. In the value of these exports we have reached $1.5 billion compared with slightly over $400 million in 1960. Much depends on the level of unit costs as well as on product development and salesmanship. In this connection all the cost factors involved in the production and export of goods are of competitive position both in export and domestic markets.

Another encouraging development is the growing strength of Canadian industry and enterprise, both for domestic and export markets. The Canadian banks with their wide distribution of branches across Canada, extensive correspondent bank relationships throughout the world have played and will continue to play an important part. This bank in particular, provides a worldwide banking service with constantly expanding facilities to Canadians with interests outside of Canada, be they exporters, importers, investors or pleasure travellers. Also, for the residents of other countries we provide equally extensive services, including the facilities of our branches in every part of the world.

The full text of the President's and the Chief General Manager's addresses may be obtained by writing to the Secretary, Head Office, Toronto.

BANK OF COMMERCE
Over 1260 branches to serve you

World trade is growing and becoming steadily more competitive. Federal and provincial government departments are providing valuable assistance to the efforts of business enterprise to obtain an adequate share of this trade. However, research, production techniques and marketing skills are progressing rapidly in many countries. There is also the possibility of major changes in the field of commercial and tariff policies. For example, the working out of the United States Trade Expansion Act, the policies followed by the European Economic Community, and the whole question of Commonwealth preferences.

The present circumstances offer us an opportunity for vigorous efforts to cope with some of our underlying problems and to endeavour to obtain that competitive strength of the Canadian economy both at home and abroad is steadily improving.

William M. Currie, Chief General Manager, reviewed the balance sheet, highlights of which are summarized. His remarks follow in digest form:

The Bank's 97th annual statement marks the first occasion on which total assets have exceeded $5,000,000, an increase of $446,000,000 or 10.2 per cent over the previous year end. Items in transit included under cash resources showed a decrease of $24,000,000, non-revenue-producing assets and the reduction of this total has been made possible by improved clearing procedures and, latterly, by the use of electronic sorting machines and computers, a field which the Bank was the first to explore and develop.

Quoted in the statement are figures of $3.35 per cent of the Bank's total liabilities, as compared to 45.35 per cent of October 31, 1962.

With the relaxation of monetary restraint during the twelve months under review, the country's money supply increased steadily and as a result the Bank was able to meet the demand for loans and add to its liquidity by additions to its security portfolio, which had been substantially reduced during the previous financial year. On October 31, the Bank's total assets and other loans of $2,114,000 represent an increase of $25,000,000 over the previous year end.

During the year 39 branches were opened and 22 were closed, increasing the Bank's total branches to 1,283, of which 26 are located abroad.

Total deposits increased 10.3 per cent to $4,782,000,000, of which $2,209,000,000 represent personal savings in Canada, an increase of 6.2 per cent. Deposits by the Federal and Provincial Governments and by Other Banks also increased.

Undivided profits of $20,385,039 were up $1,195,133, or 6.2 per cent, over 1961.

Earnings per share at $2.93 compare with $2.75 a year earlier. Total dividends of $15,670,000 were paid at the rate of $2.25 per share.

The Bank recently announced the acquisition of financial interests in two existing companies, Tri-Branch Mortgage Limited and United Dominion Corporation (Canada) Limited. The former specializes in mortgage financing, while the latter engages in medium and long-term capital financing. In addition the Bank, through all its branches, will act as sole agent for Kinross Mortgage Corporation in the placement of first conventional mortgage loans. These new associations will further broaden the comprehensive services already available at our branches.

In closing I should like to say that progress such as that reported could not have been accomplished without the co-operation of a body of personnel which has proven itself to be second to none in the Canadian banking scene. It is therefore with the greatest pleasure that I express the thanks of General Management for the hard work, devotion and loyalty which employees of the bank at every level continue to direct towards the prudent management of our affairs and the realization of our ideals of service to the community.

WHAT Christmas Carol is suggested at right? Carol: Longfellow wrote the words. The last line reads: "A voice, a chime, a chant sublime, of peace on earth, good-will to men." Did you say "I Heard the Bells on Christmas Day"? Well, it's a carol, a chime, a chant sublime, of peace on earth, good-will to men. Did you say "I Heard the Bells on Christmas Day"? Well, it's a carol, a chime, a chant sublime, of peace on earth, good-will to men.

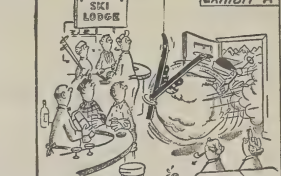

As a reward, everyone sing. But, let's embellish our sing-along song for presentation to friends. First, light and bright (bow in on poodle, holy berries, etc.) 2—Dark red. 3—Light green. 4—Dark green. 5—Light yellow. 6—Dark yellow. 7—Light blue. 8—Dark blue. 9—Lavender. 10—Purple. 11—Tan. 12—Brown.

Next, out and set up some in a shallow box (fold backdrop horizontally along dotted line; position out-cut figures for best 3-D effect).

Building Boom at North Pole?

OUR parka-clad friend, R. M. Maun, doesn't have much money to look at in his frozen waste and ice. He has something to live, however, and he isn't natural to the landscape, blinks right in with the surroundings. The first you want this to, begin drawing a line from dot 1 to dot 2, etc., until you have reached dot 16.

Now if you can guess what the subject is before you begin to draw, you can have some fun adding make-believe colors later.

P. S.: Can you name the bird? (Illustration of a penguin on the map.)

CRYPTARITHM

ALL of the unknowns represented by X's below are odd numbers. The multiplier and multiplicand consist of each one-digit odd numbers, each used but once. Can you figure the values?

"THE POST, LINDSAY, ONTARIO, DECEMBER 1, 1968" Hipkidd says officers still have 14 sacks of mail to go by Ontario — the man who apparently killed President Kennedy.

FUND GROWS Police in Dallas say the fund for the widow of slain officer J. D. Tippit continues to grow. They hint it may reach 200-250 dollars a month pension after her husband was killed.

22nd. Miss Sue Lyons is "Peacock Look" the wisest, currently in Mexico for the film "Night of the Iguana" it from two different fabrics.

BEAUTY TIP If you want an unlined sack don't read with your chin on your chest. Experts also say in England will be dressing watch out for sleeping on an overfilled pillow.

She wore a soft turquoise pebble-sole gown which was styled with a bell-shaped skirt and short fitted jacket which had three quarter length sleeves. Her headress was a white circular piece with flowing ribbons down the back. She carried a nosegay of ranunculus and pom poms.

The flower girl was Carol Parliament, cousin of the groom, and she wore a soft turquoise dress of nylon chiffon over taffeta with a full skirt and matching cummerbund. Her headress was a white circular piece with flowing ribbons down the back. She carried a nosegay of ranunculus and pom poms.

The happy couple toured Eastern Ontario, Ottawa and Northern New York State in their honeymoon. The bride chose a three-piece red wool knitted suit, with black accessories and corsage of white miniature carnations for going away.

Mr. and Mrs. Cruess are residing at Cameron, Ontario.

along the way

There are some people in Lindsay who are in a bit of a Christmas box—well, one at least. . . .

This morning a call was received from a lady who said she wished the story concerning the wholesale distribution of Christmas cards by a manufacturer who employs hand-picked persons to do the art work had never been published. . . .

Earlier this week, Lindsay's Chamber of Commerce manager pointed out that the package Christmas cards being received through the mail by Lindsay households didn't obligate them in any way—They needn't be purchased, they weren't produced by any recognized Canadian organization for the handicapped and the recipient didn't even have to return them to the sender if they didn't want to. And that's what is causing the lady who called her problem. . . .

"I like the cards," she declared, "and I was just on the point of sending in the two dollars and using them when the story appeared in the paper. Now I can't use them, or hesitate to do so, because some people might think they hadn't been paid for, although the people who know us would realize this wasn't the case. I just wondered if you had any suggestion to offer—. . .

The caller went on to explain that she took a different view of the matter than the Chamber of Commerce, pointing out that she felt people would be helping the handicapped indirectly by buying and using the cards. She also noted that some of her friends were on the point of forwarding the money for the cards too but hated to do the same reason as she did. . . .

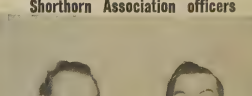

So you see the lady is in quite a box—How to get out of it is the problem. Should she keep the cards and send in the money, later mailing them with a perfectly clear conscience or should she reject the offer on the grounds of what people might think and thus surrender her individual preference? . . .

What other answer is there except: "Lady, let Lindsay be your guide?"

Shorthorn Association officers

Election of officers for the 1964 season of the Shorthorn Cattle Association of Victoria County took place at the annual meeting on Thursday. Cecil Caan of Cameron (left) was elected secretary-treasurer and William Mahood of Onmore is the 1964 president.

The commission met with Frank Stukus proprietor of the Byrnell Manor Boys' Camp, near Fenelon Falls who proposed renting the arena from June 23 to August 25 at a cost of $7,000 to be used for training in connection with his camp. . . .

He told the commission that it had been his desire to locate his training camp in Lindsay three years ago but at that time the arena could not be handled. . . .

They had used Cobourg and Peterboro as their base of operations, but the cost and time of transportation was a big factor said Mr. Stukus. . . .

In addition to its use as a training camp, there would be a figure skating training school. He also felt that bringing additional revenue to the town was well publicized. . . .

"All these students, who could number as many as 500 to 300, plus teachers, would need accommodation and food. In many cases, the parents need accommodation and food. The town, with the services of Lindsay. . . .

Out of the 68 days he would be using the arena, 60 hours would be relinquished free to the town, with the services of one or two of the teachers, he said. . . .

Chairman H. Simpson said he found the offer "interesting and worth considering." Mayor Holton reminded the commission that as the arena belonged to the town's people, they must give the matter careful consideration and not consider the arena as a money-maker. . . .

"Apart from this," he said, "I feel it could be a good thing for our town." . . .

A rough estimate of the cost of an additional compressed air system was prepared to that would have to be added operation costs and an assistant for Mr. Johnson the engineer it was noted. . . .

Dr. Rich practiced first at Lindsay in 1911 where he opened a practice. A member of a well-known medical family, Dr. Rich was the son of Richard Hearn, an Oakwood farmer, whose farm was at Mariposa Station. . . .

Dr. Rich is survived by his wife, the former Blanche Webster, and three children, Kathleen, Byron and Brenda (Mrs. John D. Reilly), all of Toronto, and six grandchildren. . . .

His funeral service was held at Riverside Cemetery Vault in Lindsay. . . .

Lindsay police batting 100% on hit-runs

Lindsay police are batting 100% on the hit-and-run accidents investigations at least as far as Mr. Alfred Browne of 35 Cambridge St. south is concerned. . . .

Within the last month, Mr. Browne has had his car damaged twice by hit and run drivers. . . .

On November 9 his car was damaged while parked in front of his home. . . .

Eric Patterson of Lindsay appeared in court and was fined $100 and $15.50 costs in connection with the offence. . . .

On the night of December 8, Mr. Browne's car was damaged to the extent of $200 while parked on Russell St. . . .

COMMISSION EXPLORING PROPOSAL

An offer of $7,000 for the use of the Lindsay arena for ice skating during the summer was made to the Recreation Commission at their meeting last night. . . .

UNWELCOME NEWS

Ontario Premier John Robarts' announcement that the province faces the prospect of increased taxation in the foreseeable future will come as unwelcome news to the majority of its residents. It should be met with protests from the people and a demand that the government get down to brass tacks and see where it can save money and there are lots of places that it could. We venture to say that a contingent of efficiency experts turned loose at Queen's Park and its affiliated agencies could have a field day and the end result might well eliminate the necessity of considering further tax increases. Unfortunately, as witness the Glasco Report economy at government level is seldom received with open arms and workable proposals for saving the taxpayers' money are generally rejected.

It is almost nauseating to sit at meetings of various boards, councils and commissions and hear some member say: "Well, that's the total cost but we don't have to pay all that — the government pays 50% of it". How naive the speaker gets! Does anyone honestly believe that governments come by money by any means other than dipping into the pockets of taxpayers? Sure, it must be admitted that the greater the spread of the tax burden the less the individual group or groups is likely to be angry. But actually reaches the point where the accumulated "spreading around" of the tax burden represents a fair drain on the individual taxpayer's purse. Grants often used to curtail political favour, encourage waste and extravagance through spending which frequently isn't absolutely essential.

What this province and this country needs is more genuine economy in the administration of their respective affairs. It can and should be brought about but it is unlikely to be as long as those at the head of affairs think only in terms of increasing taxation to meet their obligations rather than concentrating on cutting their suit according to their cloth and skipping a bit on the lining.

The People Write,
The Lindsay Post,
Dear Editor:
It looks as if the Apostle John's prophecy as he reveals it in the 13th chapter of the Book of Revelations is taking place, now. After describing Hitler he speaks of the deadly wound he healed. Then in the 17th verse he writes: "That no man might buy or sell, save that which had the mark or name of the BEAST."

As I see it the Government of Canada has copied the laws of Hitler and put them into practice. In Canada a farmer can grow grain in the west and ship it down east and 30% of it goes to the government. The people of Elton yet our Ontario government allows them to take over completely the government in our local community. There is no one in Parliament who will stand up to the Lord's side and administer justice to all. It is time the MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT and the members of the FEDERATION OF AGRICULTURE read the 9th, 10th and 11th verses of chapter 14 of Revelations and discover for themselves the consequences of those who worship the BEAST so they can change their ways and escape the wrath to come, as it is written by the Apostle John.

Since 1941 the Government of Canada has spent approximately $400 million subsidizing the BEAST to take the

Reports and Remarks...

AGAINST A NEW DOTTED LINE

The idea floating around a few months ago that there should be a national register of the unemployed seems to have died out. May it rest in peace. These national registrations never have accomplished anything except to inconvenience the careful law-abiding citizens, most people, and to make jobs in government, which already has too many employees.

Back in wartime there was a national registration that required nine freight car loads of paper (which was in short supply) and it caught no spies, it did not stimulate the war effort, and it didn't even please its inventor, the Rt. Hon. James G. Gardiner.

The most absurd question was asked to try to find out who could milk a cow. Mr. Gordy, as a long time minister of agriculture, was probably farm-minded. Whether he was going to take the city milkers to the cow or bring the cow to the city milkers he never got around to saying.

As a matter of fact it was highly probable that the people who could milk said they could not, and the people who could not said they could.

What is needed most of all is a tightening of the administration and possibly the authority of the unemployment insurance commission. People who are unemployed and who are seeking work because they are unemployed should be a part of the records of the commission. A formal registration of the unemployed, or so-called unemployed, would duplicate a great deal of confusion. Confusion in the singular might eventually be dispelled; confusion in the plural might add to the chaos in quadruplicate.

There may be a number of unemployed who could be employed if they had some skill or a different kind. There was mention the other day of a Kentville coal miner who because of automation had been unemployed for a dozen years and apparently was not sufficiently educated or trained to take another job. From the statement that he was only twenty-five when first employed, it would seem that he could have been fitted for other kind of work, unless he belonged in an institution for the mentally deficient. His union, that great institution established so soundly by John L. Lewis, should have been doing something for the man in addition to giving him the handouts necessary to keep his body together. Failing the proper use of union surplus funds for the rehabilitation of the redundant, it could be that government, in these days of freedom might have looked after him better. Whether there is automation or not, whether there is featherbedding or not, there is always room for the employment of an honest worker who is trained for skilled work. The nation needs such people and they are being paid well. —The Printed Word.

A new shipping industry has commenced at Haliburton, one that seems short sighted and most destructive. This refers to the Christmas tree output. A Toronto man has come down in and shipped two or more cars of small spruce, and besides paying about nothing for them wants only those close enough to the railroad station to make the cost of loading almost nothing. These trees are grown into money very quickly and it seems a pity to hand them over to such purposes, especially as they are not given away for anything like the figure paid for them.

Civic Toboggan Slide

The question of the erection of a civic toboggan slide was discussed at a meeting of the town council and a committee was appointed to report on the cost as well as a suitable site for the structure. The MacDonald park site has been suggested, but this location is not a suitable place for a slide.

DECEMBER 13, 1938

The Lindsay Rotary Club will sponsor a community Christmas tree in Lindsay shortly before Christmas, it was decided at the luncheon yesterday. Plans are to invite all the public school children from Lindsay and Victoria County. There will be community singing and "Santa Claus" will arrive bearing some little gift for every boy and girl present. The event will probably be held in Victoria Park.

Relief Report

There were 381 relief recipients in Lindsay during the month of November. Alderman Richard Butler, stated in his Relief Commission report to council. Out of a total relief cost of $1890.20, the total share is $617.77. This expenditure compares to $655.12.

SIMPLE SAVORY

Not every meal during the Christmas season is a feast. There are still everyday dinners to produce, often when time is at a premium. Here's a dandy recipe called Onion Supper Squares, specially developed for busy day cooking. Onion Supper Squares are "quick food," an interesting switch from potatoes or bread. They're particularly tasty with cold meats so try and designate them for an evening when you're using up the cold turkey or ham from a holiday dinner. Made by the truly fast method, they are truly fast to make. Liquid shortening in the form of peanut or other vegetable oil keeps preparation to a bare minimum. An extremely tender drop dough is lightly spiced with poultry seasoning and tomato ketchup and bakes on a layer of sautéed onions. After baking the pan is inverted so the onions form a savory topping for the squares.

They should be served hot from the oven. If you're going to be otherwise occupied until supertime, prepare the onions and liquid and dry mixtures in advance. About half an hour before serving time, combine the ingredients for the dough, spread over the onions and bake.

ONION SUPPER SQUARES
(Yield, makes 9 squares, app. 2½-inches each)

4 to 6 medium onions, halved lengthwise and thinly sliced (2 cups); 2 tablespoons peanut or other vegetable oil; ½ teaspoon salt; 1½ cups once-sifted all-purpose flour or 1½ cups once-sifted pastry flour; 4 tablespoons baking powder; 1 teaspoon salt; ¼ teaspoon poultry seasoning; ¼ cup milk; ¼ cup tomato ketchup; 1 egg slightly beaten; ¼ cup peanut or other vegetable oil.

Preheat oven to 425 degrees F. (very hot). Grease an 8-inch square pan. (If glass ovenware is used, reduce temperature by 25 degrees).

Saute onions slowly in 2 tablespoons oil with the ¼ teaspoon salt, until very soft and cake. Arrange in bottom of prepared pan.

Sift together flour, baking powder, the one teaspoon salt and the poultry seasoning. Make a well in the dry ingredients and add, all at once, the remaining ingredients which have been lightly mixed. Stir with a wooden spoon, just until blended. Don't overmix. Spread lightly over prepared onions.

Bake in preheated oven 25 to 30 minutes until lightly browned. Remove from oven and invert onto serving plate. Cut into 8 strips crosswise, and 3 lengthwise, making 9 squares.

Make instead of potatoes. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

TIMELY TIP

When buying meat to freeze for hamburger patties or meat balls, shape the patties or balls while the meat is still unfrozen say Home Economists at MacDonald Institute, Guelph. Separate with waxpaper; cover carefully, freeze and hold to two degrees Fahrenheit. They will be ready to use when needed.

Cream of tartar added to partially beaten egg whites (one tsp. to one cup of whites) stabilizes the foam and thus prevents shrinkage when baking and cooling angel cakes, says the Foods Department at MacDonald Institute, Guelph.

Try glazing your fruit cake this Christmas says the Foods Department of MacDonald Institute, Guelph. A glaze provides fewer calories and permits the true rich flavor of the cake to predominate. For a dark cake use a mixture of 1 part molasses to 4 parts water; for a light cake use 1 part slightly beaten egg white to 4 parts water. Brush the glaze on as soon as the cake comes from the oven and then return it to the oven for a few minutes.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Cunningham of 79 Cambridge St. S., Lindsay, who will be celebrating their 14th wedding anniversary on December 16th. Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham extend best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Del Rollins, who celebrated their wedding anniversary on the same day.

CLASH WITH POLICE
About 400 Communist college students clashed with police in the streets of Seoul today in a protest against a new government examination system for students in the judicial service.

Some 100-club-swinging police forced the students to disperse in a 15-minute scuffle. More than 60 students were arrested.

HOLDING ON

Rebellious Bolivian tin miners are holding on to four Americans and 19 other hostages despite the failure of an anti-government demonstration in La Paz yesterday. The hostages have been held in Catavi, about 150 miles from La Paz, since last Friday. They were seized to support their demands for the release of three arrested Communist mine union leaders. Three Canadians were released earlier this week.

COMPLETE INVENTORY

Agriculture Minister Harry Hays says a complete inventory of Canadian farmland is under way as soon as possible so the most appropriate use for the land can be determined. Hays—in the Commons yesterday—pledged support for the Agriculture Rehabilitation and Development Act passed by the former administration and said the program would enable farmers with poor land to stand on their own feet. He pointed to 1963 as the greatest agricultural year Canada has ever known.

35 attend Woodville WI Christmas meeting

Woodville (PNS) — The December meeting of the Woodville Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. K. J. Rooney with 35 members and two visitors present and the 1st Vice President, Mrs. J. Teel in the chair.

The meeting opened with the Ode and the Lord's prayer in unison after which Mrs. Gordon English took charge of the Christmas programme which she and her committee had entitled "Christmas Around the World" and consisted of stories and legends surrounding Christmas from different countries followed by carols from each country some in the form of songs and some unison singing. These were as follows: Mrs. English, "Silent Night"; Mrs. A. Lapp, "O Christmas Tree"; Germain, "The Lapp and Mrs. C. Veale"; Mrs. O. Lamb, "O Come All Ye Faithful"; Latin unison, "Rudolph, the Red-Nosed Reindeer"; Mrs. C. Vesile, France, "The Angels"; Mrs. Wm. Bayes, Switzerland, "It Came Upon a Midnight Clear"; unison, Mrs. S. Murray, Holland, "Sleep Holy Child"; solo, Mrs. Beth Grant, Russia, "Angels Come From Highest Heaven"; solo and Miss Barbara Sproule, "Cannington Huron Indian"; Jean Abatorina, "his" solo. Mrs. English thanked all who had helped her with a very lovely Christmas programme. Mrs. Teel spoke to the motto which was, "If Christmas be not kept in mirth and love it is merely December 25th."

Minutes of November meeting were read and roll called, this being answered with a small gift for exchange later on. Mrs. V. Fisher won the attendance prize.

The treasurer's report was given and it was agreed to give cash donations to the following: Scott Mission, Boy's Hockey Club Rink fund and a local family who are in need of help as well as any shutouts who are remembered at Christmas. It was also decided that the secretary write a letter and a nice Christmas card be sent to Mrs. M. P. Austin in Florida, expressing regret that she had found it necessary to resign as president.

Mrs. Jackson gave a very interesting and enthusiastic report on the day spent by several of the ladies at the 61st Area Convention held in Toronto recently and arrangements were made to attend Sunday Day in Lindsay.

Mrs. Teel thanked Mrs. English and her committee for a fine programme and Mrs. Rooney for the use of her home. Meeting closed with "The Queen".

To the tune of Jingle Bells everyone marched around the Christmas tree for a gift after which sandwiches and Christmas cake were served.

Robarts promises tax hike for people of Ontario

Hamilton, Dec. 13.—(UPI)—Premier John Robarts said today that increased taxes in Ontario are inevitable despite additional assistance from the federal government.

The premier did not specify whether the increases would be made at the next legislative session or in what areas they would take place.

Robarts issued the warning after he reviewed the results of the recent federal-provincial tax conference in Ottawa during a speech to the Hamilton Traffic Club.

At the same time, he gave notice to the federal government that Ontario would not agree to any further alterations in federal-provincial relations that could weaken the province's economy.

Premier Robarts said the recent conference had altered the existing 5-year agreement between Ontario and Ottawa despite his opposition.

"I would like to make it eminently clear . . . to the federal government in Ottawa," he said, "that any further adjustment in the fiscal relationship between the provinces and the federal government must be examined very carefully in the light of their possible effect on the economy of the province".

The premier said there was "possibility that further alterations" would be sought at the continuation of the federal-provincial conference in the existing 5-year agreement Quebec early in the New Year.

At the annual meeting William Mahood of Ormeau was elected 1964 president. The immediate past president is Gratton Moore of Camoron.

Its earning power that counts!

Earning power depends on the ability of your truck to do the job at the lowest possible cost. That's where Chevrolet Trucks shine. They've been earning top money for our owners on every kind of job, in every part of the country for many years. Your local Chevrolet Truck dealer has the right Chevrolet Truck (5,000 to 43,000 lbs. GVW) with the right Chevrolet engine (80 to 252 hp) for your kind of hauling. No matter which one you need, you can be sure of this: it'll have plenty of power — earning power. That's the kind that counts!

DOWELL'S CHEVROLET & TRUCKS LTD.

General Motors Products of Canada, Limited, Oshawa, Ontario.

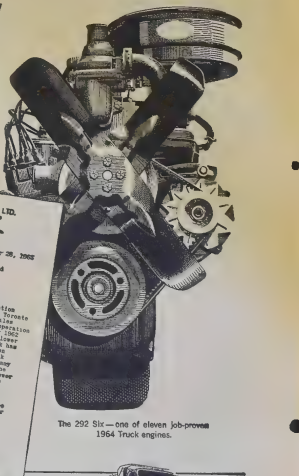

Dear Sirs:

We are pleased to inform you that we have been awarded the contract to supply 100 new 1984 Chevrolet trucks to the City of Oshawa for the year 1984. This is a very important contract for us and we are proud to be able to supply the City of Oshawa with new Chevrolet trucks.

Over the years we have found Chevrolet trucks to be the most practical for our fleet. The new 1984 line is the best yet. It has a new power, in many ways, and is a very good value for the money.

We wish to see Chevrolet for the year 1984. We are interested in the new 1984 line and we are interested in the new 1984 line. We are interested in the new 1984 line and we are interested in the new 1984 line.

Yours very truly,
DOWELL'S CHEVROLET & TRUCKS LTD.

Autobiography

It is a hard and noble subject for a man to write of himself, to give his own heart to say anything of his past, and the reader's ears to hear anything of his future. —Coveley.

EDITORIAL ..

—QUITE A LOT OF WORK WHICH COULD BE DONE IN WINTER—

The decision to postpone the laying of several men from Lindsay's Board of Works really does nothing to alleviate the problem except on a temporary basis and this is very satisfactory to the town. With the exception of being out of a job. What the matter does, however, is give rise to speculation as to the amount of provision made by the town for the winter. It is a fact that it can be done quite well in winter. There is, as everyone knows, a substantial subsidy paid on winter works program unfortunates and we can think of at least some which might be undertaken.

Lindsay Street North is still ridiculously narrow for the volume of traffic it carries and there is absolutely no adequate traffic provision for the street, in fact it is even though a major Lindsay industry lies at its northerly end. There is the matter of the decrepit and hazardous viaduct route at the western entrance to Colborne Street East. Even if another bridge is built across the Sciogog, this route to downtown Lindsay will continue to be used by a fair amount of traffic and it would seem practical to bring about certain improvements. On the south side of the Sciogog River, near the Board of Works depot, there is a string of dead trees which are an eyesore when the surrounding landscape is green. These trees could be cut and trimmed up just as well in winter as in summer. The "Rainbow Bridge" is known to be decrepit and in urgent need of repairs or replacement.

These last a few items picked at random which need attention and which could be done just as well in winter as in summer. —There are probably others, as winter is the time to get a great many things done. The couple of high windstorms we had in the fall, giving indication that a fairly extensive tree trimming and repair job would be to be done if the town's shade trees are to be adequately cared for.

Anything which provides employment and is economically practical is better than turning men out to the demoralization of unemployment.

Remember way back when

DECEMBER 16, 1913

New regulations issued by the Department of Education in 1913 are not so admitted to High Schools without passing an entrance examination. While this has been the practice for some time, the wording of the regulations is not clear to a great many teachers. The clause in the revised rules states that the certificate of the principal of a school shall state that the candidate is recommended for admission shall be accepted. It is recommended that the subject of the recommendation be the certificate of the principal of the school. This change is not intended to be a barrier to the admission of students who are admitted to High School without a principal's certificate they shall be required to take the examination as the Entrance Board directs.

Duty Collected

Extensive information regarding the Customs' treatment of Christmas parcels has recently appeared. For it is stated by the Department of Customs that no order has been given authorizing the free entry of Christmas parcels and that duty is to be collected as heretofore.

DECEMBER 16, 1958

A citizen of the village of Fenelon Falls stated that he had been talking to several merchants and some were quite upset over the number of burglaries in surrounding places. They felt that, while we have excellent guards in Chief Gordon, a special patrol should be added, so that all-night guard might be kept. The cost of this extra precaution would not be much. The revenue received from any merchants in the way of taxes and good citizenship would pay for the extra cost five times over. Their view is that a special meeting of the council and this important matter should be held. The same council should be called to discuss other municipal matters, particularly fire protection. "The Council" he remarked "spent some $4,000 under the head of Streets and Bridges—that is a large amount of money. From time to time the condition of the south end of Clifton St. is referred to. All that section of the village is deprived of fire protection.

"SSSHHHHHH!"

Reports and Remarks...

RIDICULOUS

An authentic description of the interior of a newly built and recently opened secondary school in Ontario includes the following:

Lavish use of brocade; ceramic tile inlaid in all of the coverings; door handles; a Japanese garden; colonial furniture in the room; drapes on all windows except conversation nooks for students in the hallway; unused book racks in the lab, etc., etc.

This particular school, apparently, untypical of many now being built in Canada, cost the federal and provincial governments (translation: the taxpayers) more than $240,000, or $2,900 per student exclusive of the cost of the site.

It is permissible to wonder (a) whether we can really afford to be quite so extravagant and (b) whether such showy surroundings are an adequate requirement these days to the pursuit of knowledge.

We would have to agree that students at such schools are certainly getting a first-class education in high living, but what of those and their teachers who have yet to be rescued from the many run-down and sub-standard schools which still exist?

No, we are all for our children getting their education in a decent, modern environment, but this is ridiculous.

—Industry.

TABLE SETTING HINTS

Diamond-shaped runner set off by contrasting colors of napkins down the length of a rectangular table. Grape pattern of plates and black-rayed figures border with grapes.

Big parties need many possibilities for color. Mixing of plastic, glass, and even pottery can be managed attractively down the length of the table. Choose different types of tableware so colors are not interplayed when used together.

Napkin held by doilies placed on the table. Accessory fruit bowl and goblet should echo colors in mat.

Brilliant colors in glassware add dash to your table. Use a color scheme of muted shades in china plates.

Dainty china pattern gives authority with bold background color of mat, repeated in napkins and floral nosegays.

IDEAS FOR CHRISTMAS TABLE DECORATIONS

Gumpire Tree

Use plastic foam cones as tree trunk. Cover cone with gumpire using white picks to listen. Set on a base of plastic foam or an inverted foil covered pie plate or bow. Ring with small candy canes.

Christmas Pie
Use a round cake tin covered in fancy paper of foil or a wicker basket spraypainted an appropriate colour. Fill with tiny brightly-wrapped gifts to express the spirit of Christmas for each person. The gifts can be inexpensive little trinkets.

A ribbon is attached to each gift and leads to each place-setting or, if all are in a circle it's a buffet. At some point in the evening everyone grabs his end of a ribbon and pulls. Upheaval. Excitement. Unraveling. And so on. It's loads of fun.

Gilded Gift
With spray-paint, one or two packages of plastic fruit (available at dime store) and a few nuts in the shell arrange on a glass or white china compound. Sprigs of holly can be tucked here and there to suggest holly leaves.

HOUSEHOLD SCAPEBOOK

Clogged Drainage
If your drains are badly clogged, they may need the "full treatment." For this, rent a full-sized plumber's snake and probe it all the way through. Simply poking down the drain with a stiff wire will not do the trick in judging the nearby pipes.

Shoelace Repair

Instead of the usual procedure of tying two ends of a broken shoelace together, take a little extra time to tap the shoelace ends over each other and sew together. A repair like this will last longer and look neater.

Islay-Zion WI December meet

The regular meeting of Islay-Zion W.I. was held at Islay school with ten members present. With Mrs. Gilbert presiding the Christmas program opened with the singing of the "Opening Ode" and all repeating The Mary Queen Carol and Lord's Prayer. The roll call - "A Childhood Christmas memory" was answered by all members. Mrs. Fred Webster, secretary, read the minutes of the November meeting. Correspondence consisted of thank you notes received from Mrs. Fred Webster. Robert Vessel for boxes of fruit received while they were in a Christmas party. News was received from Mrs. Hutton and a letter concerning the Heart Fund campaign to which Islay-Zion members offered to help and canvas for this. It was decided to take a special collection at the January meeting for the Muscular Dystrophy group. This was moved and carried.

Mrs. Elford gave a verbal thanks to all who had helped to quilt a quilt for her. It was decided to quilt more in the new year and many names were offered. Mrs. N. McKinnon then read a very heart warming Christmas paper that was written by Mrs. N. McKinnon.

The meeting closed with "The Queen" and table grace accompanied by Mrs. Vic Webster at the piano.

A delay lunch was served

Pandela U.C.W. held their Christmas meeting in the Sunday School room of the church. The president, Mrs. Ronald Vale opened the meeting with a lovely poem. "Christmas Eve" was read by Mrs. Hutton. Following the minutes, treasurer's report and the roll call, Mrs. Charles Hadden gave an interesting talk on the life and work of Miss Ada Sandilands in Korea since 1927, who went through wars and evil conditions but always returned to build again. She started the Nurses' Training School, financial help for which will come from our "Over and Above" gifts. Mrs. Ernest Sonley read a letter from the Project which also requires assistance from the "Over and Above" gifts.

Red poinsettias decorate school for H & S Christmas meeting

Cannington (PNS) — Red poinsettias and gaily decorated Christmas decorations decorated the school for the December meeting of the Cannington Home and School Association. There was a large attendance and Mrs. A. McPhail, the president was in charge.

Mrs. Bodley, Mrs. Theda Shier and a group of girls from the Trelawny House provided the program. Since Mrs. Jansen was unable to attend due to illness, Mrs. Shier very willingly took over and gave a sketch of Mrs. Jansen's life history and her work with the young people in various parts of Canada and the United States. Mrs. Bodley then led the girls in two old favorites, Grampfather's Clock and Camp-town Races. This was followed by a comedy monologue, a piano solo and a short play and ended with various carols.

During the short business session of the meeting, Mrs. McPhail and Mrs. Miller told of the Home and School Council meeting they attended in Lindsay. Any member at this time may attend these meetings and the members are urged to attend. In this way many ideas are exchanged and similar problems discussed with associations in this area which includes Robycongo, Cobocook, Pinesville, Falls, Lindsay, Omemee, Lillford and Cannington. The one dollar family membership fee was explained. Mr. Graham explained the system of awarding jobs to the students. There are fourteen different categories and any student who receives ten of these will receive the large school crest.

A motion was carried to fulfill the pledge to the Community Centre Board in the amount of $100.00 per year. There will be no meeting in January. The February meeting will be in the form of a spelling competition. The pennant award winners were Mrs. Sproule and Miss L. Nienkeville.

Mrs. McIntyre conveyed a delicious lunch which was served from a tastefully decorated Christmas table. The meeting adjourned.

15 members attend Norland WI meet

The December meeting of the Norland Women's Institute was held in the W. I. Hall with 15 members and one visitor present. The meeting was opened in the usual way, the scripture was read by Mrs. Woodcock. The roll call was an exchange of gifts.

A humorous reading was given by Mrs. Graham. The motto was "Keep the Christmas spirit throughout the year." The meeting closed with the singing of the Queen and Grace.

A very lovely pot luck lunch was served and enjoyed by all.

Fireman, industrial staffs complete first aid refresher

Permanent and voluntary members of the Lindsay Fire Department and members of industrial staffs, completed their St. John Ambulance first aid refresher course last week.

Under the direction of Raymond MacInally, chief instructor for the Bell Telephone company, the course was the briefest before them at night.

all time, especially since the incorporation of the ambulance service.

Dr. M.T. White was the examiner.

Instructor Ian Stewart said that about 20 members from various industries throughout the town (none coming from Bethany) had completed the course and would be examined by Mr. G. Schillomoe, St. John Ambulance representative to-night.

President Lyndon Johnson and his wife as they arrived at a dinner party given by President John F. Kennedy's sister in Washington in January, 1961.

Vinyl plastic type synthetic trees given fire chief's Christmas blessing

Omemee

Miss Marie Clifford, Vancouver visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Clifford and other relatives here. Many friends of Mr. Clifford will regret to learn that he is a patient in Peterboro hospital following a heart attack and wish him a speedy recovery.

Miss Doris McConnell who has been in New Orleans for some time arrived home to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McConnell.

Mr. Edgar Johnson has assumed arena and curtain rick duties as caretaker and both will be open for business soon.

Many friends of Mr. Charles Brooks will regret to learn that he is a patient in hospital and wish him a speedy recovery.

Little Britain

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Levin of Little Britain and also her sister, Mrs. Alvin Archer of Lindsay, returned to Hanover last week where they spent a day with one of their relatives, Mr. Angus Brohm who has been confined to the hospital there.

Mrs. Stewart Chidley, Mrs. Fay Casey and also Miss Madeline Dayton were in attendance at the annual festive Tea and Bazaar which was held under the auspices of the Church Women at the Queen Street United Church.

Friends of Mr. Alfred Yearley, father of Mrs. Lloyd La-ranque regret to hear that he is quite ill at the Ross Memorial Hospital in Lindsay where he has been confined for some time, but hope that his condition will soon show signs of improvement.

The Little Britain Memorial Area which is again under the capable management of Mr. William McTaggart is now open in full swing for another season and is at present a hive of activity. Skating is being enjoyed by quite a number of the young people as well as some of the older generation and hockey activities have also commenced.

The new vinyl plastic Christmas trees were treated with a moss tree which are gaining special solution and their popularity with the public is being received with enthusiasm by local officials interested in the problems of fire prevention.

Fire Chief Arnold Watson is one of those officials who heartily recommends the use of such trees, wherein decorative lights, can be used with greater safety.

"These plastic trees can be used with a maximum of safety," he said, "following the usual safety precautions, of course". The chief also said

"Care must be taken, however, as to open flame, such as the combined use of candles and paper decorations".

With the other type of tree on the market, an aluminum product, he advised indirect lighting where light would be brought in direct contact with the tree.

"This is advised," he said, "to avoid possible electrical short circuit which could transfer the current tree and present a physical hazard."

More about the Fenelon Falls sign directing traffic on highway 35.

was talking to Geo. Hickson, President of the Fenelon Falls Chamber of Commerce. They are aware of the situation and have written the Department of Highways, but so far no one has answered their letter. This will be taken up again at their next meeting.

Was quite interested in an article in the Toronto Press last week outlining the various types of car accidents — just causes. It was fairly well written but the writer failed to mention the main factor in accidents. The car manufacturers themselves who put out cars with too much horsepower to be handled safely. How often do you need the power in a 425 h.p. motor. Now our highways are equipped, legally or otherwise to handle the top speed of a hundred and plus, per hour these cars advertise. However, competition being what it is, larger and more powerful cars will be sold to the public, the majority of whom aren't skillful enough to handle them.

The producers of TV shows — or any film for that matter — don't seem to take into consideration the mentality of their audience or maybe they do?

Take a show I watched the other night — there was a woman afraid in a small member life raft for almost seven hours — no food, no water, no shelter from the biting sun. When they were finally rescued — the men showed no signs of a beard growing, they were as smooth looking as when they went into the water. The young woman hardly had a hair out of place — her white blouse, clean, neat and practically unblemished. Have you seen these bar room light scenes? The hero takes on everyone and his brother — he's struck man-handled, hit with bottles and chairs and when the fight is over and he emerges top dog and set to the leading lady "Shucks man, I want nothing" He ain't young — his hair is grey, he's got a white ruffled and he's not even bleeding. We must be of father-father stock because I remember one rugby game years ago with a bit of a rubur started against some from Peterborough — when it was over I had no shirt left and two days later you'd think I was wearing swim glasses, my peepers were so black, and I only met one content. They just don't make clothes like we see on the screen for the general public to wear. The idea is to be entertained and don't worry too much about the incidents.

Years ago when I was on a school board they seemed to have some weight. The school board had control over who they hired and fired — what was to be built and not to be built.

Things are different today — or at least look different, if — can believe the stories in the press. The Teacher's Federation seems to run everything — they dictate to the school boards who they can or cannot have or fire. The school board today walks very carefully — you better and heard that runs foul of the "Federation" they are really in trouble.

Speaking of schools — the old fashioned discipline is pretty well a matter of history. How can you discipline a student who has to catch a bus at 7:30. You certainly can't be deprived of anything — is a teacher dare to discipline a student he's liable to end up in a wringer when the parents lower the boom on him or her. This is where the parents are weakening our educational system. A teacher disciplines a student and right away the parents start writing the school board, the Teacher's Federation, the local press. The system is wrong — the teacher is wrong — everybody is wrong but the student. The average teacher sees a student and has him for discipline all most at long, if not longer than the parents.

There was a letter to the editor in a Toronto paper recently from an irate parent. His son had been suspended from school. Amongst other things, "their boy" shouldn't be suspended — "their boy" had done the right — the right to be taught. This is right — but there was no mention of what "the boy" had done to be suspended, granted student have the right to learn and be taught. But they also have to carry their share by conforming to discipline and regulations. Every time a parent interferes in any just discipline a teacher may deem necessary that parent is weakening the whole structure and the student soon learns and can turn into the world this false feeling that he is "above discipline and punishment" for whatever he may do.

With houses, streets and whole towns lighted with Christmas colours, this is without a doubt the most beautiful time of the year.

The feeling of good-fellowship and good cheer is every where — my only problem — why can't it be kept after this Christmas season has passed?

Each year our community spirit and good-will is wheeled out with our Christmas decorations. When decorations are returned for another year (something, even before these feelings are often wrapped up and put away too. It's too bad the community would not hold to pin a lot if we could hold up this way for a whole year.

That's it for now — see you again this Friday.

New 70-car parking lot in operation

Lindsay's newest parking lot is now in operation. Located behind Kent St. stores between York and Lindsay streets, meters are currently being installed on the lot which has three access routes—off York, Russell and Lindsay streets. The pictures above give a general deal of the lot's location and layout. On the left, two access routes off Russell Street are seen in the background, one via either side of the M. Georges home. Centre, Police Chief John Hunter oversees lot meter installations and on the right the chief points to the Lindsay St. south entrance through the steel Service Station lot.

Noticed along the way

The day's news often contains some interesting little tidbits which don't always appear on the surface.

For example, A few days ago it was noted that "Ray was high in her hair." Well, she was.

Then there was the story about the prominent citizen who was speaking on the subject of greater control of dogs and the need for a more stringent dog control law. The reporter noted that the speaker made the comment after thinking the guest speaker.

On the subject of dogs a report from Oxford, England, indicates that there is a war around the problem. The dogs of Oxford, who have an inviolable dog rule, have made a special exception for Dean Dan, a badly cracked up dog owned by Raven's golden retriever, "Steve". They have decided that "Steve" should be looked upon as a cat in the dog's clothing.

People can always be counted upon to be the unusual — not just locally but all over the world. Here's a few samples of the amusing antics of the human family.

has won a divorce from his wife because she was trapped under the dahlia in his garden.

Also in London, when three robbers invaded her candy store, Mrs. Patricia Connolly drove them off empty-handed by hurling candy jars at them.

In Southampton, England, after two hours of useless pleading, Mrs. Stanley Donnell called firemen to break open the apartment door and find which her son Stanley had locked himself and his crying baby brother.

A fireman said there was "Baby powder everywhere. It seems that Stanley powdered the baby to try to keep him quiet."

A letter writer to the London Daily Mirror today complains that when he protested in a restaurant that the wife he was serving in a badly cracked up dog owned by Raven's golden retriever, "Steve". They have decided that "Steve" should be looked upon as a cat in the dog's clothing.

And everyone lived happily ever after. At least it's possible they did unless the wife who got her divorce over the dahlia incident regretted her action and unless the dahlia dog wanted being strangled instead of petted and took the seat out of one of the duns pants.

Students sell over $2,000 worth of subscriptions

Students of Haliburton High School sold over $2,000 worth of magazine subscriptions from November 29th to December 1st, for making the most sales in the students with the best one day Carolyn Stuart of 108 sales received prizes. The sales were presented by the Students Council plans to do several drives.

On December 15th a banquet will be held at the Haliburton High School in honour of Grade 13 students. Anne Schell of 11A won one of all students who obtained transfer cards for making the first-class honours last year. Most sales, she sold $92.45. Following the dinner the high school for subscriptions. Pat school will hold its annual Lady of 11A won a large dog Christmas dance.

STOP!... killing yourself

By Peter J. Steinhorn, MD, F.A.C.P.

CAFFEINE IN COLA DRINKS?
SURE, AND IN TEA TOO.
Near Dr. Steinhorn is a strong tea with impunity. It's true that there is caffeine in cola drinks. Does the government allow such stimulants? How does it compare with the amount of caffeine in sleep affected? Mr. P.

Comment: There is caffeine in cola drinks. In fact, the Federal Food and Drug Administration permits its use in cola drinks up to about one grain per 12-ounce bottle.

But the amount of caffeine in a five-ounce cup of coffee is much higher: anywhere from one and a half to two grains, more depending upon how you like your coffee.

Step: I have known people who take two to three cups of coffee before bedtime and sleep like babies. But they were the most accustomed to having a half dozen or more cups of coffee during the day. Others, who are not steady coffee drinkers will lose and turn out of bed in the early morning.

What I can't understand...

however, is why so many who are kept awake by coffee drink strong tea with impunity. It doesn't interfere with their sleep. Yet a strong cup of tea contains practically as much caffeine as coffee.

Maybe it's psychological. I tried to figure it out in my own case. One cup of coffee will keep me up, but two cups of tea will put me to sleep, relaxed and free from insomnia. Perhaps it's due to the fact that I prefer tea to coffee and am used to tea.

HOW MUCH SLEEP ENOUGH?

Dear Dr. Steinhorn: Can a person tell whether or not he has had enough sleep? How do I know I am a six-hour-sleeper type rather than an eight? Mrs. G.

Comment: How you feel the next day is usually the best index. Do you get up tired or refreshed? Is getting out of bed a bit of will power or do you jump out of bed as if you have been released from some sort of captivity? How do you feel in the afternoon? Dr. Steinhorn: I don't know one of us must make our own evaluation. No doctor can do it for you. But it's important to know in which category you belong.

If you really need eight to nine hours a night and have been getting only six hours of sleep, then the lack of sleep is bound to catch up with you. Either in your work efficiency or in your capacity to enjoy life.

On the other hand, if you really need only six hours of sleep at night and stay in bed for nine hours because you've heard it's good for you, then you may just be wasting three hours in every 24 as surely as if you were scattering $10 bills into the wind. Time is more important than money.

Many people go through life tired, not knowing what ails them. Their only trouble may be lack of sleep. Look into it. Review your habits, and you may easily recapture what appears to be vitality which was forever lost.

AFRAID TO ASK DOCTOR?

Dear Dr. Steinhorn: I don't have the nerve to ask my doctor for any questions, he is so busy I sent me into the hospital to have a three-hour glucose tolerance test. He said I do, not stay away from sweets or I'll run into a lot of trouble. Can you explain? Mrs. H.

Comment: I can't tell you whether or not you have diabetes, but I understand how so many persons write me saying they haven't the nerve to ask their doctor. You pay for his time and advice, why hesitate to ask? How do you act when buying a pair of shoes? Scared? Of course not. Then be courageous when buying the commonly called diabetes.

STOP!... killing yourself

ANOTHER OFFICE CHAT EFFECTS OF MENOPAUSE

A housewife of 46 who has not menstruated in two years (a fair estimate is that 75 to 80 who is comfortable and without any symptoms whatever, it is nevertheless concerned that she may have some trouble during her menopause.

Q But I've heard that the change of life lasts as long as 10 years or more. What guarantee have I got that I won't have hot flashes and night sweats and all the rest of the awful symptoms before long?

A That's the trouble; being influenced by what you've heard. The trouble is that too many women like to scare others, and too many of the others are too willing to listen and believe. That is why the fear of the menopause is all out of proportion to the amount of distress it causes.

Q Isn't it true that some women do suffer in the change of life?

A Yes, but only about 20 per cent. And of this number are only another small percentage really feel bad with depression, sweats, flashes, and insomnia and worryfulness. A fair estimate is that 75 to 80 per cent go through the change without any distress. And of those, the discomforts (not distress) may only be due to an occasional hot flash or sweat.

MELANCHOLIA?

Q Isn't it a fact that some women get a severe mental derangement called involuntional melancholia?

A True. But very, very few. And with these exceptions they recover when treated with special tranquilizers and electroshock therapy.

Q I'm glad. Be thankful that you have no symptoms now. You've been through two years of it. Chances are only another small percentage will have to go through the change. I believe that if a doctor refuses to give such help and says, "I prefer that you fight it out yourself, I don't believe in giving hormones," that the patient has a right to seek consultation or change doctors.

Q I feel like a new person. I've been silly to be borrowing trouble.

A Spread the good word.

POODLE OR WIFE?

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: I am a recent bride. We have my mother-in-law living with us. She and my husband insist on giving our pedigreed poodle to eat off of. They say the dog is clean and there adjustments without realising it is an adjustment. And, remember, if you ever did get a dog, it was a dog, not a poodle, and any other symptoms (which, as I said, you are not likely to have) hormones that will help. Fewer and fewer doctors now hold out such help for their patients on the mistaken belief that they may be harmful.

I'm not a dog-hater, but I'm pregnant and don't want anything to happen that may hurt my baby.

Would you believe it: my mother-in-law and the dog eat off the same ice cream stick alternately. This turns my stomach.—Mrs. X.

Comment: Your husband will have to choose between his mother, the dog, you and the baby. Seeing your point of view and feeding the dog eat off the same ice cream stick alternately. This turns my stomach.—Mrs. X.

Yule Festivities Reflected in Hydro's "Magic Mirror"

Round-the-clock Yuletide festivities of some six million people as related to the use of electricity in southern and northeastern Ontario are reflected as if in a "magic mirror" in the room shown in this picture.

Located in Ontario Hydro's Bellevue basement station on Highway No. 27, northeast of Metropolitan Toronto, this room is virtually a new nerve center in the Commission's East System power network. In this world of electronics, meters and switches, ever-vigilant supervisors, working in shifts, maintain a fully adequate supply of power to meet all demands at any hour of the day or night.

One of the meters under close observation mirrors a continuous record of the demand for 60-cycle power. As this record unfolds in graphic form, those experienced supervisors can readily interpret many of the essential roles electricity is playing in life, living and the pursuit of happiness at Christmas as compared with a normal working day. By "reading between the lines" on the graph, they can tell when mummy and daddy are up late Christmas Eve to give Santa an assist. They know when kiddies are playing with their toys and the folk are having late breakfast Christmas morning. Likewise, they can follow mother's progress as she prepares the turkey and all the trimmings. Among other things, they know when the folks are having an afternoon nap and when they finish up late at night.

Engineer, and Roy Tal, System
Supervisor, review the story of "Christmas Past" as it was recorded in terms of kilowatt-hours on the graph for December 25, 1962. INSET: Irene Jones (left) and Carol
of graph from one of the many meters in the control room.

Die day apart sisters buried at Omemece

Joint funeral services were held Monday December 18 for Miss and two Omemece sisters who died one day apart in Toronto without the other's knowledge.

Miss Sophia McQuade, 90, a former nurse died Saturday after a long illness unaware that her sister Amy Olivia McQuade, 47, who had also been ill for some time, had died the day before.

The sisters are survived by a brother, Charles of Barrie, and four sisters and another brother predeceased them.

bord where 579 people were grateful for the hard work of the organizing committee and the many people who helped them.

The main part of the program was the film "My Son" which examined the personal relationships in a farming family.
Although the film was made in the early 1930's, the family situation seemed to be much the same.

Before the film was shown,
"Granny's Bible Cake" was made with ingredients brought to the meeting by club members and it was served fresh from the oven for lunch.

Christmastime

The Christmas Season is a glorious time when everyone finds happiness in unselfish giving. We need warm socks, mittens, hats, scarves, sweaters, and below, rather than in the happiness which is bestowed upon us.

Warmth and good feeling spread across the north. The spirit of Good Will, kindness and friendship prevails. It's a time to say "Merry Christmas and Happy
New Year." May the joys of this happy Season stay in the fullest measure.

"Christmas Cookies" recall the regions of Germany

Perhaps most of the cakes, biscuits and cookies that are being baked for the Christmas table in many parts of the world originated in Germany. To trace the genealogy of these Christmas pastries is to survey Germany from many to west, north to south.

Ironically, some of the best-known of the German Weihnachtskuchen that are popular abroad stem from regions of Germany that today are under foreign occupation. Not so the famed Prussian of Ansbach, which is located near Germany's peaceful and unguarded border with Belgium.

But the marchpane or Marzipan that comes from Lebeck (Federal Republic of Germany) is separated by the Iron Curtain from the Marzipan of Königsberg, for Königsberg since 1945 has been within the borders of the Soviet Union, had although Stollen—a loaf-shaped cake—is popular at Christmas and New Year's throughout both the free part of Germany and much of the world, the people of the West where Stollen supposedly originated—Dresden—are not free to spend the holidays with relatives in West Berlin or in the western part of Germany. For Dresden is in Germany's Soviet-occupied zone.

The chewy Lebkuchen, aromatic with citron and spices, came originally from Nuremberg, which is in the Federal Republic. Speculation usually stamps it the shape of a windmill—seems to have originated in the flatlands of the lower Rhine.

But the Christmas pastry called the Ligenzter Bombe

King Albert Christmas songsters

A capacity audience of mothers at King Albert Public School heard "The Message of the Bells" pealed out by Susan Cook, Debbie Norris and Marilyn Hutchinson (above) during the school Festival of Christmas Carols. The auditorium was decorated by the co-operative effort of all pupils and teachers in the school convened by Mrs. L. Taylor. The program continued with a delightful assortment of action songs, choral verse, acrobatics and community carol singing. Grade 5 and 6 pupils presented a charming and well-rehearsed playlet "A Surprise for Santa". Principal W. J. Stanley Brown introduced the program and the chairman of the day Rev. David Lemon of St. Paul's Anglican Church.

—a "bomb" because the gingerbread—the exterior contains a stuffing of raisins and candied citron—is also, as its name indicates, a victim of the Iron Curtain that divides Europe. Not so much a victim, perhaps, as a refugee, for the famous cookie has moved from the Polish occupied city of Lignitz to the glogina, where it is being baked according to the original recipe.

Frankincense and myrrh were precious gifts too

"And when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto Him gifts; gold and frankincense, and myrrh."

Thus St. Matthew described the first Christmas gifts of all, brought to the Christ Child by "wise men from the East". Each of the gifts was rare and, especially in Biblical times, truly a treasure.

Among the gifts, the value and beauty of gold is most readily apparent to modern readers. Then, however, its worth was even greater, for it was still more rare and precious than it is today.

Anne Jakins

Widely known, highly respected resident of town The passing of Mrs. Anne Jakins of Kent St. W. came as a surprise and shock to many friends, a number of whom were not aware she had been confined to the Ross Memorial Hospital for several weeks.

The late Mrs. Jakins was the former Anne Anderson, a daughter of the late Jas. W. and Mrs. Anderson, her father having been C. P. R. agent in Lindsay for many years.

A kindly disposition and industrious nature, Mrs. Jakins was a lover of gardening and horticulture as evidenced by her beautiful summer home at Long Beach and her attractive garden at her Lindsay residence.

A deacon — Kenneth — as well as a sister, Mary and a brother, William (the latter being a resident of Port Hope) survive her. The late Mrs. Dave (Olive) Eldred, of Lindsay, was a sister. Her husband also predeceased her.

DECORATIVE LIGHTS AND TRAFFIC SIGNALS
Decorative lights and traffic signals are in conflict at this season of the year and it is a very easy matter for a driver to slip through a traffic signal under the glare of myriad fixtures. This is due in part to the fact that many decorative lights blend with the colours of the traffic signals but the problem is aggravated by the fact that traffic signals are placed at what are now strategic points—at the edge of the thoroughfare. This aggravation is more noticeable in downtown areas where the signals are also in conflict with new tower installations in the form of neon signs.

Many communities have adopted the center-of-the-road system of traffic signal installation which placed at a level commensurate with the driver's view seems to lend itself to greater visibility. This is a fact of traffic safety which will have to come under closer study as the number of detaching light fixtures tends to obscure the stand-out qualities of the present signal system. In order to ensure maximum effectiveness, it may even be necessary to come up with a more compelling type of light bulb or fixture, one of which will really stand out above the crowd.

MID-WEEK CHRISTMAS CHAOS
Celebration of Christmas in mid-week is about the most certain way which has been devised so far to cause complete chaos in the Christian world of today. It creates a disruption of business, throws an enormous short-term load on travel facilities, places a terrible strain on housewives who also work and are expected to prepare a Christmas family dinner without preparation time, causes resentment and hard feelings in some areas where certain plants close down for Boxing Day and others stay open, and generally "upsets the applecart".

A question which has never been satisfactorily answered yet is "Why wouldn't it be simpler to have Christmas on the Sunday nearest the prescribed day and have Boxing Day declared a statutory holiday on the Monday?" This way everyone would have a so-called "long weekend" and the degree of confusion would be considerably lessened.

Does anyone seriously believe that the One whose birthday is observed would feel any slight if the occasion were celebrated at a time more consistent with the well being of the human family? Would he find and fault with the application of common sense to the observance of the festive season?

Remember way back when

Lindsay stores compare most favorably at any time with the best in the larger centres, but at this glad time they are particularly attractive and inviting and for excellence of stock and for superb decorative effects they are not surpassed in any city. A visit to our local stores at this season is a revelation and a delight to the eye. Holy and minuscule are being in every conceivable design which make Christmas goods, for which our merchants are justly famed, are displayed in such a manner as to make the interior a veritable fairyland or lower of beauty.

Post Office Hours
On Christmas the lobby will be open for box holders from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. The general delivery will be opened just as soon as the 10:45 mail is sorted. Mails received and despatched at the usual hour.

Annual Hospital Staff
The Annual Ball at aid of the Hospital will be given on New Year's Eve in the Town Hall. Good music, dainty lunch. Tickets $1.00. Help a worthy cause by purchasing tickets.

DECEMBER 23, 1938
Starting the first Wednesday afternoon in the New Year all grocery stores in Lindsay will close their doors unless a holiday occurs in the same week. This and regulations on closing, were the regulations embodied in a bylaw passed at a special meeting of the council. The meeting was called solely for the purpose of dealing with the petition presented by more than three-quarters of the grocers of Lindsay asking that the above be included in a town bylaw. Stores will close not later seven o'clock in the evening except before Sundays and holidays and the week preceding Christmas.

Lights More Brilliant
Fenelon Falls-The new $11,000.00 power plant installed in Fenelon Falls was tried out on December 19th, the date on which the Cataract town returned to its own power, and all is reported as running satisfactorily. A distinct difference is noted in the current power and the brilliance of lights, including the main thoroughfare, during this week with a multitude of colored lights.

BRIGHT Christmas Wishes

We wish for you the blessings of Christmas.
May the radiance of the Star of Bethlehem light your way to peace and contentment in the coming year.

FOR MADAMEN
The real heroes in Canada today are those Europeans who are studying hard to improve their English.
No greater nightmare, of course, could be wished upon a human being, and the rest of us — childhood veterans all of the long school war to Make Some Kind of Sense Out of it — cannot do less than offer such help as we are capable of.
But the complexities are as baffling intricate — and infinite — as they ever were. In the words of one contributor of a New York newspaper "English is for madmen," a sentiment which moved another correspondent, one Arthur Sherrell, to deliver himself of the following masterpiece:

I'd like to live my whole life through
And have my troubles be but fough.
I'd like to live a life of dough
And never have to lift a fough.
I'd like to sit beneath a fough
And be at large as a fough.
But rough and tough, I've had enough!
I'd like to write more simple stuff
I've got a cough, I've got a cough,
I'd better take a few days fough.
Though, fough, dough, tough, cough, ought to rhyme.
Perhaps they will some other rhyme!
After which, we can only venture plaintively: In there anyone left who doesn't think Shaw had the right idea? —Industry.

THE HOME NECK

Fashion's been in women's "relaxed" look in women's clothing. Could be that the home neck is to be affected.

In this age of festivity, one New York interior designer holds that every house should have one "relaxed" room: one where no color or one piece of furniture figuratively shouts for attention.

Stanford Squire, the designer, says that the home neck is much color that sometimes it dominates decorating schemes until "people are the background."

All For Color

It's all for color—in room settings, restaurants, offices and other design schemes, he creates. Bright, dark, poster colors are his tools because, as he explained, he is selling a product.

But in his own Manhattan apartment, beige and brown neutralize a "rest" room.

From the bright shades with which he works at home, he takes a lot of color, but not for himself," said Squire, a Californian who has had his own New York design firm for six years.

The designer said in an interview that he is not interested in color that could be either living or dining room. The best way to achieve it: use of monochromatic color.

schemes either in pastels or in the beige or grey neutrals. Life Lift

The National Fabric Association hired him to "face lift" the grand stand and clubhouse of the Stratford track for its centennial this year. He did interiors for two restaurants in New York's Agonyville, and now has been commissioned to design trappings for clubhouse and grandstand.

Squire's design approach is simple: "Don't use a fabric that is a piece of furniture or any other element of design which is the newest. Use it because it is tasteful, colorful, functional and lively."

On Display

Currently one of his projects is on display at New York's National design center.

It is a series of room vignettes as settings for Hudson Paper Products' introduction of new line and new package design.

Because of limited space, the designer had to use the same techniques to make the vignettes seem larger. Any homemaker can use the same techniques to give spacious look to small rooms, he said.

Some Ways

He listed some ways through color: Again, the monochromatic or variations of one color throughout a room. Preferably, he said, a light color. But the living room of his apartment has one windowless wall in a dark brown so that at night with lights and candlelight the dark wall seems to "move off into the night" giving a feeling of unlimited space.

Sources of some carols are lost in the past

From the first angelic choir "Glory to God in the Highest," the sound of voices raised in song and jubilation for the birth of Christ awakes across the ages. Today, carols from the past are being rediscovered and many are being put into the air at holiday time.

Sources of some carols are lost in the past, but many are being rediscovered and many are being put into the air at holiday time. Sources of some carols are lost in the past, but many are being rediscovered and many are being put into the air at holiday time.

Star fascinates mankind, source still sought

Since St. Matthew first described the star of Bethlehem, its mystery has fascinated mankind. Was it a miracle? Or was it a brighter-than-usual star or other celestial object?

Astronomers, while seeking to identify the star, emphasize that it may have been indeed a miracle that can't be explained in terms of natural phenomena. However, research has provided material for conjecture that the star may have been a natural occurrence.

One Discovery

A Danish astronomer, Tycho Bihare, discovered a new and brilliant star in the constellation Cassiopeia in 1572, according to the Encyclopedia Americana.

Since that discovery, the Americans say, it has been suggested that this might be an especially brilliant star visible only at long intervals.

A reported appearance of a bright star in that part of the heavens about the middle of the 13th century, coupled with a vague account of a similar appearance a little more than 30 years earlier, led to the thought that these might possibly be former appearances of the star of 1572.

If, as this might indicate, the star appeared at intervals of 310 and 315 years, three intervals of 300 odd years from the time it was first reported carry it back to about the time of the birth of Christ.

Another Theory

Johannes Kepler, a German astronomer, made discoveries that led to still another theory about the star of Bethlehem. In 1604, he observed a configuration, or close grouping, of the planets Jupiter, Saturn and Mars. He determined that such a configuration occurred each 805 years, and calculations established that the same grouping might have appeared in 6 B.C. — which, some research indicates, may have been the correct year of Christ's birth. Since legends identify the wise men as astrologers, this theory, as reported in the New Testament, only the wise men saw the star.

Mistletoe berries number kisses

Mistletoe figures in many legends from pre-Christian times. Druid tree-worshippers believed it had magical powers of healing. Romans thought that enemies who met beneath the mistletoe must kiss and declare a day's truce.

Today, kissing beneath the mistletoe remains a happy holiday custom. Correct procedure is that a berry must be removed for every kiss taken and when all the berries are gone, there are no more kisses available.

Thought for today

According to the gospel of St. Matthew: "Love your enemies, bless them that curse you."

Seafaring legends connect Christmas and ships

Ships arrive on Christmas morning, carrying Jesus Mary and Joseph, says the English carol, "I Saw Three Ships Come Sailing". This is one of many legends developed by seafaring peoples to connect Christmas and ships.

Stories of the first St. Nicholas were carried from Asia Minor to Northern Europe by sailors and children in Holland long believed that St. Nicholas arrived by ship from Spain. In Greece, St. Basilio comes on January 1 to deliver gifts, and he too is transported by ship.

The world's worth saving, Haliburton students told

"The world is worth saving and the urgent question is what the individual can do to advance human society, in the face of indifference and confusion," said Professor Payant, speaking at Haliburton High School honour students banquet on Friday.

Professor Payant's positive service was that everyone, by whatever means required, should strive in a specialty and that everyone become an expert technician in at least one specific field.

"Let us not be too late to add to our own's knowledge, for no information is ever wasted," said the professor, "the final decision as to the field of specialization should be delayed until, after inquiry, the individual is satisfied that his preference is in fact the right one. But," elaborated Dr. Payant, "specialize".

At the banquet, sponsored by the staff scholarship committee, honour pins were presented to 62 students whose marks averaged 75% or above the last academic year. Robert Hearnley, technical director and chairman of the scholarship committee presided. The high school board: Archie Stouffer, J. D. Hodgson, principal; the high school staff, two former teachers, Mrs. Murray Kinn and Curry Bishop were also present to honour the honour students.

The banquet, first of its kind in Haliburton, began at 7:30 p.m. when the school treasurer, the Hon. Stouffer, former school inspector and retiring secretary-treasurer of the High School Board, Mr. Stouffer was presented with a pair of binoculars by G. H. Thayer in token of the appreciation of the high school staff for Mr. Stouffer's "many acts of kindness" to the school, in and out of school, collectively during the six years of his secretaryship.

Honour pins were presented by Miss Joyce Williams and Clarence McCreary of the staff. Gloria Harrison, Grade 13, in the name of the recipients, aptly thanked the Scholarship Committee for the pins.

Honour pins were awarded the following students: in order in which they stood in their grades in 1967-68: Grade 9—Patrick Deacon, Douglas Stuart, Linda Matheson, J. Anna McKay, Betty Ger-

Named Christmas in jail

Christmas Day will be bleak one for an 18-year-old Toronto youth who was sentenced to three months in jail in Lindsay today for taking a car without the owner's consent. The youth, Ernest D. Leith, got an additional three months for breaking probation. His companion—17-year-old L. K. Gordon of Bobovagon was given a suspended sentence for his part in the episode.

Magistrate V. W. Guest in Lindsay court today accused Leith of "treating his problem as a big joke."

"You apparently don't appreciate what they are trying to do for you at the House of Correction," he said, after the probation officer offered Leith of taking and running away from the home.

Stocking Fund within $80 of its objective, day to go

With very little time left remaining, the Santa Claus Stocking Fund is running a little behind. A further $80 is needed to bring the fund up to the required sum to ensure Christmas joy for the underprivileged and unfortunate in our midst.

The 18-year-old fund established by T. H. Stinson, Q.C., is designed to assist people in need at the festive season. The fun is voluntary and no paid help is employed. All contributions are used to help the cause.

Your help to reach and extend the target of $1,200 is asked. The money left over are used during the year to help people in trouble. Often the fund has been able to help before regular relief agencies have been able to assist.

Excellent work on the part of the Lindsay police department and a word of praise to an alert citizen were voiced by Magistrate V. W. Guest in court today, but a scolding tongue lashing was handed out to a Peterboro man for "calously disregarding other people's property."

Gerrard Gooley was fined $300 and costs, with a mandatory suspension of his licence for three months, after being found guilty of failing to remain after an accident.

Police Const. J. Henley told the court that he had received a call December 9 of a accident on Russell St. from a resident of the street who told him they had seen a car leave the scene of an accident in front of their home.

On further investigation the officer found a parked car damaged to the extent of $200 and on examination found parts of a rear light lens and some chrome stripping.

The police department, within a radius of 100 miles and all garages were alerted on the description of the car given by the neighbor.

It wasn't until the 11th, continued the officer, that he received a call from Peterboro police, reporting a car parked with a broken light and an answering the description of the wanted vehicle.

Consensually, said the officer, Gooley was brought in and questioned and admitted he was the party who damaged the car on Russell St.

"If it had not been for good work on the part of the police, and an alert citizen, who was able to alert," said the magistrate.

ENDS SEARCH

The Royal Canadian Air Force ended a three-day search today for survivors of the sunken French freighter Douala and said there were 17 survivors and 12 fatalities. Four bodies were recovered. Eight seamen are missing and presumed dead. One of the victims was Captain Michel Labbe. He was picked up but died en route to hospital.

WILL APPEAR TODAY

A 17-year-old Ottawa youth will appear in Ottawa today on a murder charge for the shooting of three persons in an Ottawa church rectory yesterday. A fourth person killed himself. The accused is Reginald Bissette who is scheduled to be arraigned today. His brother, 21-year-old Roger Bissette shot himself when a holiday attempt in the rectory failed. An ironic twist to the shootings was that Justice Minister Louis St. Laurent was among some 350 parishioners in the church when the killings occurred. Although he was not at the actual scene, the shots were audible in the church. The Justice Minister did not learn of the incident until the service had ended.

NEW FIGHTING

New fighting has broken out between Greeks and Turks on Cyprus. Rifle fire rained through the air-raid capital city of Nicosia this morning as buses and cars carried Cyprus to work. Another exchange was reported in a suburb. In the center of the capital police said they battled with Turkish Cypriots firing weapons from their homes. The struggle stems from Turkish fears that proposed revision of the constitution will abolish their rights and privileges.

SIGNS OF ABATING

The bitter weather that has plagued Canada this past week shows some signs of abating in many parts. British Columbia—parts of which were being battered throughout the cold may—may get even warmer, though rainy, today. At the other end of the Dominion, the mercury continues to remain low as the remains of the bitter storm which has claimed many lives in the maritimes, continues to hamper the Atlantic Coast. Generally, however, there will be a warming trend from the Rockies to Quebec with Edmontan—which recorded near zero temperatures last week—expected to be about 50 degrees above today.

(United Press International) Jean Beliveau is playing like a super star again and its no wonder the Montreal Canadiens look like National Hockey League pennant threats again.

The 6-foot, 210-lb. 20-year-old Beliveau, who had something of an "off" year in 1952-53, scored a goal and two assists Sunday night to lead the Canadiens to their seventh victory in the maritimes, a 6-1 rout of the Detroit Red Wings.

Beliveau's three points raised his season total to 45—more than have been accumulated by Chicago Black Hawks stars Bobby Hull and Stan Mikita. The Canadiens' lead has carried them to within four of the first-place Hawks who downed the Boston Bruins 4-1 Sunday night.

Hull who scored his 20th goal of the season and had an assist and Mikita had two assists for the Hawks, who had beaten the Bruins in only two of their previous six meetings this season.

Bob Nevin's third-period goal earned the Toronto Maple Leafs a 1-1 tie with the New York Rangers in the other game. Both General Manager Muzz Patrick and coach Red Sullivan of the Rangers "invaded" the officials dressing room after the game and protested against various officials.

"I thought the officiating on the line was atrocious," commented Patrick.

Christmas Seals

Inspiration for the first Christmas seals came to Bin at Hobbsville, a Danish postman, clerk as he was sorting packages one Christmas season. He envisioned all the package bearing a special stamp to aid people who suffered from tuberculosis.

The King and many of Denmark's leading citizens endorsed the idea in 1940. Later the plan spread to Norway and Sweden, and in 1967 was adopted in the U.S. More than 60 countries now use the seal.

BERRIES BRIGGIES
The bright red berries of the Berrigies native to California, are widely used as decorations. This shrub, with its thick, dark leaves can grow to a height of 15 feet. The Berrigies Americana says. Its flowers are white. Its berries yellow or bright red. The Berrigies is often known as the loquas.

LIONS CONTINUE TO STALK TIGERS, CLOSE IN AGAIN, NARROW LEAD

Lindsay Lions continue to stalk the Aurora Tigers and closed the gap to one point again Friday night when they defeated the Lethbridge Chicks 8-4 at Lethbridge. As was the case in the home opener last Tuesday night, the Lions led the Chicks speedily in the first half of the game then took over. The Chicks led 1-0 at the end of the first period and went ahead three to one early in the second. The second period ended on a 4-4 tie. Lindsay then scored four unanswered goals in the final stanza with three-quarters of the play in the Lethbridge end. The Chicks' downfall was partly due to lack of numbers, starting the game with ten men down. They also tried to bump the Lions and were themselves out in doing.

Eight Lindsay players shared the eight goals with Bobby Taylor and Wayne McLeish each helping on two. Besides Taylor and McLeish, Ray McCabe, Gary Laywood, George Babcock, Rick Purdy, Craig Gathrore and Bill Horton had a goal each. George Babcock, Rick Purdy, Ron Pillworth, and Eric Bain each assisted once. Sixteen minor penalties all told were handed out by referee Bus Sadler in a choppy game as the frozen puck was bouncing all over the place making passing patterns difficult. Doug St. John was the mainstay for the Chicks firing two goals and assisting on one. Their other markers went to Robbie Ratnay and Keith James. Doug St. John opened the scoring at 1:27 of the first period assisted by Bill Payne. Craig Gathrore from Wayne

(United Press International) The Czechoslovakian National Hockey Club outplayed the Canadian Olympic squad, 3-1 before a sell-out crowd of five thousand and 80 at Vancouver Sunday.

If the Canadian team hopes to make an impressive showing in the 1964 winter olympics at Innsbruck, Austria, they will have to play far better than they did yesterday.

The Czech squad was back at full strength after resting five players during their 4-1 loss to the Western International Hockey League All-Stars at Trail, British Columbia, Friday night.

The outthrust, outchecked and outplayed the Canadian team in every department. Particularly noticeable was their hustle in beating the Can-

Alouettes sign passing wizard

(United Press International) The Montreal Alouettes of the Eastern Football Conference have signed college passer wizard George Bork.

The Alouettes, with deep quarterback troubles ever since they traded off Sam Richevsky, also signed one of Bork's playing partners, six-foot and eight Hohnschieider.

Bork and Hohnschieider have played for Northern Illinois College combining to break half passing records in their conference.

Bork is a short and slender youngster — real fragile looking. He didn't get a single firm offer from the National or American Football League.

Bork quarterbacked the North-south football clash at Miami Saturday.

Bork completed 10 passes for 85 yards, and he was "real disappointed" with his passing game.

He says he will make a better showing with the Alouettes, adding, "It was just a little off — everyone has a day like that sometimes."

"Who sent first Christmas card?" answer may never be found

"Who sent the first Christmas card?" is a question for which, it seems likely, a satisfactory answer may never be found. Probably, the earliest cards were "do-it-yourself" projects — hand-drawn, then holiday greetings on hand-decorated notepaper.

Popular claimant for "first Christmas card" however, was the Cole-Horsley card, designed in Britain in 1843 by John Calvert Horsley and sent, first, for Sir Henry Cole, director of the Victoria and Albert Museum.

Since the card showed a family group, toasting the holiday with glasses of wine, the card supposedly stirred criticism by temperance advocates — even though the cards also depicted "clothing the needy" and "feeding the hungry." However, another story has it that Sir Henry gained his knighthood as the result of the acclamations received for the card.

Customs at Christmas

customs grow more similar*

As the world grows smaller, Christmas observances in different countries grow more similar. Santa Claus in red suit and white beard drives his reindeer-drawn sleigh to North, Central and South America and to many other countries as well.

In fact, when the first explorer lands on Mars, he should be surprised to discover that Santa and even Rudolph, too, are there. Sharing of Christmas customs, however, only serves to point up the fact that this is a holiday for everyone, and a holiday that draws ideas from all lands and times, uniting them in both religious and secular observances of the season.

In Mexico
Celebrating the posada is a Mexican custom focussed on the Nativity.

"Posada" means "lodging" or "inn," and for the nine "posadas" days from December 16 to 25, churches, hotels, social groups and families throughout Mexico act out the story of the Nativity. A procession of pilgrims comes to the place where the celebration is scheduled. They carry Mary and Joseph, and they seek shelter from the "inn-keepers" within.

At first the innkeepers refuse, then they admit the pilgrims to feast and rejoice. Figures representing Mary and Joseph are placed in replica of the manger. On Christmas Eve, the figure representing Jesus is added in Holland.

Gifting season in Holland traditionally begins on December 5 and is called "Stroo-avond" or "drievling night." Children place their shoes by the fireplace, filled with carrots and hay for St. Nicholas' horse — in the expectation that on the morrow the shoes will contain fruit and toys.

In Scotland
Christmas feast favorite in Scotland include shortbread, a rich cake or cookies and haggis, a kind of pudding. New Year's Eve, or Hogmanay is the principal day for gifts and greetings when children go singing from house to house. It hopes of a treat New Year's visits are paid — and it's customary for the visitor to bring along a pocketful of coal.

In Portugal
Christmas is the occasion for a family celebration at home, among the Portuguese. Families gather on Christmas Eve for dinner at the home of the oldest living relative. After the children have gone to bed, a crib or crèche is placed before the fireplace, and around it are grouped the children's shoes, which serve the same function as Christmas stockings.

In Brazil
Papa Noel makes the Christmas Eve rounds in Brazil, in a reindeer-drawn sleigh. He trims the trees and with popcorn and bits of cotton — to make up for the snow that never falls. Since Christmas weather in Brazil is summery, picnics and boating excursions are part of the celebration.

In Germany
Many modern Christmas customs come from Germany, including the lighted evergreen tree. Appropriately, gift-giving season in West Germany today starts after Christmas bonuses are distributed on December 1.

Thousands will visit Bethlehem

Gathered in the Church of the Nativity, thousands of Christians from around the world will worship in Bethlehem this Christmas. A highlight of their pilgrimage is, for most, a visit to the Grotto of the Nativity — traditionally, at least, the manger where Christ was born.

Opposition to Christianity in the first few years of the new religion actually led to the preservation of the manger — an improvised stable — a cave hewn out of rock near the center of the hill town of Bethlehem.

The Roman emperor Hadrian, who ruled from 117 to 138 A.D., sought to halt the fast spread of Christianity, and he had the cave converted to a grotto for the worship of the pagan god Apollo. The very fact that the cave was marked though for pagan purposes helped to preserve knowledge of the site of the Nativity.

Christmas feasts

Many foods for Christmas feasting have been traditional since early days of Yule merry-making, although roast peacock, the feature of the feast in medieval England, is rarely, if ever, seen today!

Mince pie, with its spices and fruits, is said to symbolize the riches of the East, from which the wise men came.

Legend says plum pudding began when an English king and his men were lost in a forest on Christmas Eve. The cook used foods he had on hand, including part of a stag, plums, eggs, flour, to make a single dish all could share.

Nowadays Christmas trees are made out of almost everything, from aluminum to plastic — but the world's favorite Christmas tree is still the evergreen.

Many legends explain how the evergreen became associated with Christianity and Christmas. One is the story of St. Wilfred, according to the Book of Knowledge.

Speaking to a group of converts, the saint sought to illustrate how they had broken away from the heathen worship of the Druids.

He chopped down a giant tree — an oak, since this kind of tree was one of the chief objects of Druid worship. As it fell with a crash, it split into four pieces. From the center a young fir tree sprouted.

St. Wilfred told the converts that the fir should form them on serve as their "holy tree".

"It is the sign of an undying life," he said, "for all its leaves are evergreen, and it points towards heaven.

"It is the wood of peace, for all your houses are built of the fir. Let this be called the tree of the Christ Child; gather about it, not in the wilderness, but in your homes."

Marzipan usually thought of at Christmas

Sweet is the history of marzipan, a confection that is usually thought of as a Christmas candy. Today, it is still being made with the same kind of ingredients as those used hundreds of years ago.

It consists of freshly ground almonds made into a paste, sugar, syrup and flavoring. Sometimes honey is added.

There are many legends concerning the word, "marzipan," says the Candy, Chocolate and Confectionery Institute.

One old tale attributes it to the bread eaten by St. Mark in the desert — "Mardania," the bread of Marcus. Records show that Barolomeo Scapoli, secret cook to Pope Sixtus V, made marzipan with the ingredients now found in modern recipes for the candy.

MEDICAL SHOP TALK: PATIENTS NEEDED UNFRIGHTENING

Dr. A: No matter who the patient is, I make a special effort to be friendly to them. Dr. B: My patients aren't skin specialists; yes, a skin specialist, for a small pimple on the chin in skin disease, and they figure all they have to do is worry about it as it is on their appearance. It's not like having to worry about their heart when they come to you.

Dr. A: Skin or heart, I think the doctor has to put out to relax his patient. Whatever his illness, you'll have a hard time convincing me that he can't do it. I know what I thought of immediately: cancer. I think the appointment. Intelligent patients or not, he tells you when he comes to the doctor.

Dr. B: That may be true for people who aren't well-informed. But the modern, intelligent patient knows better than to panic.

EVEN DOCTORS FEAR

Dr. A: I guess the trouble with you is that you haven't been down to a doctor lately for your own health. You might take a different tune. Take me for example. As a doctor, I guess you'd admit that I ought to make as intelligent a patient as there is. But I still recall vividly my fear of going when I went to see a skin specialist; yes, a skin specialist, for a small pimple on the chin in skin disease, and they figure all they have to do is worry about it as it is on their appearance. It's not like having to worry about their heart when they come to you.

BELLS

Ringing bells in churches, for solemn and glad ceremonial occasions, goes back to about 7 A.D.

In early Britain church bells tolled for an hour on Christmas Eve, announcing to Satan, the coming of Christ. At midnight, joyous peals heralded Christ's birth.

By, And I don't want to. But come to think of it, I get a little scary when I take my yearly physical. It's one thing to sit on the doctor's side of the desk, and another to change sides and be a patient.

Dr. A: Of course. Doctors should keep remembering that grownups are nothing more than tall kids. When the little one comes to the pediatrician (or even when he goes for a haircut) he gets a lollipop to soothe him. Well, we can't pass out lollipops to adults, but we mustn't forget to treat them with kid gloves when they come to the office for any reason whatever.

EDITORIAL ..

ENOUGH IS ENOUGH ..
Someone on "The House of Commons" should get up on their "third legs" and make headlines by declaring that Canada is for Canadians — not for the French, Scots, Irish, English, Jews, Americans or any other of the numerous world races, many of whom have either immigrated to Canada or were born here of stock which immigrated from one of the many countries of the world.

At the moment attention is being focussed on those of the French race who would divide the country far more than it already is into French and English camps by reflecting bilingualism upon it. The very size of the country and its sparse population make it impossible to reflect in it. We cannot afford the luxury of two languages for one thing and heaven knows this work is complicated enough without our adding to and compounding the confusion.

People have generally been fairly tolerant of the French race in the past, but in the last few years the government of Canada to waste hundreds of thousands of dollars in the printing of bilingual currency and official forms but some of the more recent demands exceed the bounds of reasonableness and threaten to foster serious internal strife. The CBC (Toronto) radio station fiasco bordered on the ludicrous, to cite but one example. The "double talk" which pervades much of our nationally owned (supported out of taxation to a large degree by people of all races and creeds) television stations is about as far as anything could be in a nation of under 20 million.

To put it bluntly, and with all due respect to the French-Canadian people who were by no means the original Canadian settlers, (this honour belongs to the Indians who were shamelessly treated by both the English and the French speaking people) Quebec is making far too much political noise and putting forward too many demands in proportion to its importance as only one of the 11 Canadian provinces.

Enough is enough of this pandering to a minority cause. . . . Someone in authority and with the required intelligence, should call a spade a spade by letting it be known that Canada is for Canadians and anyone not wishing to be one is free to leave whenever it is convenient.

December 27, 1938

The first blizzard of the winter struck this section of Ontario last night and an all night snow storm severely blocked many roads of the district. Accompanied by a damp southeast wind, the sticky snow had travel on many of the side roads of the district impossible. It was with such suddenness that citizens returned to Lindsay after a holiday in other centres found travelling very difficult. Smith Transport officials stated today that travel on the highways was most difficult but the snow plows had cleared the roads before morning. The northern highways, however, were not all cleared early today and traffic from Haliburton, Minden and other villages of the north had not arrived at 11 o'clock today. It is believed the plows will complete the opening of these roads before noon. The first indication of the approaching storm came from warnings issued by the weatherman was the high winds that were blowing from the west. The predicted storms and according to observers, the storms are not over yet, 1938 is to go out like a raving lion and they are to be created.

Reports and Remarks...

A BASELESS COMPLAINT

From the top to the lowest protagonists of the French Canadian demand for more concessions, from the Lamontagners, the Leagues, the Leagues to the Chaplains and all other leaders of the separatists and pseudo St. Peltiers in Quebec there comes with the regularity of monotonous the same argument: "Why," they say, "are the French in other provinces not treated with the same generosity as the English-speaking minority in Quebec?" The other day the inexpressible Mr. Cossette, the leader of a splinter group of Social Credit Party, put this way in connection with the refusal of Premier Bennett of B.C. to agree to the radical revision of the B.N.A. Act. Quebec demands: "The French minority in Bennett would say that the English-speaking minority in Quebec was denied its own schools. We are not asking special treatment, but rather equal treatment."

Nothing could be farther from the truth than this "equal treatment" argument of Quebec French-Canadian zealots. To get the background of this question, it must be remembered that it is through the insistence maintained by Quebec that the provinces under federal jurisdiction, over education. That was to ensure that the dominating factor in the education of the French Canadian youth — the influence and control of the church — would be preserved. Quebec had its way and after Confederation it kept on with its sectarian system with the large majority pronouncedly Roman Catholic.

In the other provinces a system of public schools, which children of all creeds could attend without any danger to their religion, was established. In Quebec there never was or has been such a system and the schools of the majority, controlled by the Roman Church and permeated by the teaching of its doctrine, were such that Protestant children simply could not attend them. That meant that the minority, mainly the English-speaking Protestant pupils, simply had to have their own schools. In brief, schools for the minority in Quebec became a necessity, not a concession or generous gesture by a large majority. For instance, even today Roman Catholic students can and do, attend the public schools in large number in other provinces with no threat to their religion, but the same cannot be said of the schools of the majority in Quebec in regard to the religion of Protestant students.

Therefore there can be no comparison between the treatment of the minority in Quebec and the other provinces until the Quebec government has established a school system to which parents of all denominations can be freely, controlled by the Roman Church and permeated. Perhaps the "neutral schools" which have been proposed in the welter of theories arising out of the discussions of the new League education bill, might help to bring Quebec a little bit closer to the other provinces, but until something of this nature is accomplished, French Canadian leaders have no grounds to complain about any special treatment to French Canadian students in the other provinces.

Spirit of Christmas season dominates W.I. meeting

Penfold Falls GPNB — The School all gaily packed. spirit of Christmas dominated the December meeting of the Women's Institute of Penfold Falls which was held at the home of Miss Viola Macdonald with a large attendance of members and several visitors. The president, Mrs. J. Thompson, extended a gracious welcome. Minutes were read and approved and the financial report given. It was decided to send a donation to the project of opening W.I. work in the N.W.T. It was brought to the attention of the ladies that the membership fee will be increased to $1 per member in April of 1964. Miss Macdonald gave the Good Cheer Motion picture which Mrs. Thompson expressed appreciation for a job well done. Several fund raising ideas were voiced and discussed. Sister of the International Peace Garden will be shown at a table to be decorated later and it was decided to adopt the Dime Cards as another project. The roll call was a shower of Christmas gifts for the Girls' Training.

"The Queen" was sung, followed by the Institute girls and in keeping with the festive season, delicious refreshments were served by the committee. Mrs. J. Barrett, Mrs. Vesey and Mrs. H. McCallum.

Omecme bride tendered shower
Omecme (PNS) — A Miss Jeanneus shower was held for the bride-to-be, the daughter of Mrs. William McQuade, King St., prior to her marriage to Mr. Ted Russell of Port Bolter.

About 20 attended and enjoyed an evening of games. Mrs. McQuade and her two daughters, Miss Catherine McQuade and Mrs. McCallum were assisted by Mrs. Goddard. Little Michael McQuade dressed in the gifts on a decorated wagon and the bride-to-be passed the wedding cake.

Public School concert held at Bethany

Bethany (PNS) — The annual school concert was held in Bethany public school with a capacity audience. Nancy Morton presided over the program. Chorus from the junior and senior room pupils echoed from the balcony. Children and recitations were given by Willie Hill, Bobby Palmer, Debbie Raynford, Maureen Kelly, Marilyn Giles, Clinton Biron, Diane Marichenko, Gregory Montgomery, and Billy Youngman and Victoria Perry.

Junior room pupils presented a play "The Cat Waits the Queen" and the senior room pupils a humorous play. Those taking part were Nancy Morton, Diana Green, David Raymond, Diana Perry, Norma Smith, Mary Ann Marichenko, Phyllis Youngman, Murray Strong, Kenneth Porteous, Jerry Graham, Fay McGill and Michael Chase.

All stores were sold — a late dispatch from Honeybrook says the firm has closed the end of the day.

Smokers in Englewood unanimously agreed the cigarettes, which cost 55 cents for a box of 20, smelled like burning garbage when lit and several complained of a burning sensation in their chests if they smoked a whole cigarette.

POWER BRAKES AND WINTER DRIVING

Most motorists will not power brakes and steering on snow and ice for the first time this winter. Perhaps for years of caution now may be a comfort from a country road and a snow-covered hill.

Ken Wetherill, a 1968 Chevrolet owner, says the power brakes are a great help in a winter drive. He says the power brakes are a great help in a winter drive. He says the power brakes are a great help in a winter drive.

opening dates, highways and roads, etc. It is expected that definite action will be taken on these resolutions by the Board of Directors following recommendations of this committee and the presentation to the various departments of the Government involved will be made.

The board were informed by George Colling, president of LODA, that an appointment meeting with the Hon. James Auld, Minister of Travel and Publicity, would be held next week to discuss co-operation and promotion of the tourist business in Ontario and to the Lake Ontario Region. LODA worked very closely with the Ontario Department of Travel and Publicity and with the Regional Tourist Councils this year to maintain status at Information Centres on 401 highway.

The LODA office was the administrative headquarters for this project.

FINANCING RESORTS

Much discussion evolved around the financing of improvements of resorts for resort operators in the area. The Board of Directors agreed that LODA should investigate what agencies are available at the present time to assist resort operators in obtaining financing at reasonable interest rates.

An Export Forum and Manufacturing Opportunities Conference will be held in Peterborough on Wednesday, January 18th jointly sponsored by the LODA and the Department of Economics and Development and many outstanding panels and speakers will be at the conference.

A report was given, presented by John Lawson, Assistant Manager of LODA, as the Agriculture Committee. Mr. Lawson said six representatives of various counties in the area were sponsored by LODA and attended the 1968 Junior Farmer Skills and Crop Study Tour. Lorne Dixon, Woodville, represented Victoria County.

Still another snow removal beef going the rounds these days has to do with dumping the snow removal from the streets into the Severn River. Those who are griping about this say they can't see the logic of financing a several hundred thousand-dollar sewage disposal system and then piling the scrappings from the town's streets right smack back into the river.

Still another and more of late presented beef, has to do with the filling in with drive-ways by snowplow crews. The folks who support this one feel Early morning temperatures today were 24 below zero at White River, 27 below at Earleton, right below at Sudbury, seven below at Toronto, and 24 below at Windsor. Temperatures will continue to well below the seasonal normal. The cloud cover will continue to vary across the province over the weekend with some snow flurries persisting in western Ontario. The snowflurries will be more frequent and heavier over the high ground in Ontario and the Lake Ontario area.

"Tell me pretty maiden," said the cameraman to the girl, "What do you think of the condition of our sidewalks this fine winter's day?" ENCOURAGING...

The accident record in Lindsay and district over the Christmas holiday was encouraging and shows what can be achieved in the way of traffic safety when people who drive are determined to exercise care and police make it clear there will be no leniency shown in cases where traffic laws have been violated. We hope the trend will be reflected when the New Year's holiday statistics are recorded.

It is most apparent that traffic violations can no longer be viewed lightly and that offenders cannot be dealt with leniently. The terrible consequences of failing to observe the rules of the road or drive while incapable for a number of reasons as to what that often measures to be, these practices must be adopted. Apparently when motorists know the "chips are down," they can and do perform better. Safety for fear of consequences is preferable to tragedy through unimpaired level of the knowledge that the penalty for bad driving will not be severe.

EXPECT SERVICE FOR MONEY PAID

When the public pays for a service they have every right to expect to receive it but this is not always the case. Our metered public parking lots are an example of a service the public is expected to pay for but which it doesn't always receive. The last few snowfalls have seen the lots and metered parking spaces completely covered with snow to the point where it is impossible to get to the parking spaces. It is not fair to expect the public to pay for parking privileges if they have to wade around in snow to "feed" the meter, plow through snow to get in and out, and otherwise be more inconvenienced than if they had not paid for the service. It would be interesting to have a test case of this kind come before the local court. If the court held that the public must pay for service not rendered, some kind of a monetary penalty might be established — one in which people would be encouraged to make a renewed bid to get something for nothing.

GOURMET'S CRAZY OATS

Wild rice — the staple food of some North American Indian tribes long before white settlers came to this continent — is now a very special food generally limited to the festive table.

Due to its growing limitations, wild rice is an expensive delicacy — but paradoxically, it requires no elaborate cultivation and its harvesting must be done with simple inexpensive tools.

For these reasons, the Department of Natural Resources has initiated a wild-rice growing project for the benefit of Indians in the La Ronge area or Northern Saskatchewan.

Wild rice is not native to the area but has been a timelike harvest for several Indian tribes in Eastern Canada and as far west as Manitoba and the central-western United States.

Scientific speaking, wild rice in Zizania Aquatica and isn't rice at all. The "rice" term was applied to it by early settlers and the rains, remembered rice and grow in shallow water on lake shores. The French settlers came closer to the truth when they called it "crazy oats" since it is a closer relative to the oat family. Wild rice is a perennial which grows each year if the roots are not disturbed. The harvest season is from mid-summer to early autumn. Immediately harvesting is required since the grain drops from the stem as soon as it ripens.

To date, short of prohibitively expensive measures, the only known way to harvest wild rice is the ancient Indian harvest of beating the ripe grain into a canoe.

Canadians team defeats Sweden 6-3

(United Press International) The Canadian Olympic hockey team skated their way to victory over the Swedish National team in Toronto last night, defeating the highly touted Scandinavians six-to-three.

The Collegians of Father David Bauer turned in a fine display of forechecking preventing the Swedes from getting untricked.

The win by Canada's Olympic crew last night avenges their three-to-one loss to the same team Friday night.

Swedish coach Arne Stromberg said his players became too confident after Friday's win. Said Stromberg "none of them stood around so much I thought they were states."

He handed the Canadians a bouquet, saying "they simply outskated us."

Stromberg has promised he'll have his team playing "a completely different tune" January fifth when Sweden meets the Czechoslovakian National team in Toronto.

Over 10,000 crowd viewed last night's game at Maple Leaf Gardens.

World Weather

Dublin 46, rain; Paris 39, cloudy; Copenhagen 39, cloudy; Rome 36, cloudy; Casablanca 40, cloudy; Tokyo 37, clear; Mexico City 50, clear; San Juan 75, cloudy; Ankara 25, cloudy; Berlin 37, cloudy.

Stout defense enables Chicago to beat New York Giants

(United Press International) A stout defense, which came through with five pass interceptions, enabled the Chicago Bears to beat the New York Giants, 14-10 Sunday in the National Football League's championship playoff.

A crowd of almost 40,000—braving 10-degree weather in Chicago's Wrigley Field—saw both Bear touchdowns set up as a result of errant tosses by Giants' quarterback Y-A Tittle. In each case, the Bear scores were made on short phases by quarterback Bill Wade.

The Giants got on the scoreboard first when Tittle hit flanker back Frank Gifford with a 16-yard pass in the end zone in the first quarter. However, before the period ended, Chicago linebacker Larry Morris ran back an interception 61 yards to the Giants' five from the line. Don Chandler booted a 33-yard field goal in the second quarter to give New York a 10-7 halftime lead.

But the Bears were not to be denied. Big 20 O'Brien intercepted a Tittle pass in the third quarter intended for Phil King on the Giants' 24 and he ran it back (United Press International) Gordie Howe is closing in on Maurice Richard's cherished National Hockey League record.

Howe closes in on another of Richard's records

The Detroit Red Wing star who earlier this season broke Richard's regular-season lifetime mark of 944 goals, reached the 800-mark for his career including playoff games Sunday night as the Wings beat the Boston Bruins, 2-1.

Howe needs only 28 more goals to reach the grand total of 832 set by Richard during a career which made him "The Babe Ruth of Hockey". No. 600 for Howe came at 5:51 of the first period of a 3-1 win over the Bruins. Dick from just in front of the net and Eddie Joyal added a 36-footer in the third period for the Wings' other goal. Leo Rivin scored Boston's goal with 40 seconds left in the second period.

The Chicago Black Hawks maintained their five-point hold on first place with a 2-0 victory over the Toronto Maple Leafs. Ken Wharram scored both Chicago goals in the first period and Glenn Hall provided with 28 saves.

Heurt Richard and Bobby

Bouscaw scored two goals each as the Montreal Canadiens defeated the New York Rangers, 6-2, in a game that became a travesty when 20 penalties were called in the third period. Despite what amounted to a free-fall on the ice, referee Vern Bennett indicated he would not recommend more than routine automatic fines.

Cross Section Canada - '63

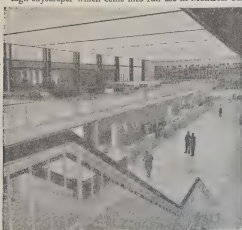

As the world finishes another 600-million-mile trip around the sun, ending one more earthly year, Canadians can look back with satisfaction on a worthwhile journey. A time of steady growth, 1963 saw prairie wheat grow tall as never before, big-city skylines soar skyward in dazzling beauty, seaway tonnage rise, performing arts encouraged in peacetime fashion, massive power projects take shape. Oil exploration extended offshore, communications spanned vast oceans, science, industry and medicine surged forward. Organized sport spurred national fitness, a bi-cultural commission began a search for accord, humanitarian new airports opened welcoming doors across the country. Canada's closest friends met in Ottawa to consider NATO and nature marked the year with a total eclipse of the sun from Yukon to Nova Scotia. In the northern sun the lastest ice fields on record tested the prowess of Canada's intrepid icebreakers. Plans for the future included the formation of the national central administration, the opening of the 1967 world's fair, the changing of the Northwest Territories' future status and a phenomenal expansion in educational facilities for the nation's vigorous youth. Canada 1963—another year of steady progress.

Airport at Winnipeg, Manitoba, above, was one of five across western Canada to become operational.

Inauguration of 16,000-mile communications system from Britain to Australia via Canada took place in December.

In medicine, Drs. Jacques Genest of Montreal and Murray L. Barr of London, Ontario, won international recognition.

Fitness and Amateur Sport program has helped boost such activities as fencing, above, and figure skating.

Candlelight, music, pageants and prayers mark Christmas celebration

Here is an essay that will delight almost all lovers and seems most fitting at this time of the year as Christians celebrate the birth of Christ.

The writer - Miss Elaine Oliver, of Tobaccogrove, Grade 12 student at the L.C.I. - gives an insight into the part played by the "lowly donkey" in creating the Christmas story.

Opening with a question, she writes: "What use does the donkey have? What purpose does it serve? Who wants them there? These are the questions asked by most people with raised eyebrows if you even mention the name "donkey". I think this is outrageous.

"The donkey has 'been around' for a considerable length of time. He has long shaggy ears, but so do rabbits, but of course on a donkey's ears are much more useful than a rabbit's ears, and even while for our donkey—chickens another bad mark against the donkey makes the queer sound of 'hee-haw-hee-haw' but when you compare it to the 'baa, baa, baa' of the sheep, I think in the morning, there never was a sweeter sound.

"Our donkey is a very tough animal, and as far as I am, and is as lovable as any baby puppy or newborn calf. He seeks attention and cannot understand why society rejects his appeals. Why do we do this?

"We think donkeys are odd creatures and not on the same plane as other 'carnal' animals, and we don't show them any affection and through this ignorance the donkey's cause is lost.

"A donkey is a creature which is supposed to give neutral facts, jumps to the conclusion when it states that 'A donkey is an ass, a stupid and obstinate animal'. A modern song goes, 'A mule is a terrible diagram'. How do they know?

Chances are, they have never seen one. Have you? "Donkeys are a child's delight at a fair or circus, and children are under the spell of them. They are a social compulsion to condemn a donkey but just wait until they become a little older.

"These little animals work for their 'salt' in the mines of Wales, from early morning until late at night, from the age of six months up. By the time they are grown up, they are blind and others take their place, but who cares. It's just a donkey.

"The donkey we have as a horse is affectionately named 'Jack'. He is a playful little fellow and has offered my younger brother many enjoyable hours of fun and satisfaction, when he otherwise might have been off to school learning the art of getting into trouble.

"We think you Jack for me."

"Finally before I close I wish to say one last word in favour of the Jack. Have you Mary and Joseph come to Bethlehem so long ago, on a donkey? Blackstock? No, it was on the back of a humble donkey which was made divine. Today all donkeys wear the stigma of this proud rise. All donkeys have a cross on their back which tells us Jesus rode on them and must have loved them."

"Don't you love the lowly donkey more now? Admit it. I know your hearts are so made of ice. Let him melt them."

Lindsay park celebrates his 86th birthday

Spry, 86-year old William Park of Lindsay has had an eventful life from the time of his birth in Fenelon Township, just north of Cameron to his eventful retirement in Lindsay. Mr. Park celebrates his birthday on Monday.

One thing Mr. Park has is a very good memory. Speaking of his early life which was homebased in the West in 1903 Mr. Park recalled, "I was born in Fenelon Township, section 26, township 23, range 8, west of the fourth line which was halfway between Calgary and Saskatoon." Mr. Park built his own home on his well and spent 12 years on his homestead up to 1915. Then returned to Ontario and learned the farming trade. Congregational carol singing, special music feature service

A service, special of the Christmas season, was enjoyed by the congregation of Cambridge Street Baptist Church.

Rev. Roadway assisted by Mr. Howard Berry introduced several carols which were sung by the congregation. These were interspersed with solos and duets. Brian Parish and Graham Leach sang "O Holy Night." A quartet and bass duet, Marilyn Irvine sang "What Child is This?" and Mr. Carner sang "Heavenly Father." Mr. Roadway was the capable pianist throughout the service.

To conclude the special service "The Nativity" - a version of Handel's great oratorio "The Messiah" - was heard on hi-fidelity.

The recording was by the Victoria Academy Hall soloists and the Vienna State Opera Orchestra in the same arrangement as it was presented at the first night, 231 years ago in 1742 in Dublin. "The Messiah" is the greatest combination of singing and instrumental music that has ever been written and it continues to move the souls of its listeners. It is a masterpiece of art that heard by the shepherd on the hillsides - it has been heard nearly 2,000 years ago. In conjunction with the music the audience views beautiful stage scenes as

The Parkins moved to Lindsay in 1943 to retire although Mr. Parkins worked in roads between Lindsay and Peelson Falls for about seven years during the winter months. After 1950 he completely retired to his favorite hobby of gardening.

A member of the Loyal Order of Lodge since 1910, Mr. Parkins was given an honorary life membership in 1961. He was for two years master of Windsor Lodge. He has been very active in church life, especially in the Sunday School of the United Church where he has belonged to. He started in his early twenties and ran a young men's club at five o'clock.

'High office' for Chevrier; replacements not named

Ottawa, Dec. 27, (UPI) - Prime Minister Lester Pearson has announced the resignations of Justice Minister Lionel Chevrier and Postmaster-General Asmus Denis. Pearson said Chevrier would be appointed to "a high office in the public service," while Denis will be named to the Senate.

Both men will remain in the cabinet until their new appointments become effective sometime next month.

Elections will be held in their Montreal riding February 19.

The Prime Minister told newsmen "one or two" more cabinet changes will be announced in January, but he declined to offer any details at this stage.

He said, however, that they would not necessitate further by-elections, meaning that appointments to the two vacancies or possible shuffling of existing portfolios and not more resignations were involved.

Pearson said the resignations of Chevrier and Denis were announced today so that their riding, Montreal-Laurier and Montreal-St. Denis respectively - could be filled in time for the second round of the 26th parliamentary scheduled to begin in mid-February.

Or, consider Mrs. Jones who has also been having indignation. Glad bladder X rays and ordinary G X rays are negative. There is no evidence of hiatal hernia. A careful history elicits the fact that the trouble comes on only after the patient eats chicken. An allergic finds she is allergic to chicken. No chicken, no more attacks of indignation.

Dignosis is not easy. It remains a challenge in every patient's doctor's eyes. Whenever we take a diagnosis for granted is just about the time we will make the true one.

COLLAGEN DISEASES

Dear Dr. Steinerhor: Will you name some collagen diseases? Just what are they—Mr. J.

Comment: In these diseases, so stubborn to treatment there is some disturbance in the connective tissues around blood vessels, joints and in the skin. Cause is unknown. Symptoms depend upon where the involvement is. Doctors have means of making the diagnosis by special laboratory and microscope tests.

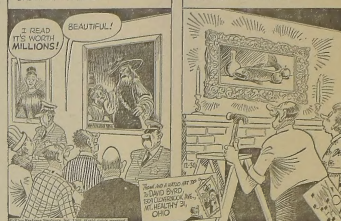

Here are the more common ones: rheumatoid arthritis, scleroderma, systemic lupus, periarteritis nodosa and dermatomyositis.
